

The McCook Tribune.

By F. M. KIMMELL.

$1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

LAST week's Indianola Reporter was in demand here. Colonel Phillips is a picturesque figure in our politics.

THE Omaha Bee charges the Lincoln Journal with having Populist tendencies. To which the Journal responds that it does not regard the Bee as being competent authority to pass upon its political standing at any rate.

AFTER perusing the returns of the election, Colonel Mitchell is constrained to raise up his voice and announce that the Populists are in the minority, and calls for the lovers of bimetalism to get together and that right speedily. The Colonel is an astute politician—that's apparent on the surface. But as we have had occasion to state in times past, the Colonel must never be taken seriously. He is too unspeakably funny for anything serious. They have always been in the minority. And the Colonel is just awakening to a well known fact.

PROSPECT PARK.

Mrs. R. M. Wade has been quite sick, but is better now.

J. Pickrell and Roy Barnes hauled hogs to McCook, Tuesday, for Robert Barr.

Mr. Swanson of Frontier county, with his family, visited at Andrew Anderson's, Saturday and Sunday.

A. C. Marsh and wife attended meeting at this place, Sunday, and spent the afternoon at R. M. Wade's.

Mrs. Mary L. Woods, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. R. M. Wade, the last two weeks, left on Tuesday evening for her home in Maynard, Iowa.

The entertainment, last Friday evening, given by the school of District No. 84, was a decided success and was enjoyed by all who attended. Miss Hattie Bunnell is the teacher.

CEDAR BLUFFS.

Our school-teacher has been seriously ill.

Mrs. Fred Haugher is still very low. Dr. W. A. DeMay of Danbury is attending her.

Mr. Peck is buying much corn. Corn is worth fifteen cents a bushel at Cedar Bluffs at present.

S. B. Hoppings is putting a large addition to his corn crib on account of the large crop of corn he raised, this year.

"THE fusion ticket in Hayes county was elected except treasurer and superintendent—Rah for Abbott!"—McCook Courier.

As we understand the situation in Hayes county, fusion cut no particular figure in the result. The opposition clerk, sheriff, and coroner were elected by republican votes solely on local issues. The "machine" was making a desperate fight on Abbott and his Republican newspaper, and in self defense and to get rid of a corrupt gang Abbott and his friends retaliated, and his flag is floating high. Outside republicans have their own ideas as to who has always kept Hayes county in the republican column, and no suspicion attaches to Abbott's republicanism. Hayes county gave Post for supreme judge 82 majority, and Irvine, democrat, for county clerk, 96 majority. That tells the whole story as to who is who.

A defective flue caused a slight fire in the kitchen part of Fred Jernberg's house in South McCook, about noon on Thursday. The flames were controlled before any great damage was caused, however. The damage will perhaps not exceed $50. Only prompt work on the part of the family and neighbors saved the house, as it is located outside the limits of fire protection.

The chaplain of Sing Sing prison, New York state, passed through here on No. 5, Tuesday night, bound for Trenton, where he goes to see about a loan on a piece of land in Hitchcock county.

McCook will soon boast of having more pretty women than any other town on earth. And it only costs $15, cash down and no grumbling.

Use Sheridan Coal.

They dwelt in a beautiful cottage,
Their children were pretty and sweet;
They lived in the state of Nebraska,
Where the farmers know how to raise wheat.
Of comforts, they had a good many,
Yet at times o'er them trouble would roll;
But the worst that the mother complained of
Was the fact that they burned dirty coal.

One morn while the children were sleeping,
And the mother was winding some yarn,
A man with some paint and some brushes
Began painting a sign on a barn.
In letters as white as the snow drifts,
When the wind from the north makes them
roll,
Distinctly and plainly he painted
These words: "Use Sheridan Coal."

At eve when the father returning
Saw the sign looming up big and white,
Said: "Wife I think we will buy some,
For they tell me the coal is all right."
Next morning he went to the dealer,
And said as he pulled out his roll,
My wife and I have concluded,
It best to use Sheridan coal.

THE supreme court of the state of New York has just granted a working man a judgment for $500. The man was recently black-listed by certain parties. He sued for damages and was awarded the sum mentioned, the judges holding that a man had the right to labor, and that the black-list interfered with the right unlawfully.

THE Republican defeat can largely be attributed to factionalism and indifference in Nebraska, this year. Republicans must get together.

AND now they are quarreling whether Gov. Holcomb or Private Secretary Maret wrote the Governor's thanksgiving proclamation.

AMERICAN BEAUTY.

Women of America have a type of beauty peculiar to themselves. The climate, habits, and social peculiarities have combined to produce a type of womanhood quite distinct from the women of other countries. It has become almost an every-day occurrence for the nobility and royal blood of Europe to cross the water in search of an American beauty, for the United States has become famous throughout the world. The American beauty is a peculiar product of this country. She has, however, one formidable enemy, not only to her beauty, but to her health as well. That enemy is indigenous to the climate and soil of the United States. It is called Catarrh. Almost every woman has it in mild or severe forms. Our climate makes it well-nigh unavoidable. It is the only natural enemy the American woman has. Not only is the United States the home of catarrh, but it is also the home of the now world-famous catarrh remedy, Pe-ru-na. The medical profession has at last succeeded in devising a remedy for the well-nigh universal disease.

Dr. Hartman, the original compounder of Pe-ru-na, has a recent book on chronic catarrh which he will send free to any address for a short time. Address The Pe-ru-na Drug Mfg. Co., Columbus, O. Ask your druggist for a free Pe-ru-na Almanac for 1898.

