A Trio From Jasper.

Will McCool certainly deserves the credit of securing the nomination of W. R. Starr for county attorney. It was all cocked and primed for the other fellow and thereby hangs a tale that is not told.

In estimating the expense of the Republican campaign in this county no account should be taken of the newspapers. The five dollars received a year ago will doubtless be considered quite enough for both occasions. We understand the munificent sum appropriated to the press a year ago is due to the liberality of one Valentine.

The Republican convention at Mc-Cook, last Saturday, nominated Dr. Hathorn of Bartley for representative and W. R. Starr for county attorney. Both of these gentlemen are well known throughout the county. The race between Holland and Hathorn will be strictly on party lines while that of Smith and Starr will be modified somewhat by local questions. Mr. Starr has many friends in this part of the county and so has Mr. Smith. Starr will lose some votes in the east end of the county for having signed the petition to vote $12,000 to aid in building a court house in McCook, but will gain some in the west end of the count, for the same reason. Smith being opposed to the proposition, will gain some votes in the east end of the county and lose in the west. It will be a very close race. The county being Republican, there is not much doubt but what Hathorn will be elected. -The Indianola Reporter.

The Coming Reunion.

A meeting of citizens and old soldiers was held in the city hall, Tuesday evening, for the purpose of taking steps toward starting preparations for the coming G. A. R. reunion here, September 25th to October 1st.

Commander LeHew was in the chair and W. R. Starr recorded the proceedings. After stating the object of the Monday morning, from taking in the exmeeting and canvassing the situation, it position at Omaha. was decided to place the matter in the hands of a committee, to be composed of eleven members and known as an executive committee, they having power to appoint sub-committees to co-operate with and under them in the management and preparations for the reunion.

The executive is composed of L. W. McConnell, A. Campbell, V. Franklin, D. W. Colson, F. M. Kimmell, W. R. Starr, J. H. Bennett, W. F. Everist, John R. Roxby, J. E. Kelley and W. T. Coleman. These gentlemen will carefully canvass the situation and make an effort to raise the money necessary to give Southwestern Nebraska a successful and glorious oldtime reunion. It will take ing, on a visit of a week's duration. money and the hearty co-opertion of the citizens of McCook to make a creditable success, and nothing but sucess in large and honorable measure will satisfy the people of McCook in this matter. So be prepared to greet the solicitors with open hearts and pocket-books when they come around to see you, and put your shoulder to the wheel and help push this enterprise along.

A Swarm of Unknown Insects.

On the heavy wind of the storm which passed over the city, Monday evening, was a swarm of unknown insects. The insects, so far as we can learn from those monly called "snake-feeders." Some few days here with his mother. thought they were grasshoppers-and them-but, while no one, so far as we know, succeeded in catching one of the insects, most agree that they were not grasshoppers, but resembled the "snakefeeder," so commonly called in the east. There were millions of them and they passed from north to south.

Since the above was put in type, specimens have been secured and they are called the flying locust. Many ordinary grasshoppers being among them.

The Nebraska Brigade.

The Nebraska Brigade band will leave for Omaha, Sunday morning on 2, to enter upon their engagement at the Omaha exposition. The band has been reinforced somewhat and with new additions to their uniforms will cut an imposing figure at the exposition, next week. They will give visitors at the fair the very best band music that the west can
