

ITEMS OF WAR NEWS.

The marines on Crest hill, bay of Guantanamo, have garnered in a hundred or more Spaniards with characteristic vigor and bravery.

The Third regiment of Nebraska volunteers is assembling in Omaha to await the call of the government to go to the Philippine islands, Cuba or Porto Rico.

The First regiment of Nebraska volunteers has left San Francisco for the Philippine islands. They are on the transport "Senator" and the Tenth regiment of Pennsylvania volunteers is on the same ship.

THESE are troublesome times for Napoleons, even though they be but Napoleons of the wheat pit. Young Mr. Leiter is richer in experience than he is in pocket.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are now open to the public for the $200,000,000 bonds recently voted by congress for war purposes. Preference will be given to the small bidders.

COLONELS PHILLIPS and Mitchell disagree widely as to the cause of McCook's flunk in the organization of a volunteer company. Colonel Mitchell charges the "Powers-That-Be" with the humiliating failure, and Colonel Phillips intimates that the purpose and name of the organization were wrong.

NEBRASKA DAY at the Omaha exposition was attended by multitudes and was altogether a memorable day. The Nebraska building at the exposition,—and one of its most attractive buildings, too,—was dedicated with appropriate ceremony.

EAST RED WILLOW. Michael Hereth will make a visit of two weeks in east Nebraska and see the Omaha exposition.

E. A. Sexson was in McCook, Monday, turning in his books to the county clerk as assessor of Red Willow precinct.

Mrs. Ellen Hausman and son of Custer, Dakota, are visiting her sister and father, Mrs. E. A. Sexson and Grandpa Stasbury.

Two of our Red Willow precinct boys have enlisted in the Indianola company. They will make good soldiers, as they are sons of soldiers of the late war.

Will Sexson visited his grandmother at Arapahoe, over Sunday, returning home on last Wednesday. His cousin, Herbert Labach, returned home with him.

J. F. Helm reports a grand crop of fruits of all kinds and fine flavor on his Red Willow farm. We hear it stated that his strawberry crop will amount to 400 bushels.

These numerous showers cause broad smiles to play over the grangers' faces notwithstanding the weeds seem to be getting in their best licks while the farmer has been compelled to rest.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

INDIANOLA.

Mrs. E. J. Mitchell was down from our sister city on the west, Thursday.

County Attorney Keyes and O. D. Mosher were business visitors at the county seat, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William McCallum were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Starr of the county seat, Sunday.

Mrs. William McCallum went up to the capital, Tuesday evening, to see "Ingomar and the Hunchback."

Dennis Fitzgerald and wife went up to McCook, Sunday evening, to see the soldiers go through and to visit old friends there.

I. A. Sheridan went up to McCook, Tuesday, on company "L" business. Marion Powell also had business there, Thursday.

Commissioner Crabtree has been attending sessions of the board, which is sitting as a board of equalization of tax assessments, this week.

Thursday was a great day in the history of Indianola. On this occasion the old town did herself and the soldier boys proud, and no mistake.

With John J. Lamborn as captain; Isaac A. Sheridan, first lieutenant, and William A. McCool, second lieutenant, company "L" will be well officered and the boys well taken care of.

The Indianola Endeavor society was represented by Rev. L. A. Turner, Mrs. John McClung, and Misses Turner, Lena Hill, Jennie McClung and Della Toogood, at the annual district convention in McCook, June 10th to 12th.

The reception tendered the boys of company "L" on Thursday was one of the most memorable events in the experience. Many hundreds were feed at the dinner spread by the generosity of the people, and patriotic enthusiasm was unfettered and spontaneous.

VALTON.

There will be preaching at the Valton school-house at 11 a. m., next Sunday.

We notice some fields of corn need a close acquaintance with a good cultivator.

Mrs. C. W. Huffman is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Spear, her parents.

C. S. Ferris was a delegate to the Endeavor convention in McCook, last week.

Quite a number of our people went in to McCook, Sunday, to see the troops en route for the Pacific coast.

We are glad to report crop prospects good, and if conditions continue favorable we will equal the season of '91.

We are still enjoying plenty of moisture; in fact, some grain is in danger of lodging which will make it hard to harvest.

Rev. Sheafor has become interested in the cattle business while seeking to regain his health, hence we meet him here frequently.

