Lieut. Sheridan arrived home, the close of last week, on sick leave. Private Will Dolan accompanied him. The lieutenant looks thin and used up. Surely that is a hard climate which will reduce a robust constitution like Phil's.

The old soldiers' reunion at McCook, September 26th to October 1st, promises to be one of the big reunions in the history of the association. You should make your arrangements to attend. Take the family along. There will be sport for all.

Mrs. J. C. Puckett is suffering from an attack of typhoid fever.

Clarence Enlow of Oxford made his brother a short visit, Wednesday.

S. W. Clark and the boys have returned from the exposition, all being quite satisfied with what they saw at the big show.

Frank Walsworth left, Wednesday night, for Kansas City, where he expects to enter a medical college and fit himself for a "fe-zishun."

A little stranger made its introductory bow into the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Hodgkin, last Saturday evening, with the intention of making its permanent residence there.

Dane Fletcher is collecting tariffs and ringing up fares on the dray line, this week, during the absence of Conductor Wilson, who is bass drum soloist for the band at Oberlin.

F. A. Walsworth returned, Saturday of last week, from his visit to the exposition and reports it equal to his anticipations, therefore has decided not to arrange for any changes in the programme or management.

The band departed for Oberlin, Monday morning, via the overland route, to fill a five days' engagement at the old soldiers' reunion and base ball tournament being held there, this week. That the natives over there are having their auricular appendages crowded full of melody goes without saying.

The band will give a concert in the hall on the evening of Monday, the 12th, which promises to be a rare musical treat. Certainly none other than those burdened with riches can afford to miss this event, and a man in moderate circumstances guilty of such action would be likely to break open his own trunk and swipe the contents. Don't be conspicuous by your absence.

A. Lang departed this life on Sunday morning at his home just south of town, after a short illness. While he has been in poor health for some time his early demise was not anticipated and came as a surprise to many. The funeral occurred on Monday from the Catholic church in Indianola, and interment was made in the church cemetery. The sympathy of all is extended to the bereaved ones.

J. E. Morrisey and family of Atwood, Kas., dropped in on Agent Enlow, Sunday evening, on their return from the exposition, and made him a pleasant visit, leaving for home the following morning. For the information of those interested we will state that, as near as we can learn, Mr. Morrisey enjoys the distinction of being the only person to lead an excursion—one hundred and fifty people—from the rural districts safely to the exposition and return. Although when turned loose in Omaha they were as frisky and frolicsome as pet bears, he gathered them all together and returned them to their ownest own Rawlins county.

Dr. Logan was called to the home of Will Sexon, Sunday morning, to attend Raymond, who was quite sick, but is now better.

Hidden Beauty

In Egypt the custom is for Princesses to hide their beauty by covering the lower part of the face with a veil. In America the beauty of many of our women is hidden because of the weakness and sickness peculiar to the sex. If the Egyptian custom prevailed in this country, many sufferers would be glad to cover their premature wrinkles, their sunken cheeks, their unbecoming complexion, from the eyes of the world with the veil of the Orient.

Bradfield's Female Regulator brings out a woman's true beauty. It makes her strong and well in those organs upon which her whole general health depends. It corrects all menstrual disorders. It stops the drains of Leucorrhoea. It restores the womb to its proper place. It removes the causes of headache, backache and nervousness. It takes the poor, debilitated, weak, haggard, fading woman and puts her on her feet again, making her face beautiful by making her body well.

Druggists sell it for $1 a bottle.
