TOWN TALK.

The Public Aroused During the Past Week.

Crowds of People Called at L. W. McConnell & Co.'s Drug Store, to Get Free Samples of

DR. HOBBS SPARAGUS KIDNEY PILLS.

Hundreds Now Testing the Remedy in This Vicinity.

NOW FOR RESULTS.

An intense interest was created in this vicinity by the announcement in last week's issue that a free package of Dr. Hobbs Sparagus Kidney Pills would be given away to any person who would call and ask for it at L. W. McConnell & Co.'s Drug Store.

This interest was shown by the unexpectedly numerous calls made at the above store. Many of the callers, who are sufferers from kidney complaints, expressed their astonishment at the offer to make no charge for the samples. Hereafter, the practice of medicine proprietors is to require pay in advance, and let the afflicted take the chance of cure.

The proprietors of Dr. Hobbs Sparagus Kidney Pills are reversing this practice, preferring to exercise the golden rule of "doing to others as they would be done by."

They believe, because it has been demonstrated in every instance, that if those affected with kidney troubles once try these pills, they will be convinced of their great merit, and get well by their use.

For this reason they made arrangements with L. W. McConnell & Co. to freely distribute as many sample boxes as should be called for, during the last seven days. Everyone who asked for a box was given it free of charge.

Many will be curious to know what are the results of the test of these pills now going on in the neighborhood. It is a little too soon to look for results, probably another week will make them known. If those getting the samples have faithfully followed the directions, they will be encouraged to persevere in their use.

It is gratifying to learn that wherever similar distributions have taken place, there has followed a large sale of the remedy, and many letters of gratitude have been written by those who have regained lost health.

Every person who knows or suspects that his kidneys or urinary passages are affected; every person who has any of the following symptoms, should make a test of these pills without delay, viz:—Pains in the Back or Sides, Headache, Nervousness, Frequent Thirst, Shortness of Breath, Puffiness of the Eyelids, Swelling of the Feet and Ankles, Dark Colored or Scanty Urine, with albuminous or other deposits in the urine, or too frequent urination.

For the benefit of interested persons, living out of town who, from any reason, failed to get a sample, Dr. Hobbs authorizes us to say, if you will cut out the coupon below and mail it to the Hobbs Remedy Co., Chicago, Ill., with your name and address, a sample box of these pills will be sent you by mail, post-paid, and free of expense.

Your attention is directed to the advertisement of the American Business College, Omaha, Neb., which appears in this issue. They offer to give a thorough course of instruction in business branches by mail free of charge for advertising purposes. This is a rare chance. The A. B. C. is one of the most successful business colleges in the United States, and to take a course with them means success.

ENGLISH LAWSUITS.

They Are Expensive, and the Lawyers Demand Big Fees and Retainers.

In England there are many fees to be paid by the unhappy client of a lawyer that are unknown here in America. There is a retaining fee, which is a guinea, and a half crown to the clerk, besides the brief fee, which is more important. Then there is the "refreshers" of the leader and the "refreshers" of the subordinate lawyers. In England the leader's refreshment, which is due after five hours, the brief fee being supposed to cover only the getting up of the case, is 10 guineas, or a little over $50, while $25 must be paid to the lesser lawyers.

According to English etiquette, no counsel can leave his circuit to plead in another without a special retainer, which, in most cases, cannot be less than 300 guineas. This is probably to discourage "poaching."

A would be client once wrote to a famous American lawyer, stating a case for his opinion and enclosing a $20 note. The lawyer did not reply, whereupon the client wrote a second letter and received word from the lawyer that he had read the case and formed an opinion, but somehow it stuck in his throat. The client took the hint and sent a $100 note, receiving the lawyer's opinion by the next mail.

Nobody does anything for nothing, especially a lawyer. Lord Mansfield was so sensible of this that on one occasion, when he had attended to some legal business for himself, he took some guineas out of his purse and put them in his waistcoat pocket to give him the necessary stimulus. Sir Anthony Malone, an Irish attorney general, was so imprudent as to forget this fact and was grievously punished for it, for he was so inattentive to some property of his that he lost $15,000 a year by it, and in the future he required his clerk to make abstract deeds of any property he might buy and lay them before him, with a fee of 5 guineas, properly indorsed, which the clerk was to scrupulously account for, after which Sir Anthony made no more mistakes in regard to his own property.—Chicago News.

HE TRICKED JAY GOULD.

How Jim Fisk Checked Out the Little Man's Bank Account.

Goold kept a balance of some $30,000 in the Tenth National bank for his personal account, household expenses, etc. Being called west on a mission that lasted several weeks, he left his check-book locked in the safe drawer, to which Fisk had a key. In the office was a clever young clerk whom Fisk had caught in the act of imitating his and Goold's signatures, the imitation of Goold's being a facsimile. Within an hour after the wizard's departure check-book and clerk were together under Fisk's supervision, and at his instigation more than a dozen blank checks were signed with the name of Jay Goold, and in the course of a month the $30,000 had disappeared, Fisk being at that time in the clutches of Josie Mansfield.