Awarded Highest Honors—World's Fair, DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER MOST PERFECT MADE.

Advertisement for Price's Cream Baking Powder, including text: "A pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder. Free from Ammonia, Alum or any other adulterant. 40 YEARS THE STANDARD."

BARTLEY.

W. E. Rollings is unloading two cars of binders and twine, this week.

Mrs. F. L. Enlow made a visit in Cambridge, Wednesday, returning on No. 5.

Jas. Sipe spent Wednesday in Cambridge, J. H. Rosenfelt's son relieving him here.

Miss Irene Flint went up to Stockville, Monday, to take a position in the county treasurer's office.

Miss Lue Orman went down to Omaha, Monday night, to visit with friends and take in the big fair.

W. V. Vickrey went to Denver, Wednesday, with two cars of stock for E. E. Smith, returning Saturday morning.

Mrs. F. L. Enlow returned, Friday evening of last week, from a visit of some length with friends at Longmont, Colorado.

J. C. Stewart will close his meat market at this place, this week. Inability to secure proper conveniences is the reason assigned.

J. H. Keys made a trip to Omaha, this week, to attend the meeting of the grand lodge of the Masonic fraternity, of which he is a member.

H. B. Maxon of Minden reported for duty at the depot as night operator, Tuesday, coming in on No. 5. Operator E. G. Dilts went to Denver, Wednesday.

About twenty from Bartley have enlisted at Indianola in company L of the Third regiment of Nebraska volunteers. A large crowd went up from here to attend the reception and dinner given them on Thursday afternoon.

Children's Day was observed at the Methodist church, Sunday evening, with appropriate exercises. A large crowd was in attendance to listen to the carefully prepared program, which was well rendered and both interesting and instructive. A liberal missionary collection was taken.

The four trains of soldier boys which went through, Sunday afternoon, attracted a great deal of attention, a large crowd being at the depot, and it was a great disappointment that none of them stopped. As it was, the crackers and bits of paper which were thrown off were eagerly sought by the crowd, especially the young ladies, the Tennessee boys assuring them they were the finest of any state through which they had passed.

COLEMAN.

M. H. Cole has bought a new binder.

H. B. Wales hauled off two loads of wheat recently.

Will Prentice and Bert Wales have bought a binder.

Sam Johns took a load of hogs to market, Wednesday.

H. B. Wales has laid his old binder aside and bought a new one.

J. W. Corner brought out a hundred posts, Tuesday, for a pasture fence.

Wm. M. Sharp was around, Wednesday, posting notices of school meeting.

Professor Nussbaum is evidently anticipating a "catch," if that neck netting works automatically.

Uncle Billy said he was a member of the "board of strategy" as he made a dive for the pudding.

Wesley Rozell took a load of oats to McCook, Wednesday. He had over eighty bushels on his wagon.

The singing class meets at the school-house in district 65, every Wednesday evening. It has forty members.

R. Traphagan had a fine horse badly cut on a wire fence, Thursday. It was found necessary to cauterize the wound three times before the flow of blood could be staunch.

COURT HOUSE NEWS.

COUNTY COURT. License was issued, this week, to Herbert Amen and Jane Hill, both of McCook.

The case of I. A. Sheridan vs. Brown Brothers Co., for labor and expenses, was decided in favor of the defendants.

The state vs. D. C. Sullivan, charged with cutting three acres of rye owned by G. W. Arbogast, resulted in the defendant being held to the next term of the district court in the sum of $100 bonds.

DISTRICT COURT. Nebraska Loan and Trust Co. vs. John W. Hall et al. Equity. Miss Cora Irwin is assisting County Clerk Green.

A SPECIAL SALE OF IMPORTANCE TO YOU.

SHIRTS of all kinds, with and without collars, for dress and work; soft and laundered to suit all tastes and to fit all sizes--a great variety.

HATS--Straw, Crash, Fur and Wool.

All at Popular and Lowest Prices.

THE time to buy and make your selection is now, while the assortment remains good. Note the fact.

SPECIAL Prices on Men's, Boys' and Children's Suits. In order to reduce our stock in this department we are making these special low prices.

THE FAMOUS CLOTHING COMPANY

NORTH DIVIDE.

This is ideal weather for those numerous young orchards.

