The Latch String Out.

It is well said that manners make the man, but the more solid ingredient of character is also necessary to a true type of manhood. If a man has these both, and also has the good sense to dress well he will find the "latchstring out" for him all over the world.

THE ST. FRANCIS BRANCH.

Atwood, Kansas, April 28. Special:—The patriotic fever has struck Atwood. Flaunting flags, bunting and streamers play in the breeze. A big flag has been ordered for the court house. Atwood is an American town, conspicuous for its intelligence, loyalty and patriotism.

The people along this line are grateful to the B. & M. officials for running the trains on time and placing on the branch two good engines.

The prospects for the coming season are bright. The damp, backward spring is making wheat thrive. The acreage is much larger than last year.

Dr. York of Atwood contemplates getting up a company of infantry for the Spanish-American war. The doctor is an old veteran and there is no doubt of his success.

The trains are no longer late on the branch, two splendid engines, Nos. 121 and 163 hauling them now. Extra after extra has been sent to carry the stock, and it is said a dozen loads of cattle and hogs have been shipped within the last two weeks. Two or three freight extras are sent weekly to relieve the regular trains. One can but faintly imagine the wonderful stock resources of the Beaver valley with her 30,000 acres of alfalfa now carpeting the valley in emerald hues. "The Flower of all the Burlington Branches" is the name she will be given.

A patriotic meeting was held in Atwood, Monday night, being the 16th anniversary of the W. R. C. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed. Supt. Bye spoke on the flag, Revs. Bone and Dixon and Hon. A. Hemming spoke on their experiences during the civil war. The choir sang war songs and the young boys and girls rendered recitations. Mrs. Loofborrow declaimed "Blowing up the Maine" in masterly manner. It was a patriotic love feast; patriotism was in the air. Old Glory waved in triumph both in front and rear of the Congregational church where the exercises were held.

The two-year-old son of W. L. Furgason, of Bolton, Mississippi, had whooping cough. "After several physicians had prescribed for him without giving him relief," writes Mr. Furgason, "I persuaded my wife to try a 25 cent bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The first dose had the desired effect, and in forty-eight hours he was entirely free from all cough. I consider your remedy the best in the market, especially for children, and recommend it at all times." The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by L. W. McConnell.
