State Troops - Not National.

One of the first things to be acknowledged is the fact that we have no National Guard. The organized militia of the several states must be regarded as purely state troops. They are a fine body of men, and for the duties for which they enlist there could be no better nor braver soldiers. Their record is bright in Nebraska, where they faced the hostile Indians; in Illinois, where they saved the states millions of dollars in the Pullman riots; in Wisconsin, where they defended Milwaukee against the anarchists; in Ohio, where they quelled great riots; in Pennsylvania, where they dispersed the strikers; and in New York, where their services in 1895 in the street railway troubles were inestimable in the preservation of law and order. They are a part of the civil power. In the duty of upholding it the militiamen are worthy of the place they have won in the hearts of the people.—Collier's Weekly.

BANKSVILLE.

T. A. Rowland was taking school census, this week.

School at Pleasant Prairie closed, last Tuesday, the 14th.

E. B. Nelson lost a valuable cow, last week. She was bitten by a rattle-snake.

For the first time in several years we are "short" on sunshine and "long" on rain.

Willie Redman, who has been in the employ of H. Kennedy at Cedar Bluffs for some time, is working for Wm. Relph.

The fruit tree agent who worked this neighborhood, last week, did a thriving business and departed for new fields, Saturday.

Quite a number from this place attended the organization of the Ladies' Circle of the G. A. R. at Cedar Bluffs, last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Boatman, Gene Dunham and family and several others from Prospect Park took in the Children's Day entertainment here, Sunday.

There is some talk of building a new school-house in the district. As there is no cash on hand for such a purpose, it will be necessary to bond the district, which no doubt will meet with considerable opposition.

Children's Day was appropriately observed by the Banksville Sunday-school. The school-house was tastefully decorated and a suitable program well rendered. Standing room was at a premium inside the house and many were obliged to stay out.

THE TRIBUNE and The Prairie Farmer for $1.25 a year, strictly in advance.

During the summer of 1891, Mr. Chas. P. Johnson, a well known attorney of Louisville, Ky., had a very severe attack of summer complaint. Quite a number of different remedies were tried, but failed to afford any relief. A friend who knew what was needed procured him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which quickly cured him and he thinks, saved his life. He says that there has not been a day since that time that he has not had this remedy in his household. He speaks of it in the highest praise and takes much pleasure in recommending it whenever an opportunity is offered. For sale by L. W. McConnell & Co.

THE TRIBUNE and Demorest's Family Magazine for $1.75 a year, strictly in advance.

SCALE BOOKS—For sale at THE TRIBUNE office. Best in the market.

S. E. Parker, Sharon, Wis., writes:—"I have tried DeWitt's Little Early Risers ever since they were introduced here and must say I have never used any pills in my family during forty years of house keeping that gave such satisfactory results as a laxative or cathartic." A. McMillen.

THE NEW WAY.

WOMEN used to think "female diseases" could only be treated after "local examinations" by physicians. Dread of such treatment kept thousands of modest women silent about their suffering. The introduction of Wine of Cardui has now demonstrated that nine-tenths of all the cases of menstrual disorders do not require a physician's attention at all. The simple, pure taken in the privacy of a woman's own home insures quick relief and speedy cure. Women need not hesitate now. Wine of Cardui requires no humiliating examinations for its adoption. It cures any disease that comes under the head of "female troubles"—disordered menses, falling of the womb, "whites," change of life. It makes women beautiful by making them well. It keeps them young by keeping them healthy. $1.00 at the drug store.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

W. L. ADDISON, M.D., Cary, Miss., says: "I use Wine of Cardui extensively in my practice and find it a most excellent preparation for female troubles."
