

IMPORTANT SHOE REDUCTION

I am now making my annual clean-up of small sizes in shoes and slippers. Every pair offered at reduced figures is of sterling quality and make. The collection has been divided into four lots:

- Lot No. 1 at only $0.50 a Pair
- Lot No. 2 at only 1.00 a Pair
- Lot No. 3 at only 1.50 a Pair
- Lot No. 4 at only 2.00 a Pair

All ladies wearing small sizes will find this a most opportune time to secure a pair of good shoes or nice slippers at a very low figure.

RAILROAD NEWS ITEMS.

The shob force enjoyed the usual holiday day, Monday.

Operator D. J. Best visited Wray friends over Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Rank has been visiting Holdrege friends part of this week.

Mrs. C. D. Kenady is down from Holyoke, Colorado, on a visit to relatives here.

Otto Penner, formerly of the McCook yard, is now at Akron, relieving Switchman P. R. Jamison temporarily.

C. E. Benedict and wife and Miss Myrtle Meyer are taking in the exposition, this week. Also visiting in Lincoln.

The eastern delegates to the National Editorial association meeting in Denver passed through McCook, Sunday night on 3.

Conductor and Mrs. C. D. Kenady of Holyoke took in the exposition, last week, after a short visit to Red Cloud relatives and friends.

Rufus Carlton and Virgil Latimer wheeled down to Indianola, Monday afternoon, and were caught in the wind and dust storm on the way back.

G. R. Perkins left for Omaha, Tuesday morning, to see the sights of the exposition. He will make Denver a flying visit on his return before going to work.

A night yard crew has been put on at Holdrege on account of the increased traffic. Switchman C. J. Hill of McCook is in charge, with Switchman D. A. Bowen temporarily assisting.

Mrs. Dennis Cullen is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Finn Hartwell. Miss Libbie has secured a school in the Burt district south of Indianola, and the family will likely reside in Indianola.

Roy Dixon and his cousin, C. E. Dixon, Jr., of Kansas City, Mo., returned Saturday morning, from spending a week in Colorado. They took in the "Flower Carnival" at the Springs, visited Manitou and other points of interest during their absence.

Addison Miller and little daughter went into Omaha, Monday night on No. 4. The little girl's face has again assumed an alarming condition, and another operation may be necessary. Surely, the little one's lot has been one of anguish for many months.

No. 15 was run through to Denver, Tuesday night.

Addison Miller is enjoying a visit from his father, this week.

Brakeman D. P. Crowe is visiting his parents in Oberlin, Kansas.

The pay-car will put in an appearance here, next Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. F. W. Hawksworth has been visiting Denver friends since last week.

Miss Lizzie Stevens of Lincoln, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Frank Kendlen.

Mrs. C. E. Benedict and Miss Myrtle Meyer arrived home, last evening on 5, from their visit to the exposition and Lincoln.

Asst. Supt. D. F. McFarland and little son were down from Holyoke, Colo., on business at Western division headquarters, Wednesday.

Five spans of the bridge over the Arickaree, west of Benkelman, were destroyed by fire, Wednesday afternoon, about half past five o'clock. An extra with workmen went up from here early in the evening, and the destroyed part was quickly repaired sufficiently to enable trains to pass without delay. Trainmaster Kenyon, Chief Clerk Harris and Supt. Perry of the bridge force went up on the special, which returned here ahead of No. 2, Thursday morning.

While D. Carson of Kearney was at tempting to board a moving train at Red Cloud, Thursday afternoon, his foot slipped and he fell between the moving train and the platform. He fell with his head across the rail and but for the prompt and energetic work of the conductor and station agent he would have met a horrible death. As it was he sustained a severe injury to his back and lower limbs and had to be taken home. He is one of the oldest traveling men in the state.

A journal on the chair car attached to passenger train No. 2, Tuesday morning, burned off just as the train approached the whistling post at the west end of the yard. Fortunately there was no damage to speak of. The journal had been bothersome for a good part of the journey from Denver, and burned off with a stream of cold water from the Cook journal cooler running into the journal. The accident was fortunate in occurring at a point where the speed of the train was slowing up materially as the train approached the station. Conductor Burns was in charge of the train.
