

AN OPEN LETTER TO MOTHERS.

WE ARE ASSERTING IN THE COURTS OUR RIGHT TO THE EXCLUSIVE USE OF THE WORD "CASTORIA," AND "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," AS OUR TRADE MARK.

I, DR. SAMUEL PITCHER, of Hyannis, Massachusetts, was the originator of "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," the same that has borne and does now bear the fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher on every bear the fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Fletcher wrapper. This is the original "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," which has been used in the homes of the Mothers of America for over thirty years. LOOK CAREFULLY at the wrapper and see that it is the kind you have always bought and has the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher on the wrapper. No one has authority from me to use my name except The Centaur Company of which Chas. H. Fletcher is President.

A SPLENDID DAILY.
Teeming With Most Reliable and Fresh News Attractively Associated With Cartoons, for Which It is Famous.

The Rocky Mountain News, published at Denver, Colorado, is the oldest paper in Colorado and the Rocky mountain region. It has been identified with the growth and progress of that region since its inception in 1859, and devoted to the resources and interests of this portion of the West has always been the chief aim of the paper. Special attention has always been paid to its state mining department, to the end that the fullest and freshest reports of operations in all mining districts shall appear in its columns daily. At present it is devoting unexampled energies to the task of furnishing its patrons with the war news. The News is the only paper in the West which has the benefit of the splendid special telegraphic service of the New York Journal, and this insures the speedy and the effectual transmission of every detail of the operations at the seat of war. The News prints more news daily, and possesses a larger circulation and advertising patronage than any other paper in the Rocky mountain region. The publishers will mail sample copies upon application.

S. C. P. Jones, Milesburg, Pa., writes: "I have used DeWitt's Little Early Risers ever since they were introduced here and must say I have never used any pills in my family during forty years of house keeping that gave such satisfactory results as a laxative or cathartic." A. McMillen.

Mr. John Peterson, of Patoutville, La., was very agreeably surprised not long ago. For eighteen months he had been troubled with dysentery and had tried three of the best doctors in New Orleans, besides half a dozen or more patent medicines, but received very little relief. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, having been recommended to him, he gave it a trial and to his great surprise, three doses of that remedy effected a permanent cure. Mr. Wm. McNamara, a well known merchant of that same place, is well acquainted with Mr. Peterson and attests to the truth of this statement. This remedy is for sale by L. W. McConnell & Co.

"One Minute Cough cure is the best preparation I have ever sold or used and I can't say too much in its praise."—L. M. Kennon, Merchant, Odell, Ga. A. McMillen.

HOW SHE DID IT.

Girl Cashier's Mind Reading Methods of Making Change.
The girl cashier of a Madison street restaurant was for three weeks believed by one of the customers to be a lineal descendant of Morgan le Fay and to have some of the family traits of Heller, the second sight magician, for she seemed to know by intuition or instinct or something else what was the price of the meal he had consumed and also just the amount of money in his hand when he approached to pay. He first noticed that when he presented a 35 cent check she immediately laid upon the rubber mat a dime and a nickel which she had been holding for change.

"How," this man inquired of himself, "did she know that 15 cents would be the correct change? There was no earthly way for her to tell what money I was going to offer her either. How did she come to have the exact change ready without a second's delay or without having to go to the cash register for it?" He could not answer to his own satisfaction.

The next day he bought a 45 cent meal, and she promptly laid a nickel before him, the 5 cent piece being the only coin she held in her hand. It was the correct amount, as he gave her a half dollar. He experimented several times afterward and at last appealed to her for information.

"Why," she said, "didn't you ever notice the tint of your check?" When I see you coming 20 feet away, I know by the slate colored check that you have eaten 20 cents' worth. If you have a red ticket, that warns me that you want to pay for a two bit meal. A blue one means 30 cents. This yellow one is, of course, for 40 cents. The amount is printed upon the check, but the color is my warning."

A Hasty Judgment.
"I hate intoxicated people," whispered a good looking young lady to a companion on one of the Larimer avenue cars the other evening. A man had boarded the car at Atwood street. He staggered along the aisle and finally managed to get hold of a strap, to which he clung in order to steady himself.

"You're right," answered the one addressed; "the conductors ought to keep them off the cars."

Meanwhile the man was changing his hold on the strap from one hand to the other. He looked down, with his eyes half closed, and when some of the passengers wanted to leave the car he seemed to pay no attention to them, for he did not move out of their way. At the Larimer avenue bridge the car came to a stop. The man seemed to realize that he was at his destination, for while he had not motioned to the conductor he began to go toward the door. The conductor helped him out and after seeing him safely on the sidewalk returned to his car. Turning to a passenger who had been an interested spectator, he said: "Isn't it a pity to be blind? That gentleman lives in the house on the corner, and I take him home every evening."

