Roadmasters Rogers and Hagberg were piloted out in the country by Tom Clark Tuesday, in quest of the festive duck. They bagged about a dozen ducks, but the greatest catch was when Ralph sank into about three feet of quicksand in the river south of Bartley and had to be pulled out.—Cambridge Kaleidoscope.

James Egan, tin smith, had the misfortune to hurt himself, quite severely, last week. He was screwing up a pipe on one of the engines when the alligator wrench, which he was using, slipped, catching his thumb between it and the fire-box, inflicting a severe bruise. He was obliged to lay off for a few days.

General John C. Cowin, special counsel for the United States government in the foreclosure suits of the government against the Union Pacific railway, says he sees no obstacle in the way of foreclosure, and thinks that the event will come along as quickly as the necessary legal papers can be issued by the courts. He believes that the foreclosure decree will undoubtedly be issued in May.
