THE LOWER HOUSE HELPS THE EXPOSITION.

After Long and Animated Discussion Lasting Until After Midnight the Bill Gets Through With the Above Appropriation—The Lie Passes From Horner to Wooster—Bill Ordered Engrossed for Third Reading.

NEBRASKA ASSEMBLY.

SENATE.—John Jefferson of Omaha was formally introduced into the senate on the 23d, and was assigned to the desk recently occupied by Senator John H. Evans. As soon as the senate was ready for the transaction of business Mr. Howell moved that a committee be appointed to wait on the chief justice of the supreme court, and request that the oath of office be administered to John Jefferson.

Mr. Jefferson and Mr. Howell then read Gov. Holcomb's message relating to interstate action on railroad rates to the Gulf of Mexico, and Mr. Jefferson then read the report of the committee on railroads with instructions to report within three days. Mr. Ransom introduced a resolution proposing to refer to the voters of the state an amendment to the constitution relating to the investment of permanent school funds. Mr. Murphy offered a resolution for investigation of the affairs of the late state auditor. It went over under the order of the day.

A large batch of petitions favoring the Trans-Mississippi exposition were presented. Among bills on first reading were the following: To provide for the selection of a district judge, to amend and define his powers and duties. To provide for the holding of the state fair of Nebraska at the capital of the state, and to repeal so much of section 1, chapter 11, of the compiled statutes of Nebraska of 1893 entitled "structure," as is in conflict with this act, and all other acts and parts in conflict herewith. To provide for the making of contracts in writing between owners of land and brokers or agents appointed to sell lands.

SENATE.—The senate on the 24th had a lively session. The usual batch of petitions were presented for and against the Trans-Mississippi exposition and against the proposal to abolish the soldiers' home at Millford. Mr. Osborn of Pawnee, chairman of the senate committee, reported several bills for indefinite postponement. One was a measure requiring railroads to reduce passenger fares to 2 cents a mile. He moved the bill to the general file. The motion prevailed. The railroad committee recommended that Miller's bill regarding the sale of all mileage books and tickets with transferable privilege be indefinitely postponed.

Mr. Howell moved to concur and the bill went to the general file. The railroad committee recommended the passage of the bill requiring union depots at junction points. House bill No. 7, by which the board of transportation to the telephone, telegraph and express companies. Mr. Murphy's resolution demanding an investigation of the affairs of ex-Auditor Moore, was called up and agreed to. Mr. Ransom's joint resolution providing for the investment of the permanent school fund was advanced to a third reading. The afternoon session of the committee of the whole on two bills amending the school laws.

SENATE.—Thursday, Feb. 23, was the thirty-first day of the session. The public printing bill, known as senate file No. 102, was read the third time to be placed on its final passage; but before its reading had been completed Mr. Graham moved that it be recommitted to the committee of the whole with a specific amendment. So ordered. Senate file No. 35, introduced by Mr. Goudring, giving to the board of taxation the power to determine which persons are charged with malicious destruction of fences, was read the third time and passed. Senate file No. 25, an act to amend chapter 10, section 1, of the compiled statutes of Nebraska, which authorizes judges and clerks of election to make full returns on the vote on constitutional amendments, authority was recommended under the present law. Among bills introduced were: Senate file No. 33, by which the full and better return of property for taxation and to prevent omission of property from tax levy. It provides that whenever any assessor believes that there has not been a full return of property within the county for taxation, the county commissioners shall have authority to employ any person to make inquiry into the facts. Any assessor who shall willfully omit to return any property for taxation shall be fined not more than $100, or be imprisoned in the county jail not to exceed sixty days, or both, as the court may determine. Senate file No. 34, introduced by Mr. Feltz, was read the third time and passed. The bill provides a full and better return of property for taxation in the county districts may be disposed of and the affairs of the district closed up. Mr. Howell moved to concur and the bill was passed. The resolution providing for the setting apart large tracts of land as forestry reserves. The resolution was adopted and the secretary instructed to take the bill in full to Senator Allen at Washington. Towards close of the session general consent was given for the introduction of bills, there was another flood. Bills came up to the secretary's desk by hundreds. When all the bills had been read Mr. Canaday introduced the last bill for the session. The bill is one prepared by one of Mr. Canaday's constituents who desires to repeal all existing road laws and enact new ones. The bill covers several hundred pages of large manuscript. The judiciary committee reported on senate file No. 22 with double recommendation, one referring it to the general file and the other asking for its indefinite postponement. It is a bill repealing the law which all applicants for admission to practice law at the bar are compelled to pass an examination by a committee appointed by the supreme court. The bill was placed on the general file. The senate then adjourned.

HOUSE.—The Trans-Mississippi exposition bill had been made a special order for 2:30 p. m. on the 23d, and as a consequence there was a large crowd in attendance. At the hour named 92 members answered present. Speaker Gaffin, from his place on the floor, called the roll and reported that the attendance and amended considerable time would be lost. He offered a substitute for the bill appropriating $200,000. Mr. Burkett said that it would be as well to read the original bill through without amendment and then take up Gaffin's substitute. This was done and then Gaffin's substitute as above referred to was offered. A long and animated discussion followed. Finally Speaker Gaffin, from his seat on the floor, called attention to the fact that all the oratory on the floor would change one vote on the bill. The question of indefinite postponement was taken for the house. He was in favor of taking a vote and finding whether or not it was to be postponed. Wooster accused Gaffin of trying to gag the members with the previous question. Gaffin disclaimed any intention of calling for the previous question. Then followed more discussion, many members participating. Mr. Wheeler moved that the committee of the whole now in report progress, and ask leave to sit again at 6 o'clock. Clark of Lancaster moved an amendment to ask leave to sit at 10 o'clock the following day. His motion prevailed and there was no night session. In the morning hour, before the exposition bill was taken up, standing committees recommended passage of a number of measures. A number of bills were also ordered to the general file. The chief clerk read the message from Governor Holcomb, relating to the concurrent resolution passed by the Kansas legislature. Clark of Lancaster moved that the committee on railroads and resolution be referred to the committee on railroads, which prevailed.
