W. A. MCCOOL.

For Judge,
G. S. BISHOP.
For Superintendent,

For Commissioner—Second District,
HENRY CRABTREE.

Put a cross under the eagle and be happy.

THE Republican county ticket is composed of competent men throughout. Give them your vote.

A VOTE for W. A. McCool is a vote for a man who will make a model sheriff. Put a cross there.

MUCH careful work devolves on the county clerk. E. P. Day is equal to all demands of the office.

In the language of the placard: "Subscribe for the Courier now and get all the campaign news." "I don't think."

You want a competent, an upright, an experienced judge on the supreme bench. Judge A. M. Post is able, is honorable, has had the valuable experience. He deserves your vote.

COLONEL PHILLIPS thinks that Colonel Mitchell has been waiting for the Populists to put up some white metal before he opens up the campaign rather than till he could see the whites of Republican eyes.

A VOTE for O. L. Thompson is just that much toward assuring the election of a man who is well equipped to give Red Willow county a business-like administration of its financial matters. An X will do the business.

At the eleventh hour Colonel Mitchell began to realize that sheriff sales and probate notices are substantial sources of revenue, and a "good thing" to have in his business, so he said a faint word of praise for "Honest John" and "Ike the Just." And then his can-opener got out of whack again, and Dick's and Berge's campaign will have to go over till next year. We violate no confidence in suggesting that the Colonel is a sultry numeral.

ALREADY 131 leading articles of trade are under the control of trusts, and every branch of industry seems to be in danger of removal from the realm of competition. Just where this tremendous centralization of industry and wealth will end no one seems to know, and the idea of dealing with it is appalling. A great trust of the people, administered through the government, appears to be the only adequate remedy.

AMERICA'S greatest editor, C. A. Dana of the New York Sun, was as thoroughly detested for his principles as he was admired for his unequalled brilliancy: A defender of Tweed was the Sun until the sublime old rascal became absolutely indefensible; a supporter of Ben Butler and greenbackism; and long the organ of Tammany and its infamy; a checkered career of glory and shame greets the historian. From Tammany to Boss Platt! From greenbackism to the single gold standard! He was insincerity in the highest.

THE office of county judge is steadily increasing in importance. G. S. Bishop is qualified as a lawyer and clerically for all the growing duties of the office.

THE proper care of the unfortunate dead, or any of the possible duties of coroner, would receive the attention due it from Joseph Spotts. Don't forget his X.

A PROGRESSIVE, energetic and intelligent officer is needed at the head of our county schools. An X after the name of C. N. Whittaker will help to secure that result.

THE Indianola Reporter has it figured out that the McCook Courier neither molds nor reflects. Just wait, Mr. Phillips, until Mr. Mitchell opens up the campaign?

ONE of the sterling young men of Red Willow county is A. F. Reeves. The office of county surveyor would be in good hands by his election. Place an X where it will do the most good.

COLONEL PHILLIPS of the Indianola Reporter is authority for the statement that a McCook attorney is laying the pipes for the judicial nomination, two years hence. Is it an oil line, Jasper?

SOME of the Populist leaders say that Colonel Mitchell is waiting to see the whites of the enemy's eyes before he delivers a broadside. It is more likely he is waiting to see the white metal in the pockets of his friends.—Indianola Reporter.

JUST to let the railroads know that his trip to Venezuela has not impaired his physical or mental powers, Governor Pingree is starting out to make them obey the new Michigan law governing the sale of mileage tickets. Governor Pingree keeps the railroad managers guessing all the time.—Bee.

PROSPECT PARK.

Everybody attended the show at McCook, Saturday.

Andrew Anderson intends to feed a bunch of cattle, this winter.

A fine rain, Monday and Tuesday; about two inches of water fell at this place.

Mrs. Mary L. Woods of Maynard, Iowa, is here visiting her sister, Mrs. R. M. Wade.

Mrs. E. E. Hayes and the children drove over from Danbury, Wednesday of last week, on a visit to R. M. Wade and family. They returned home on Sunday.

J. Pickrell and family, J. H. Wade and wife, Miss Hattie Bunnell and Mrs. M. L. Woods attended the Epworth League rally at McCook, Sunday afternoon.

COLEMAN.

H. B. Wales, last Saturday, hauled out coal for the school in district 58.

Miss Anna Irvin's school was not crowded, Wednesday; only two scholars; Maud and Roy Coleman.

The appointment at the Coleman school house has been cut off from Box Elder and attached to the Culbertson work. The Rev. Mayfield preached his first sermon on last Sunday at 4 p. m., fast time. It is really encouraging to think that we, at last, have a man that means business in his line and will give us preaching every two weeks right straight along. May his ways be such that all can follow him; and may he be the instrument in God's hands in leading many precious souls into the light; and may the good people here give him a hearty support, spiritual and temporal.