The two young ladies looked at each other in embarrassment, for the conductor had spoken loud enough for everybody in the car to hear him.—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

Human Magnets.
Experiments made recently by scientific men in France, says the London Standard, have developed a somewhat curious and unexpected fact—namely, that certain persons possess a magnetic polarity—that is, they are found to act after the manner of magnets, having, in fact, north and south poles. In such a case the individual, on being completely undressed and placed near a sensitive galvanometer, will, when turned on a vertical axis, cause a deflection, first in one direction and then in the opposite, just as a magnet will do. It is not assumed that all persons possess this polarity, but in the case of Professor Murani, an Italian, upon whom the experiment was tried, the phenomenon was unmistakably exhibited, it being found that his breast corresponded to a north pole and his back to a south pole.

A Question of Trimming.
Shortly after the war a Confederate veteran visiting a northern city observed on a street corner a cripple who was without legs and arms, which he had lost, according to the sign, in the "late war." The Confederate at once gave him a quarter and passed on, only to come back and give him another. A second, third, fourth and fifth time the donor returned, giving the cripple a quarter each time until the latter asked the reason for this unusual generosity.

"Why," replied the Confederate, "you're the first one of those d—d fellows in blue I have seen trimmed up to suit my taste."—New York Post.

The Welsh Rabbit.
Those who have accepted the inconsistent name of Welsh rabbit for toasted cheese on the assumption that it is a corruption of Welsh "rarebit" will have to revise their view. According to a writer in Macmillan's Magazine, "Welsh rabbit is a genuine slang term belonging to a large group which describe in the same humorous way the special dish or product of a peculiar district. For examples, an Essex lion is a calf; a Fieldlane duck is a taked sheep's head; Glasgow magistrates or Norfolk capons are red herrings; Irish apricots or Munster plums are potatoes; Gravesend sweetmeats are shrimps."

Floating Bogs.
"Floating bogs" are found in the Lake of the Woods and other waters of Minnesota. The bogs nourish a large number of plants, shrubs and even small trees, as well as little animals. They drift about with the winds, and sometimes get caught in sheltered coves, where they remain and become fixed to the bottom.

Drawing the Line.
It may be all right to write love letters on a typewriter, but they ought not to be manifolded.—Boston Globe.

THE DANGER

to which the Expectant Mother is exposed and the foreboding and dread with which she looks forward to the hour of woman's severest trial is appreciated by but few. All effort should be made to smooth these rugged places in life's pathway for her, ere she presses to her bosom her babe.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

allays Nervousness, and so assists Nature that the change goes forward in an easy manner, without such violent protest in the way of Nausea, Headache, Etc. Gloomy forebodings yield to cheerful and hopeful anticipations—she passes through the ordeal quickly and without pain—is left strong and vigorous and enabled to joyously perform the high and holy duties now devolved upon her. Safety to life of both is assured by the use of "Mother's Friend," and the time of recovery shortened.

"I know one lady, the mother of three children, who suffered greatly in the birth of each, who obtained a bottle of 'Mother's Friend' of me before her fourth confinement, and was relieved quickly and easily. All agree that their labor was shorter and less painful."

Pay Your Delinquency.

In view of the better times, and higher prices for grain etc., the publisher expects those indebted to THE TRIBUNE for subscription to make good their delinquencies at once. During the continued hard times and failures no effort was made to force the collection of subscription accounts, but now that the conditions have changed greatly for the better it is expected that these delinquencies will be promptly paid up. Statements will be sent out to all in arrears and with the expectation that all will appreciate our past indulgence and respond at once.

THE NEW WAY.

WOMEN used to think "female diseases" could only be treated after "local" examinations by physicians. Dread of such treatment kept thousands of modest women silent about their suffering. The introduction of Wine of Cardui has now demonstrated that nine-tenths of all the cases of menstrual disorders do not require a physician's attention at all. The simple, pure taken in the privacy of a woman's own home insures quick relief and speedy cure. Women need not hesitate now. Wine of Cardui requires no humiliating examinations for its adoption. It cures any disease that comes under the head of "female troubles"—disordered menses, falling of the womb, "whites," change of life. It makes women beautiful by making them well. It keeps them young by keeping them healthy. $1.00 at the drug store.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

W. I. ADDISON, M.D., Cary, Miss., says: "I use Wine of Cardui extensively in my practice and find it a most excellent preparation for female troubles."
