FEDERAL SPOILS.

Congressman Andrews Mentioned for the Office of Revenue Collector.

Nebraska will have a good list of applicants for federal positions under McKinley's administration. Congressman Andrews has already been mentioned as the next revenue collector for Nebraska. During the past week several delegations of Republicans have gone to Omaha to present the name of Congressman Andrews for the consideration of Senator Thurston. Recommendations from leading men in the state have been given voluntary in the interests of Congressman Andrews and a big batch of documentary backing will be filed at the proper time. The chances of success are considered bright by friends of Mr. Andrews. P. O. Hedlund, deputy auditor of public accounts, the defeated candidate for auditor, is also likely to be an applicant for the position of collector of revenues.

When A. J. Sawyer steps out of the office of United States district attorney this place will be filled by a Republican, and the rush has already commenced. The list of Omaha and Lincoln attorneys who want the place would fill a book, but few have openly made an announcement. J. L. McPhely of Minden is one of the western men who is being urged by friends to enter the race.

TOM PLATT is on easy alley again as the Empire state's political boss of the Republican persuasion.

J. S. PHILLIPS of the Indianola Reporter denies officially that he voted for more than sixteen electors. That is just the number of electors on the combined Prohibition and National tickets, too.

THE United States supreme court has just rendered a decision sustaining the constitutionality of the Wright irrigation law of California, after which the Nebraska irrigation law is largely copied.

Twenty-Ninth District Returns.

The following are the official returns of the 29th senatorial district as canvassed by the clerk of Furnas county:

Graham's majority.....		321

Jasper's Jolly Joshings.

Be sure you are elected and then go ahead.—P. E. McKillip.
Politically speaking Red Willow county is uncomfortably close.

To be candid, we are not much put out with the defeat of the Republican state ticket.

County Attorney Keyes is said to be perfectly satisfied with the result of the election on county attorney.

There will be a little political scrap in Red Willow county, twelve months hence, that will do your whiskers good.

SUNFLOWER SILHOUETTES.

Conductor Cromwell moved his effects to Hastings on Wednesday.

Agent Ayer of Franklin is figuring on an extended trip with his family.

Conductor LeHew has charge of Cromwell's crew, while the latter is making the transfer from Oberlin to Hastings.

L. W. Wright, in consequence of a slight misunderstanding with a frisky car pin, has a slightly disfigured countenance.

The station at Bloomington is undergoing repairs. The high platform is being taken down and the depot raised some. No more high platforms is the order now.

PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE.

O. FROST of Bartley and J. J. Lamborn of Indianola were visitors, last Friday evening. Mr. Frost also on Monday evening.

DR. AND MRS. GARTEN of Lincoln were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Morlan, latter part of the week, the Doctor indulging in a hunt with the Deacon while here.

HON. J. W. COLE of Culbertson, who came within four or five rows of apple trees being elected representative up in Colonel Abbott's district, viewed the metropolis by electric light, Monday.

McConnell's Balsam cures coughs.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers,
The famous little pills.

BARTLEY.

Ed. Mitchell of the metropolis was in town, Tuesday, gathering items of interest for his paper.

One of Rev. I. N. Clover's sons is here from Omaha spending a few days with his parents and friends.

The Staley Bros. sojourned over Monday night in our town with a fine herd of steers, purchased from J. B. Meserve.

E. E. Smith spent Tuesday and Wednesday in the vicinity of Stockville gathering up cattle he has purchased there since the election.

Mrs. E. A. Wilson returned, Friday night, from her visit to friends in Michigan. She greatly enjoyed her visit, and Austin as greatly enjoyed her return.

Mrs. O. Frost has been sick and under the care of Dr. Hoyt, but at this writing is rapidly recovering, and we hope in a few days to be fully restored to health.

T. F. Welborn and son are busy unpacking and placing their goods on the shelves. When complete, they will have a nice assortment and we are pleased with their valuable addition to our town.