Couldn't Hear the Music.

Colonel Burr of Virginia was a mighty fox hunter and loved the sport beyond words. He owned a fine pack of hounds, and, during the season, thought of nothing but his hunters, his dogs, and the weather. He was once entertaining an army friend from Texas, whose ideas of hunting any animal involved the use of firearms, and who had never seen a foxhound. He had been with difficulty persuaded to go forth one morning with the colonel and some friends to a meet, and they were waiting impatiently for the hounds to take the scent. Presently there burst upon their listening ears the din of 30 canine voices in full cry. The colonel's eyes gleamed, and, as he settled his feet in the stirrups and stretched his arm toward the yelping pack, he cried, "Major, listen to that heavenly music!" The major pricked up his ears for a second or two and then replied, "I can't hear a thing; these dogs are making such a noise." The colonel put his spur savagely into his horse's side and dashed away, leaving his guest to his own devices.—San Francisco Argonaut.

Was No Seaman.

"There is a great difference between the seafaring man of today and of 20 years ago," said the man of many voyages. "Formerly the seafaring man was a sailor, full of energy and the spirit of adventure that was the particular charm of Marryat's heroes, but now the man who follows the sea for a living, especially on one of the big ships, is nothing more than a paint swab. 'This is not any fault of the men, but because of the changed conditions which have left no sailor's work to do. Cleaning ship is the principal employment of the modern so-called seaman. 'One day a young woman novelist, in crossing the ocean on a big liner, asked an ancient mariner who was engaged painting a ventilator how long he had been a seaman. 'Sailor, mum? Bless yer heart, I'm no sailor,' and then, glancing again at his work, 'I'm no sailor; I'm a bloomin' artist, I am.'—New York Journal.

A Yale Prank.

The Hartford Courant tells a story of Yale in the old days. The boys used to bribe the printers' "devils" to get proofs of the examination papers for them. When the college authorities put a stop to this practice, a bright idea seized one fellow, and he saved the whole suffering party. He hired one of the printers (it was summer) to wear a pair of white trousers to the office and at noon to sit down on the form in which were locked the precious questions. The inky seat of that pair of trousers sold for a deal more than the clothes were worth in their original spotlessness and relief was secured.

The wheat fly feeds upon the flower of the wheat, while the hessian fly lays its eggs in the stem. The former thus renders the flower abortive, while the injury done by the latter affects the whole plant.

DANBURY.

About two inches of rain and snowfall, Tuesday.

Phillip Gliem and Charls Oman were Indianola visitors, Monday.

The schoolmarm here are preparing to entertain their visitors, tomorrow.

Many from here and this vicinity went over to McCook, Saturday, to hear Bryan.

William Sandon went to Omaha on Friday last to purchase a line of goods for the new store.

Remember that next Tuesday is election day, and every man should be a man and put the cross opposite the man he desires for the proper place, regardless.

The special meeting of the A. P. A. lodge, last evening, kept the politicians thinking seriously. We understand that Rev. T. M. C. Birmingham again addressed the faithful on "National Prosperity Through Christ." It was feared by some that action was contemplated effecting the coming election. But this is denied.

The following letters were advertised October 24th, 1897: E. Bolland, Mr. Charley Ravens, Mrs. W. H. Chamble, Mr. Edward Fisk, W. A. Fitzgerald, Mr. Bruff C. Jones, Mr. Earl McCarty, W. S. Nuel, Mr. Clyde Northey, Miss Mary Peters, Mr. Harry Winkelson, Doe Wilson.

While the American Business College, Omaha, Neb., now offers to give a complete business course by mail, free of tuition, we would advise our young people to investigate the matter and profit by it.

ONE OF TWO WAYS.

The bladder was created for one purpose, namely, a receptacle for the urine, and as such it is not liable to any form of disease except by one of two ways. The first way is from a perfect action of the kidneys. The second way is from careless local treatment of other diseases.

CHIEF CAUSE.

Unhealthy urine from unhealthy kidneys is the chief cause of bladder troubles. So the womb, like the bladder, was created for one purpose, and if not doctored too much is not liable to weakness or disease, except in rare cases. It is situated back of and very close to the bladder, therefore any pain, disease or inconvenience manifested in the kidneys, back, bladder or urinary passage is often, by mistake, attributed to female weakness or womb trouble of some sort. The error is easily made and may be as easily avoided. To find out correctly, set your urine aside for twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates kidney or bladder trouble. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy is soon realized. If you need a medicine you should have the best. At all druggists fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet both sent free by mail. Mention THE TRIBUNE and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The proprietor of this paper guarantees the genuineness of this offer. April 2-1 yr.
