Two of M. Lawritson's children were pretty badly scared, Tuesday morning, in what promised to be a runaway of the family horse with the family cart. The little ones were the sole occupants and were on their way to the depot. Going down Main avenue the horse got under such headway that the little ones became scared and called out in terror. Ben Stoddard came to the rescue and in the sudden stopping of the horse both of the children were thrown out, but fortunately without injury to either of them.

The locomotive of last Friday afternoon's passenger train met with an accident as it was approaching the Beaver City depot. One side of the frame became loosened and, dropping down, caught in the track, breaking some of the heavy castings and disabling the engine. It was fortunate that the accident occurred when the train was almost stopped, as had it happened when going at full speed a serious wreck would have resulted. The train was delayed here until an extra engine could be sent from Orleans. Master Mechanic Archibald, of McCook, and a force of men repaired the disabled machine, Saturday, sufficiently that it could be run to the shops. —Beaver City Tribune.

A CRITICAL TIME

During the Battle of Santiago.

SICK OR WELL, A RUSH NIGHT AND DAY.

The Packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes. Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition to the Front Saved the Day.

P. E. Butler, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago De Cuba, on July 23d, says: "We all had diarrhoea in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect savior of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use. My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by L. W. McConnell & Co.
