He was dragged for nearly a mile until the team stopped at the barn, when he was discovered by his son. He was in an unconscious condition, his skull being fractured and the skin torn from his back and head. He died without recovering consciousness.

C. B. Diehl, a prominent merchant of Sutton, met with a serious accident while helping to capture two men who had burglarized his store. The purglars were located at Wray, Colo., and Mr. Diehl went to identify the stolen goods and capture the thieves. When the latter recognized Diehl they started to run. Diehl drew his gun and started in pursuit, and in crossing a sidewalk fell. His revolver, a 41-caliber, was discharged, the ball entering his left knee. He was taken to the hospital at McCook for medical treatment. The thieves were subsequently

Washington, Aug. 1 .- News of the arrival of Major General Wesley Merritt at Cavite, was received here this morning in the following cablegram: Hong Kong, July 30. - Adjutant General United States Army, Wash-

The same news reached the Navy department in this dispatch from Admiral Dewey:

"CAVITE, July 25 .- Secretary of the Navy: Merritt arrived vesterday on the Newport. The remainder of the expedition is expected within the next few days .- Dewey."

General Merritt sailed from San Francisco June 29 on the swift transport Newport with 800 officers and men. The third expedition of 4,200 men sailed the two previous days, the Newport overtaking them at Honolulu.

The Newport was armed with six Gattling guns and carried, besides, the Astor battery and Batteries H and K of the Third artillery. Detachments from the signal and hospital corps were also on boaad.

Before leaving America General Merritt prepaped a proclamation to be issued on his arrival. It is in Spanish and announces that he comes to free the people of the islands and that they will be granted the fullest liberty compatible with the preservation of law. The Newport carried $5,000,000 to be used for the payment of troops. The first expedition, with 2,501 men nder General Anderson, arrived at Cavite July 3. The second, with 3,515 officers and men, sailed June 15. Its safe arrival was reported ten days ago. General Merritt will have under him, when the rest of this fleet arrives, 11,016 men.

out a fight. The fighting in the suburbs is desultory and the Americans are idle. This has given rise to a report that they had determined to suspend operations until September, and by that time peace will probably be concluded. Then, it is asserted here, the Americans may permanently annex the Caroline islands and the Ladrone islands and possibly abandon the Philippines with the exception of keeping a coaling station here.

Although the insurgents have redoubled their efforts they have hitherto been unable to capture the citadel. On the other hand, the Spaniards are not able to re-establish their suzerian-

WHY SPAIN SUED FOR PEACE.

Junta Says It Was Because Havana Can Hold Out Little Longer.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.-Horatio S. Rubens, counsel of the Cuban junta, in an interview said that the reason Spain made peace proposals at this time was that Havana could not hold out much longer. "I am advised," said Mr. Rubens, "that Havana's food supply is sufficient for only about two weeks more. There are 200,000 civilians in the city and from 50,000 to 60,000 soldiers. Only two steamers have succeeded in running the blockade, and their cargoes will not go very far among 250,000. Madrid has been notified that Havana's condition is becoming desperate, and with that in view and also with the purpose of doing something before General Miles had invaded Porto Rico or Manila had failen, the peace proposals were made.

"They knew very well in Madrid that Porto Rico can not effectively resist Miles, and that the surrender of Manila is only a question of days. Therefore, they chose this as a fitting time to negotiate for terms of peace, assuming, of course, that the United States would stop fighting at once and that the weakness of Spain would not

TWO TRAINS IN A COLLISION.

Fireman and Several Passengers Receiv Severe Injuries.

Dewey Cables That the Insurgents Will Have to Be Fought.

CABINET ISSUES A STATEMENT

The Cablegram Influenced the Decision of the Peace Proposals-Will Take 150,000 Soldlers to Cope With the Insurgents-They Are Getting Bold and Defiant Toward Unele Sam.