New potatoes are among the good things we'll have before long.

People who should know say there is not a fish in the creek, but fishers there are plentiful.

J. S. Modrell's 130 acre patch of small grain seemed to justify purchase of a new binder, and it's a dandy.

It's because Herr M. Stelzer took in the last big show that we look for and expect a good big crop this year.

James Brady has just completed a good sized addition to his house, which makes it a model of comfort and convenience.

Fruit promises to be plentiful, this season, and the writer has more than one bid to be on hand during cherry time.

The continuous rains of the past two or three weeks are all right for small grain, but the weeds are getting first place in the corn-fields.

Mrs. Jerome Brainerd of Buda, Illinois, sister of Mrs. Geo. Hanglein, will continue her trip from the Omaha Exposition on a brief visit to relatives and friends here.

A young man from Frontier county has been canvassing the neighborhood for a war book, securing the good names of most all the people hereabouts and he didn't half try.

S. C. King has about completed the work of placing a high wire netting about his orchard, which will not only keep the rabbits and other pests from the trees, but will add to the nice appearance of the place in general.

The strawberry and ice cream social which was held in the Box Elder church, last Wednesday evening a week, attracted quite a number of people in spite of the chilly weather. Several dimes and as many dollars were turned over to Rev. Vivian, for whose benefit the affair was given.

NORTH COLEMAN.

Small grain is looking fine and promises a large crop.

The farmers begin to think they want to move to a drier country.

Many corn fields are getting very weedy on account of wet weather.

Cupid has been putting in his work in Coleman precinct and still from all appearances there're more to follow.

Some farmers on the Willow are getting ready to cut the first crop of alfalfa when the weather will permit.

The young grasshoppers are very numerous in some parts of the precinct but it is hoped they will not do any serious damage.

Everist, Marsh & Co.

At Brewer's Old Stand.

FRESH AND SALT MEATS

Fish, Oysters, Celery, Pickles.

We keep everything usually to be found in a first-class city market, and respectfully solicit your patronage.

SPAIN AGAINST AMERICA

SUPERB PHOTOGRAPHS OF

UNCLE SAM'S NAVY

These Pictures are the most accurate, most authentic, the Best.

THE TRIBUNE, ever alert to secure for its readers the best and most valuable offerings, points with pride to its now famous distribution of Portfolios of "UNCLE SAM'S NAVY," which has in every way surpassed anything of the kind before attempted.

PORTFOLIO NO. 4

is now ready, and contains the following photographic views, accompanied by full historical and descriptive matter:

- No.1. Spanish Warship Viscaya. No.2. Spanish Warship Maria Theresa. No.3. Spanish Warship Navarre. No.4. Spanish Warship Nuevo Espana. No.5. Spanish Warship Infanta Yaabel. No.6. Spanish Warship Pelayo. No.7. Spanish Warship Almirante Oquendo. No.8. Target Practice with Machine Guns. No.9. Gunners' Drill with Heavy Ordnance. No.10. Gatling Drill on a School-Ship. No.11. Fire-Room of the Brooklyn. No.12. Gunboat Helena. No.13. Protected Cruiser Cincinnati. No.14. Cruiser Detroit. No.15. Protected Cruiser Charleston. No.16. Deck of the Torpedo-Boat, "Destroyer."

MOST MAGNIFICENT COLLECTION OF PHOTOGRAPHS OF THIS CHARACTER EVER OFFERED TO THE COUNTRY.

A superb portfolio series of photographic views, 11 x 13 1/2 inches in size, of the battleships, cruisers, torpedo boats, monitors, coast defense boats, gunboats and auxiliary vessels of the U. S. Navy, drill exercises, big guns and other interesting views, each illustration being accompanied by text matter giving all needed information of our naval resources. Each portfolio contains 16 pages of pictures and text matter, printed on heavy plate paper, and bound in colored paper cover, and may be obtained upon the following terms:

TERMS OF DISTRIBUTION.

Each of these parts as issued (weekly) for one coupon and 10 cents. Cut out the "Naval Series" Coupon, which you will find on another page of this paper, and send it or bring it to us with 10 cents and obtain Portfolio No. 3.

Portfolios Nos. 1, 2 and 3 of Uncle Sam's Navy can still be had.