On the very day of Goold's return the bank sent a notice of overdraft. The little man nearly fainted. He had several fits. His excitement was intense. He declared that there was a conspiracy to ruin him. He hastened to the bank, and they showed him the checks, signed by himself they did not doubt, and he raved and tore his hair. Nor could he doubt the signature. It was genuine, even in his own eyes. A rigid investigation was started, which Fisk put an end to by informing Goold, with many a poke in the ribs, that he had drawn and used the money.

"Did Fisk make good?" an innocent asked when the story was told.

"Return the $30,000?" was the reply.

"If Fisk had returned it, Wall street would have cried."—New York Press.

Channel Island Despotism.

It is not generally known that something approaching a military despotism prevails in the Channel Islands. Every male adult born in Guernsey or Jersey has to serve for a long term of years in the militia, 15 years being the period in Guernsey.

In addition to this, all males of 22 years of age and under, of whatever nationality, who reside in that island for a year and a day continuously have to enter the militia and serve for 15 years, or suffer fine, imprisonment or expulsion.

During the last two or three years a great number of young Englishmen have settled in Guernsey to go into the tomato raising industry.

In order to avoid the military service imposed by the "states"—as the government of Guernsey is called—they make frequent trips outside their jurisdiction—either to England or to Jersey—the last named having a government independent of the rest of the Channel islands.—London Letter.

Some time ago the queen of Italy asked a little girl to knit her a pair of silk mittens for her birthday, giving her the money for the material. A pair of beautifully worked mittens arrived on the queen's birthday. The little girl received in return another pair. One mitten contained lire, the other bonbons. Queen Marguerite inclosed a little note saying, "Tell me, my dear child, which you like best." The reply ran as follows:

DEAREST QUEEN—Your lovely presents have made me shed many tears. Papa took the mitten with the money. My brother had the bonbons.

His Conversational Effort.

He did not know much about pictures, and when she spoke of a girl friend's achievements with a brush he was a little at sea. He said "Yes" and "No" with reasonable accuracy until she happened to say:

"What I am especially disposed to praise is her coloring."

"Her coloring!" he echoed with alacrity. "It's superb! You know I always did admire blonds."—Washington Star.

MOTHER! There is no word so full of meaning and about which such tender and holy recollections cluster as that of "MOTHER"—she who watched over our helpless infancy and guided our first tottering step. Yet the life of every Expectant Mother is beset with danger and all effort should be made to avoid it.

Mother's Friend

so assists nature in the change taking place that the Expectant Mother is enabled to look forward without dread, suffering or gloomy forebodings, to the hour when she experiences the joy of Motherhood. Its use insures safety to the lives of both Mother and Child, and she is found stronger after than before confinement—in short, it "makes Childbirth natural and easy," as so many have said. Don't be persuaded to use anything but

MOTHER'S FRIEND

"My wife suffered more in ten minutes with either of her other two children than she did altogether with her last, having previously used four bottles of 'Mother's Friend.' It is a blessing to any one expecting to become a MOTHER," says a customer. HENDERSON DALE, Carmi, Illinois.

"Collier's Weekly," October 28.

"Collier's Weekly," for the week ending October 28th, contains, as usual, a wealth of literary comment and artistic causerie. An editorial on the late Chas. A. Dana is particularly noteworthy as the tribute of one of his best-known associates of the "Sun."

"Our Note-Book" is iridescent as ever with Salts' sparkling phrases, lighted, as always, with incident and epigram. Edgar Fawcett's London letter deals with the literary gossip of the "Capital of Letters," and Julian Hawthorne touches with trenchant pen upon many crying evils of the day.

The illustrations are executed for the most part on wood, and are of rare artistic excellence. "Lawrence Clavering" by A. E. W. Mason, enters its second installment with interest unabated.

Altogether, "Collier's Weekly" is a type of what a high-class illustrated Weekly should be; elegant and elevating, a force that makes for culture and civilization. We commend it heartily to our readers.

Our method of instruction by mail is highly recommended by our patrons. Send for testimonials and list of names and addresses of students. It is free. The American Business College, Omaha, Nebraska.

FOR ALL WOMEN

NINE-TENTHS of all the pain and sickness from which women suffer is caused by weakness or derangement in the organs of menstruation. Nearly always when a woman is not well these organs are affected. But when they are strong and healthy a woman is very seldom sick.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

Is nature's provision for the regulation of the menstrual function. It cures all "female troubles." It is equally effective for the girl in her teens, the young wife with domestic and maternal cares, and the woman approaching the period known as the "Change of Life." They all need it. They are all benefited by it.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

THOS. J. COOPER, Tupelo, Miss., says: "My sister suffered from very irregular and painful menstruation and doctors could not relieve her. Wine of Cardui entirely cured her and also helped my mother through the Change of Life."
