THE HUMAN OSTRICH.

WHAT HIS DISSECTED STOMACH BROUGHT FORTH.

An Inventory of Its Contents—Nails, Knives, Glass and Tacks by the Handful—The Barlow Knife that Worried Him—A Successful Operation.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 14.—Dr. E. Von Quast of the city health department has a two-bladed pocket-knife with an ebony and brass mounted handle which, it is asserted, is the property of the city marshal of Pilot Grove, Mo.

This is an actual and complete inventory of the hardware, glassware and cutlery taken from Whallen's stomach.

WHAT HE HAD IN HIM. 1 4-bladed knife, 3 1/2 inches long. 2-bladed Barlow knife, 4 inches long.

The astonishing fact is that Whallen carried this remarkable collection of junk in his stomach a week and it still alive.

Whallen is a professional showman. He began swallowing nails and glass when he was a lad 10 years old.

Not long ago Whallen was stranded in St. Louis. He began to work his way to Kansas City by giving street performances in small towns.

The pocket knife feat caused Whallen's trouble. He swallowed a two-bladed Barlow knife belonging to the city marshal of Pilot Grove and it lodged in his stomach.

These photographs showed the bone frame work of the man's body and a dark spot almost as large as a man's hand showed the exact location of the mass of knives, nails and glass.

WHAT X RAYS SHOWED. These photographs showed the bone frame work of the man's body and a dark spot almost as large as a man's hand showed the exact location of the mass of knives, nails and glass.

As his calling would indicate, the "human ostrich" is a man of nerve. He said he did not fear the operation.

AN EDITOR ASSAULTED.

Major John L. Bittinger of the St. Joseph Herald Attacked.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., June 14.—Ex-Congressman George C. Crowther and Major John L. Bittinger, editor of the Herald, had a bloody fight on a street car just before noon today.

They took the same seat on an open street car and disputed about an interview with Major Bittinger published in the Daily News yesterday.

Crowther's face was considerably scratched, but his injuries are not serious.

THE fight was a result of the post-office controversy and the long political enmity that has existed between the two men.