Washington, Aug. 1.-A dispatch received from Admiral Dewey announces that Aguinaldo has assumed a bold attitude of defiance and that it will take a large force from this country to subdue the insurgents.

While the cabinet was in session a cablegram from Admiral Dewey was brought in. It announced the arrival of Major General Merritt and the expedition with him at Manila, but graphically painted the uncertainties as to the future there. The dispatch, which has not been made public, save in its unimportant feature, largely guided the cabinet in the disposition of the Philippine problem.

Without mineing his words, Admiral Dewey announced that Aguinaldo had assumed a bold attitude of defiance and that there were strong indications that the Phillippine insurgents themselves would have to be fought. Based on this depiction of the gravity of the situation there, it would take 150,000

WON'T YIELD PHILIPPINES.

Spain Will Continue the War Rather Than Give Them Up.

Washington, July 30 .- It was stated last night in a high diplomatic quarter, in such manner as to give semiofficial character to the expression, that if American control or supervision of the Philippines was an indispensable condition laid down as the basis for peace negotiations it was practically certain the Spanish government would not accede to this condition, but would determine rather to continue the war. As to the other peace conditions they do not present any insurmountable barrier to the speedy restoration of peace, and while there is no authority for saying that Spain would accept these terms and retire from Cuba and Porto Rico, there is every indication that she would yield rather than continue a disastrous war. But the future of the Philippines appears to be of as much concern to the Spanish government as it is to the American cabinet just now, and there is even greater insistence on the continuation of the Spanish sovereignty over this group than there is over the more valuable islands of Cuba and Porto Rico.

HATES TO LOSE PORTO RICO.

Spain Thinks America's Terms Are Unnecessarily Severe.

LONDON, Aug. 1 .- The Madrid correspondent of the Daily Mail says: The Spanish government will combat to the last against a cession of Porto Rico to the United States. It would much rather sacrifice one of the Philippine islands, contending that Porto Rico has always been loyal and outside the scope of war.

☐The American reply is still anxiously awaited. Judging from press opinions anything beyond the cession of Cuba will be considered harsh and unjust. This is the unanimous feeling among even the strongest advocates of peace.

CHARITY DEAD IN HAVANA.

Even the Wealthy Begin to Feel the Pangs of Hunger.

KEY WEST, Aug. 1.-Hunger is claiming many victims, both rich and poor, in Havana. Since the extended blockade has closed the ports of Sagua la Grande, Nipe and Bantanboa, no provisions have entered the Cuban capital, and General Blanco's scanty in hand-carved vermillion wood, and store in the warehouses has been exhausted.

Bread riots have already begun. Two brothers, bakers, were killed by a mob for defending two dozen loaves. Charity is dead, because the wealthy themselves are in need of assistance.

SCENES AT THE EXPOSITION

A Look into the Transportation and Agricultural implement Building.

BEAUTIFUL TO BEHOLD

Exhibits that are Highly Interesting and Instructive-A Moving Palace Train-Bicycles and Carriages-Preparing for Odd Fellows Day-National Firemen's

The transportation and agricultural implement building of the Trans-Mississippi exposition is located on Twentieth street north of the Midway, and has the largest ground and of any structure on the Trans-Mississippi exposition grounds, being 432 feet long and 300 feet wide, and is consequently well adapted for the purpose for which it was erected. Col. D. H. Elliott, the superintendent of the building, has enhanced the appearance of the interior to a very great extent by adding his splendid collection of flags to the decorations. There are twenty-three flags, representing the most important foreign nations. The Spanish flag is no' displayed.

The exhibits installed in this building are among the most interesting and instructive to be seen at the exposition. The transportation exhibits are arranged along the north side of the building, and include every kind of vehicle from a plain farm wazon or bob-sled to a magnificently equipped Pullman vestibule train. The monster freight engines and the smaller ones used in the passenger train service are lined up for inspection on one track, with the old car used by Abraham Lincoln before his death, and in which his remains were transported from Washington to Springfield.