MR. AND MRS. COON, of Indianola, passed through the city, Wednesday night, bound for Idaho, where they expect to make their home in the future, having disposed of their considerable possessions in this country.

MISS MAGGIE BARGER departed for Carroll, Iowa, yesterday morning, after spending the summer here with her grandmother, Mrs. M. E. Barger. Miss Maggie has made many warm friends during her sojourn in our city. She was particularly active in League circles.

MR. AND MRS. C. S. BROADWELL, of Osborne, Ohio, have been out on a visit to their cousin, S. D. McClain of North Coleman. Mr. Broadwell is an excellent shot, and he and Sam had a fine time hunting on the Willow during their stay. They left for Ohio on Tuesday of this week.

C. B. KITHCART and wife this week moved to McCook with their household effects, and will reside there for a year or so at least, and perhaps permanently. We are sorry to see Mr. Kithcart leave Wilsonville. He has been here during the past twelve years, and seems almost a part of town. He was an obliging neighbor and a good citizen, whose departure, with that of Grandma Kithcart, will be regretted by the entire community.—Wilsonville Review.

Pay Your Delinquency.

In view of the better times, and higher prices for grain etc., the publisher expects those indebted to THE TRIBUNE for subscription to make good their delinquencies at once. During the continued hard times and failures no effort was made to force the collection of subscription accounts, but now that the conditions have changed greatly for the better it is expected that these delinquencies will be promptly paid up. Statements will be sent out to all in arrears and with the expectation that all will appreciate our past indulgence and respond at once.

Hicks' 1898 Almanac and Paper.

We are informed that the 1898 Almanac of Prof. I. R. Hicks is now ready, and judging from its past history, it will not be many weeks in finding its way into homes and offices all over America. It is much larger and finer than any previous issue. It contains 116 pages, is splendidly illustrated and printed on fine book paper, having the finest portrait ever given of Prof. Hicks. It can no longer be denied that the publications of Prof. Hicks have become a necessity to the family and commercial life of this country. His journal, "WORD AND WORKS," aside from its storm, weather, and astronomical features, has taken rank with the best literary, scientific, and family magazines of the age. Do not believe hearsay and reports. See the Hicks Almanac and paper for yourself. You will then know why they are so popular. They are educators of the millions, and unrivaled safeguards to property and human life. It is matter of simple record that Prof. Hicks has foretold for many years all great storms, floods, droughts, and tornadoes, even the recent terrible drought all over the country. The Almanac alone is 25 cents a copy. The paper is $1.00 a year, with the Almanac as a premium. Send to WORD AND WORKS PUB. CO., 2201 Locust St., St. Louis, Mo.

The American Business College, Omaha, Neb., has a notice in the local columns of this paper offering a thorough course of instruction in Book-keeping and Commercial Arithmetic by mail free of tuition. To avail yourself of this liberal offer is the same as accepting a present of $50.

In answer to the query: "Why should reading, writing, and arithmetic be called the 'three R's?'" the Commonwealth, of Philadelphia, prints the following as a possible explanation:

In his "History of Advertising," Mr. Sampson gives the following handbill, said to have been used near Lancaster, England: "James Williams, parish clerk, sexton, town crier, and bellman, makes and sells all sorts of haberdasheries, groceries, &c., likewise hair and wigs drest and cut on the shortest notice. N. B.—I keeps an evening school, where I teach at humble rates reading, riting, and rithmetic, and singing. N. B.—My shop is next door, where I bleed, draw teeth and shoo horses, with the greatest scil. N. B.—Children taught to dance, if agreeable, at 6d. per week, by me, J. B.—I sells good ayle and sometimes cyder. Lodgings for single men. N. B.—I teaches jography, algebra, and them outlandish kind of things. A ball on Wednesdays and Fridays."

"Collier's Weekly," November 4th.

The current number of "Collier's Weekly" presents the same array of famous literary names that have earned for it such deserved distinction among its contemporaries. The editorials on Cuba and Bimetallism are scholarly and powerful presentations of these questions, in their latest aspect. Edgar Saltus, in "Our Note Book," Julian Hawthorne and Edgar Fawcett, in their respective departments, and John Habberton, in "Throughout the Land," reflect through their polished paragraphs the thousand and one interests that engage the attention of thoughtful men the world over. The illustrations are particularly striking—the drawing, by Sonntag, of the Railroad Disaster near Garrison's being absolutely tragic in its grim reality. Altogether, this number of Collier's Weekly is exceptionally noteworthy, and will command the attention of all who love literature when allied with practical usefulness and artistic grace.

ONE OF TWO WAYS.

The bladder was created for one purpose, namely, a receptacle for the urine, and as such it is not liable to any form of disease except by one of two ways. The first way is from imperfect action of the kidneys. The second way is from careless local treatment of other diseases.

CHIEF CAUSE.
Unhealthy urine from unhealthy kidneys is the chief cause of bladder troubles. So the womb, like the bladder, was created for one purpose, and if not doctored too much is not liable to weakness or disease, except in rare cases. It is situated back of and very close to the bladder, and therefore any pain, disease or inconvenience manifested in the kidneys, back, bladder or urinary passage is often, by mistake, attributed to female weakness or womb trouble of some sort. The error is easily made and may be as easily avoided. To find out correctly, set your urine aside for twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates kidney or bladder trouble. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney and bladder remedy is soon realized. If you need a medicine you should have the best. At all druggists fifty cents and one dollar. You may have a sample bottle and pamphlet both sent free by mail. Mention THE TRIBUNE and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.
