Lost His Left Arm.

George Garber, whose misfortune it was to have his left arm cut off while coupling cars in the Denver yards of the Rio Grande R R, last week, received from the accident insurance company a draft for $1,000 and receives a pension of $25 per week for one year from the time of the accident. The cars did almost a perfect job of amputation, as they pinched it entirely off excepting two cords. Mr. Garber with his right hand assisted the two cords to carry the almost severed hand for about two hours before a physician was secured who amputated the shattered part about three inches from the elbow. Sunday evening, when his brother Charley left him, he was getting along nicely and resting well .-Red Cloud Chief.
