THE MILITIA ORDERED OUT.

Minnesota Troops Leave for Deer River and Cass Lake.

SENT BY STATE AUTHORITIES.

They Are Not So Sure That the Danger Has Passed Despite General Bacon's Telegram to Washington That the Fighting Is All Over.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 10.—The government has notified Governor Clough that it has revoked the order putting the companies of the Fourteenth Minnesota volunteers at Duluth and at St. Paul under his orders. He had all preparations made to send the Duluth companies to the front at once to protect the settlers and was arranging to mobilize the remaining companies at St. Paul. He supposed that the revocation is due to General Bacon's message saying that there was no more danger. He added: "I shall pay no more attention to the war department. If necessary I will issue a call for volunteers, arm them with such guns as I can pick up and let the government go to the devil. I am tired of doing business with Washington. There is too much red tape about it. Orders are issued one minute and revoked the next. I am not an alarmist, but it is the safe thing to be prepared. It will reassure the settlers and perhaps prevent an outbreak."

The governor has received a message from Mayor John H. Neavers of Brainerd saying: "I have just returned from Walker. Indians concentrating at Leech Lake in large numbers. Think they held council last night. Situation looks grave."

W. F. Street wired government from Bemidji, west of Cass Lake: "While I do not regard situation here as alarming, our people are much disturbed. If you could send village authorities 200 stands of arms they will be gratefully received. Red Lake Indians reported irritable."

Batteries A and B, Minnesota national guard, left at 8 o'clock this morning for Deer River and Cass Lake via Duluth. They are in command of Major Libbey. One battery is from this city and one from St. Paul. They are all that is left of the state militia, the infantry companies having all been mustered into the volunteer service. They are equipped with a Gatling and a field gun for each battery and each man carries a saber and revolver. This trip will be made in eight hours.

WALKER, Minn., Oct. 8.—At the Indian council held at the reservation a demand was made by the government through Indian Agent Sutherland that the men concerned in the killing of soldiers near Bear Island be given up to answer to the charge of murder. Marshal O'Connor and 250 troops commanded by General Bacon will move to the agency on the reservation at 10 o'clock this morning. Boats were chartered last night and another effort will be made to apprehend the twenty Indians for whom the marshal has bench warrants. When the troops arrive at the agency runners will be sent out and the men ordered in. In case they do not respond, Marshal O'Connor, backed by the troops, will go after them.

Information given out by one of the Indians at the council yesterday was that nineteen young bucks composed the force which engaged General Bacon's command near Bear Island. Gay She Gwon Ay Yoh, or as the English version would be, Strong Voice of the Wind, was the leader, and directed the plan of battle. The band, excepting the killed, are now on Bear Island, and refuse to come in or take part in the council. It is likely that such renegades as they can induce to join them will make things lively for several months, confining themselves to depredations on small settlements. The report that Bog Ah Mah Ga Shik was killed by one of the sharpshooters is denied, the chief having refused to take part in the attack.

Thirty-five Indians put in an appearance at the town of Lothrop, nine miles south of here, last night. The women and children were gathered in a building and the citizens are guarding the town.

MARRIAGE WAS HIS BUSINESS

Milwaukee Police Find a Man With From a Dozen to Twenty Wives.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 10.—The Milwaukee police have found an alleged polygamist, who, they say, has from twelve to twenty wives. His name is Frederick William Doering, but he has many aliases. The police have so far reported the names of only three wives, but they allege that Doering has been in the marrying business for profit for twelve years and say there is no telling what is the limit of his list.

Doering's plan was to advertise, stating that he was wealthy and desired to marry a woman of refined tastes and some means. In each case he is said to have fled after securing what money his newly acquired wife possessed.

KILLED BY AN ANGRY WOMAN

Mrs. McKinley's Brother Murdered at Canton, Ohio.

CANTON, Ohio, Oct. 10.—George D. Saxton, a brother of Mrs. William McKinley, was shot dead at 6:10 o'clock last evening in front of the residence of Mrs. Eva B. Althouse, widow of the late George Althouse, 319 Lincoln avenue, where he is presumed to have gone to make a call.

Five shots were fired, three of which entered his body, and Mrs. Anna C. George has been placed under arrest on suspicion of the murder. Saxton was unconscious when neighbors arrived and began investigating the cause of the shooting, and was dead when physicians and officers arrived, the physicians having expressed the opinion that death was instantaneous, three bullets having entered vital spots.

Mrs. George is the divorced wife of Sample C. George, who formerly was a tenant of Saxton in his downtown business block, conducting a dress-making business. Her divorce was obtained in Dakota and a proceeding later filed in local courts by the husband against Saxton, charged that Saxton had sent her there to secure the divorce, the proceeding here being a suit for damages for the alleged alienation of the wife's affections. This case has been through all the intermediate courts and was passed upon by the state supreme court on an interpleading and finally remanded for hearing on its merits here.