J. H. Stephens, the Crete nursery rustler, is laid up with the rheumatism, and unable to attend to business, but is better and expects to go to Lexington, Neb., in the interests of the nursery soon as he recovers.

F. A. Hodgkin's daughter Lena has the first and only case of diphtheria in this vicinity. The school board, Dr. Hathorn, who has the case in charge, and Mr. Hodgkin will use every precaution to keep it from spreading. At this writing she is improving.

The Lincoln Land Co., under the supervision of O. Frost, is building a large crib in which to place the corn raised on their adjacent land. Barnett Lumber Co. of this place supplied the lumber. Strange, isn't it. One corporation buying of another.

We hear it rumored that J. B. Meserve, our state treasurer-elect, has resigned the office of county treasurer, and the rumor further states the appointment of J. H. Berge to succeed him, both to take place in the future. This is no surprise, for we expected it, but when the Pops got control of our state legislature, well it just knocked us out.

INDIANOLA.

Hon. Jno. J. Lamborn went in to Omaha, Tuesday night.

Jacob Lerch is getting ready to move to California about Dec. 1st.

Considerable corn, most of it very fair quality, coming in at 12 to 15 cents a bushel.

W. E. Rollings has opened out a stock of general merchandise he recently brought here from eastern Kansas.

Guy L. Lamborn's great race horse, died here, this week. As he was regarded as a very valuable animal, his death will be a serious loss to Mr. Lamborn.

Hon. J. B. Meserve's friends in this locality rejoice in his good fortune in capturing the treasury portfolio of the great state of Nebraska. Many that do not agree with him politically have no fears that the people's interests will suffer in consequence of his victory over candidate Casey.

Indianola Republicans ratified McKinley's election on Saturday night. A good sized bonfire, splendid music and patriotic speeches entertained those that gathered to celebrate the occasion. Pop Gun Smith undertook to rally some of the Popocrats in the way of a counter-demonstration, but the defeat of Bryan acted like a wet blanket on the attempted enthusiasm.

RED WILLOW.

Mr. Larson moved to McCook, on Wednesday.

Mr. Caldwell is doing some work for Elias Canaga.

Mart Rinck will take a hand in husking Wm. Byfield's corn.

A. C. Black got home too late for election, thereby diminishing the Populist majority.

The schools are progressing very nicely; teachers and pupils all satisfied we believe.

John Kummer is to return home Friday, his corn all out. His sister Maggie accompanies him.

The members of the M. E. Sunday school gave a pleasing little concert, last Sunday evening.

A debating club is being talked of, where the political questions left unsettled by the election may be satisfactorily reviewed. Those who have a surfeit of politics may stay at home.

Charlie Byfield took his letter from the Y. P. S. C. E., of which he is an active member here, as he wished to join the society at Alda, Nebraska, where he is making his home this winter.

Mrs. Helm is collecting money to assist in giving poor Edward Lorenz another trial. Our hearts go out to those too poor to defend themselves under such a grave charge, and while no mistake may have been made, yet he should have as good a chance as a millionaire. We understand that one of the learned jurors rendered his decision not on evidence but because he knew a boy with such a shaped head was bound to be a murderer. Perhaps this statement is idle gossip, it is to be hoped so at least.

NORTH COLEMAN.

Mr. and Mrs. Sinchell of McCook were visitors at H. Simmerman's on Monday the 9th.

H. K. Bixler finished making molasses on Thursday. He is doubtless glad it is at an end.

W. H. Epperly is as good a farmer as the best but his reward in the corn production is little enough.

Mr. James Campbell raised a fine lot of turnips which will help like a charm to those who secure a supply.

Two weeks ago Friday, Master Phillip Moore was champion speller in 74. Roy Stryker carried similar honors on Friday last.

Mr. H. B. Wales expects to have 1000 bushels corn, but this is not saying how many hundred acres he planted to that golden grain.

