"I would not be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for its weight in gold," writes D. J. Jones, of Holland, Va. "My wife was troubled with a cough for nearly two years. I tried various patent remedies, besides numerous prescriptions from physicians, all of which did me no good. I was at last persuaded to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which promptly relieved the cough. The second bottle effected a complete cure." The 25 and 50 cent bottles are for sale by L. W. Engineer George R. Johnson is acquiring a great reputation as a fisherman. Monday was one of his big days. Among other startling incidents of the day was an involuntary bath in the Republican river, which caused Deck Harding to almost rupture a blood vessel while laughing at George's frantic efforts to get out of the water. Deck avers that George thrashed around in the river like a mammoth porpoise, and in his efforts to get out quite tore the legs of his pantaloons in ribbons.

Three Pretty Little Churches. The June Ladies' Home Journal prints the plans for three model small churches—churches that can be built at small cost. The plans are by the Journal's special architect, and the churches are such as would be desired in small communities where money for their construction is not over-plentiful.

BURLINGTON ROUTE.

Opening of the Trans-Mississippi Exposition.

Wednesday, June 1, President McKinley will touch a button in Washington which will set in motion the machinery of the Trans-Mississippi Exposition at Omaha. Previous to starting the machinery the president will speak a few words of greeting over the long-distance telephone. The message will be read to the audience by Governor Holcomb.

The program for the day is given below:

MORNING.

10:00 a. m.—Parade of State University and High School Cadets, Officials of the Exposition, speakers, invited guests, and bands, to the Exposition grounds.

The opening exercises will be held at the east end of the Grand Court and will consist of music by the United States Marine Band and the Trans-Mississippi Exposition Chorus, 150 voices, and addresses by the President of the Exposition, Senator Allen, and Hon. John N. Baldwin of Council Bluffs.

AFTERNOON.

2:00 p. m.—Concert by United States Marine Band.

3:00 p. m.—Public reception in Government Building.

EVENING.

8:15 p. m.—Concert by Thomas' Chicago Orchestra.

9:00 p. m.—Grand display of fireworks.

For the opening of the Trans-Mississippi Exposition the Burlington Route offers extraordinarily low rates.

Special trains to Omaha will be run from Ravenna, Superior, Hastings, Schuyler, Columbus, Concorria, Chester, Nebraska City, and intermediate stations, enabling visitors from out of the town to reach the Exposition grounds in time to witness the opening exercises. Tickets will be good to return on the special trains of the evening of June 1st for points named above, or on regular trains of June 2d. For detailed information about rates and train service, call at Burlington Route ticket office.

Worthy Master Jones, P. of H.

Culbertson, Neb., May 7, 1898.

EDITOR McCOOK TRIBUNE,

McCook, Nebraska.

Will you please give notice through your paper that Worthy Master Jones of the National Grange P. of H. will deliver a public address in the court house at Culbertson, June 1, 1898, at 1 p. m. sharp. He will talk to us about farming and the advantage to farmers of organization on grange lines. He is a pleasant and instructive speaker. All should turn out and give him a hearty welcome. No one barred from attending on account of their business pursuits. Ladies and gentlemen alike heartily welcome. Farmers especially are earnestly requested to attend. Take a day off if necessary. It will pay you. Admittance free. Mr. Jones comes to us from South Bend, Indiana.

Respectfully,

JOHN M. WILLIAMS,

Master State Granger.

The Grand Opening Concert of Thomas' Chicago Orchestra

In the Auditorium, is but one of a hundred delightful features of the program for the opening of the Trans-Mississippi Exposition at Omaha, Wednesday, June 1st. Low rates and special train service on the Burlington. See the local agent.