Before this occurred, and on Wednesday, a settlement was effected, Saxton paying George $1,825 on the claim set up of $20,000 for damages. It was common talk that Mrs. George had made frequent threats of taking Saxton's life. Many of these threats are said to have been sent through the mails, and the federal grand jury sitting in Cleveland last fall indicted her for alleged improper use of the mails. Mrs. George gave bond, and the indictment, so far as it is known, is still alive.

Sample C. George, the husband, is now reported to have been married to a second wife for more than a year. He is reported married in Wheeling to Miss Lucy Graham of Alliance, and the marriage was kept secret until after the settlement with Saxton. As soon as George got his damage money from Saxton he announced his marriage. Mrs. George claims Saxton deceived her and deserted her.

HELD FOR WIFE POISONING.

J. J. Kunkel of Lawrence in Jail Without Bond.

LAWRENCE, Kan., Oct. 10.—J. J. Kunkel was arrested here yesterday on a coroner's warrant, charging him with poisoning his wife, who died ten days ago. He was sent to jail without bail to await preliminary hearing next Friday.

Mrs. Kunkel was the second wife of the man accused of killing her. She had one daughter, 15 years old, and Kunkel had three children. The union of the two families did not prove to be a happy one. About six weeks ago Birdie Cummingore, Mrs. Kunkel's daughter, died in great agony, after the attending physician had pronounced her out of danger. When the doctor returned for his next call he found her dead. There was a glass of malted milk which Mrs. Kunkel told the doctor she had taken and immediately began vomiting. The doctor took the milk home with him and kept it until it was presented before the coroner's jury the past week.

The stomachs of the two women were analyzed and found to contain arsenic. Kunkel has been a merchant in this city for twenty-five years and has had a good many friends. For the past three years, however, he has been under suspicion by his neighbors for poisoning other members of his family. His father-in-law is cited as the first victim. The old man made his home with the Kunkels, and it is alleged that, becoming tired of it, Kunkel gave him a dose of medicine that caused his death within a few hours. The first Mrs. Kunkel died with convulsions. There was much talk at the time that Kunkel poisoned her, and the fact that he collected $6,000 insurance on her life added to the belief that he had a hand in getting her out of the way. Four children were left. Freddie, the youngest, was the next one to take sick. His life was also insured, and he died under suspicious circumstances.

THEY MUST HURRY.

Spanish Not to Be Permitted to Delay Evacuation.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—President McKinley has cabled the United States military commission at Porto Rico that the island must be evacuated by the Spanish forces on or before October 18, and intimating that the Spanish commissioners be so informed. In case of the failure of the Spaniards to complete the evacuation by that date, the United States commissioners are directed to take possession of and exercise all of the functions of government, and, in case it is found to be impossible to secure transportation for the Spanish troops by October 18, they may be permitted to go into temporary quarters until transports can be secured to take them to Spain.

PREVENTION WAS TOO LATE

A Surgeon Testifies Before the Investigation Commission.

CONDITIONS AT CAMP THOMAS

When Dr. Giffin Came to Chickamauga He Found Open Sinks Near the Kitchens—Hospitals Were Overcrowded for Lack of Tentage.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—The war investigating commission began its proceedings to-day with Major Emmett Giffin on the stand. He was a brigade surgeon at Camp Thomas, and told the commission that he was a surgeon in the hospital in July last, when he said it was overcrowded. In each tent and under its flies there were eight or nine men, where there should have been from four to six. There was a sufficiency of physicians and Major Giffin was sure they were competent men. The majority of patients were suffering from typhoid fever. He thought the crowding of the hospital was from lack of sufficient tentage, a fault due to the surgeon in charge. Dr. Giffin made his visit to the division hospital to see a man in his brigade who had been shot in the leg. He found him in a tent with typhoid fever patients and consequently had him removed.

The division hospital surgeons were competent in their profession, some of them being some of the most competent in the United States, but they were not men of executive ability. He considered the water supply good. The sinks were poorly located. They were too near the kitchens and were too shallow. Many of them were only seventy-five feet from the company kitchen and were open when he arrived. He then had them moved farther back and gave directions for daily disinfection and covering. By this time, however, the regiments were all infected, as he thought, by the flies going from the sinks to the mess tables.

Dr. Giffin was given charge of the construction of the Sternberg hospital upon the first of August and after the hospital was constructed was chief surgeon there. He said the tents comprising this hospital were 14x15, floored and supplied with four beds each. There were 100 tents and a number of wooden buildings. Five hundred and thirty-three was the largest number of men at the hospital at one time and, all told, 1,127 men had been healed there up to last Thursday. Of these 86 per cent were typhoid. There had been sixty-seven deaths at the institution. The cases sent to him were generally the most dangerous. He had twenty-five contract surgeons and regular, and 167 female nurses and 159 members of the hospital corps acting as nurses.