Mr. Campbell, Sr. of Box Elder was a caller at the Bixler cane mill, Wednesday, and purchased some of the product of that noted factory.

Newspapers are precious. Mrs. W. H. Epperly was the recipient of one sent from a friend which had this inscription on the margin, "Handle with care and return."

There are still patches of the beautiful snow to be seen to tell the story of Oct. 29. There probably will not be enough to make a snowball by the time these "seeds of kindness" are scattered broadcast.

We are inclined to the opinion that not many of the oldest citizens can tell of a worse siege of bad roads in Red Willow than the one just past. They are all right side up now which makes it seem like old times again.

Our friend Osbaugh of Perry says that he came over to Coleman and helped in all the McKinley clubs and then got left for assessor in his own precinct, which is more than he agreed for. From a Republican point of view Coleman was a pretty bright spot, too, as well as McCook.

A China Wedding.

After the November elections were over Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Philippi remembered that the 20th anniversary of their marriage would come on Friday, Nov. 13th. So acting on that thought, they invited some forty of their friends to help celebrate the day. The friends began to arrive at their home about three p. m. and kept coming at times, until six o'clock, when they all partook of a good supper of oyster soup, roast duck and turkey and other good things, after which they listened to some good music and singing by A. G. Culbertson, in which he was assisted by his wife at one time. There was also some good violin music by W. N. Rogers, assisted part of the time by Mr. Philippi with a violin and Edwin Philippi on the base viol, which was accompanied by Mr. Culbertson on the organ. It was all good and highly appreciated.

Those present were: A. G. Culbertson, wife and family, W. N. Rogers, wife, daughter Pearl and son Leon, Chas. Weintz, wife and son William, Joseph Spotts, wife and daughter Beulah, A. C. Marsh and family, Mrs. Hughes and two sons, Mrs. Marsh Phillippi and daughter Winnie, Mrs. Dudek, Misses Annie and Sophia Setmeyer and niece, Mr. Hauce Madison and Merton Bunnell. Some six or eight were invited who could not be there.

Some very pretty presents were received, both of china and glassware, among which were a china lamp, china fruit-dish and other pretty and useful presents.

The length of life may be increased by lessening its dangers. The majority of people die from lung troubles. These may be averted by promptly using One Minute Cough Cure. A. McMillen, Druggist.

The three-year-old boy of J. A. Johnson of Lynn County, Illinois, is subject to attacks of croup. Mr. Johnson says he is satisfied that the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, during a severe attack, saved his little boy's life. He is in the drug business, a member of the firm of Johnson Bros. of that place; and they handle a great many patent medicines for throat and lung diseases. He had all these to choose from, and skilled physicians ready to respond to his call, but selected this remedy for use in his own family at a time when his child's life was in danger, because he knew it to be superior to any other, and famous the country over for its cures of croup. Mr. Johnson says this is the best selling cough medicine they handle, and that it gives splendid satisfaction in all cases. Sold by L. W. McConnell & Co., Druggists.

HOW TO CURE BILIOUS COLIC. I suffered for weeks with colic and pains in my stomach caused by bilious colic and had to take medicine all the while until I used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which cured me. I have since recommended it to a good many people.

Mrs. F. BUTLER, Fairhaven, Conn. Persons who are subject to bilious colic can ward off the attack by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms appear. Sold by L. W. McConnell & Co., Druggists.

"Excuse me," observed the man in spectacles, "but I am a surgeon, and that is not where the liver is." "Never your mind where his liver is," retorted the other. "If it was in his big toe or his left ear DeWitt's Little Early Risers would reach it and shake it for him. On that you can bet your gig-lamps." A. McMillen, Druggist.

Absolutely pure, perfectly harmless, and invariably reliable are the qualities of One Minute Cough Cure. It never fails in colds, croup and lung troubles. Children like it because it is pleasant to take and it helps them. A. McMillen, Druggist.