Many Injured in a Collision in Omaha Railway Yards.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 10.—A double headed Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley freight train ran into the rear end of an Omaha passenger train in the yards, three blocks north of Locust street, at 10 o'clock this morning. The last car on the passenger train was the dining car "Delmonico." It was split almost in two lengthwise. Harry Jones, waiter, of Chicago, was killed, and Otto Homedale, conductor of the dining car, of Boone, Iowa, was fatally scalded. The seriously injured are: J. Westerbeide, Omaha; M. W. Brandt, engineer freight engine; Frank Speck, fireman freight engine; Otto Parsons, waiter in dining car, crushed and scalded, Omaha.

The occupants of the dining car were totally unaware of the approaching freight and until the rear end of their car was lifted from its rear wheels and split in two on the boiler of the big freight engine.

PANA MINERS WILL STAY IT OUT

Offers of Work in Other Mines Refused by the Strikers.

PANA, Ill., Oct. 10.—W. H. Barrett, superintendent of the Kansas and Texas Coal company, is endeavoring to secure white union miners here to go to Huntington to work. He is meeting with little success. The men say they are determined to remain here and fight the operators and blacks to the bitter end. They say they expect to win the strike, but can accomplish nothing so long as the military are continued here. Captain Craig, the militia commander, says the troops will be continued here indefinitely according to his last orders. The strikers received a message to-day from Brookside, Ala., saying another train load of negroes would leave Birmingham for Pana to-night. The miners will endeavor to head off the blacks in the southern section of Illinois and send them back to Alabama.

Ghouls at Penn's Grave.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—An attempt was made early Thursday morning to steal the body of William Penn, whose body is lying in the graveyard of the Quaker Meeting house at Jordans, Buckinghamshire. The burial place lies secluded in a valley, and apart from the American tourists few people visit the spot.

BACON SAYS IT IS ALL OVER.

The War Department Notified That the Pillagers Are Whipped.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Reports received by the officials of the war and interior departments from the Indian outbreak are of a reassuring character and they now feel that the uprising may be regarded as over. The following is General Bacon's latest dispatch. WALKER, Minn., Oct. 8.—Arrived here at noon with my detachment in good condition. The killed and badly wounded have been shipped to Fort Snelling. The Indians have been badly whipped and left the country adjacent to the fight. En route here other Chippewa bands displayed white flags along the lake shore. Much talk here of general Indian outbreak.

Will ascertain facts and report later. Find Colonel Harbach at this place with 200 men, Third infantry. Will remain myself and keep troops here awaiting developments. Regret exaggerated rumors published resulting from my inability to communicate. Have been in no danger of massacre and need no reinforcements. Colonel Harbach's coming was in good time in sending out boats.

ALMOST A CLASH.

Battle Narrowly Averted at Manzanillo—Spanish Insisted on Delay.

MANZANILLO, Oct. 10.—A fight was narrowly averted between the Spanish garrison under Colonel Parron and the United States troops under Colonel Ray, who arrived here from Santiago to take possession of the city. The arrival of the Americans had taken the Spanish commander by surprise, and he had represented to Colonel Ray that he had received word from General Blanco informing him that the date for the American occupation had been postponed to October 10.

Just before a clash of arms seemed almost certain Colonel Ray received a dispatch from General Wade explaining that the commander of the Spanish troops at Manzanillo had requested a delay until October 10 and that the formal evacuation was therefore, postponed. The United States troops remain in the barracks by permission of Colonel Parron.

United States Interferes.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—A dispatch to the Pall Mall Gazette from Lisbon says the Delagoa bay negotiations have been deferred until 1899, owing to the United States insisting upon Portugal's strict observance of the agreement that neither the railroad, the harbor nor public lands at Lorenzo Marquez be alienated until the Berne award is completed. The United States is interested in these proceedings on account of the estate of the late Colonel McMurdo, an American, being involved.

The October Atlantic.

The Atlantic continues to do yeoman service in leading and pointing the way to the handling of great national issues. In the October number the Anglo-American question is treated from the American side by Hon. Carl Schurz, who opens the number, and from the English standpoint by Albert V. Dicey, the distinguished jurist, who follows him. In spite of essential differences of idea and treatment, both the distinguished authors substantially agree in desiring an international friendship between the two countries, but without any hampering or entangling alliance; in healing all present differences, and in arbitrating future ones; and they look forward hopefully to the benefits that will consequently ensue, to the peace and happiness of the whole world.

"The Real Sherman" by Arthur Buchanan in Ainslee's for October is an analysis of the great statesman's aims and abilities, with some revelations on the real cause of his resignation as secretary in April of this year. "The Wonders of High Explosives" is an exceedingly interesting article on this very mysterious subject by Theodore Waters. "Cattle Rustlers" is the title of a description of the ways and means of life of those hardy western cowboys, from whom the famous Rough Riders were in large part recruited. These and much other attractive matter, all adequately illustrated, combine to make Ainslee's for October rank with the best magazines of its class.

Prof. Benjamin Ide Wheeler, of Cornell University, has written a new life of Alexander the Great, which will be one of the leading features of The Century Magazine during the coming year. The papers will be richly illustrated with pictures by Andre Castagne, Louis Loebe, and others. At this time of empire-making projects, the career of the Macedonian conqueror is of particular suggestiveness to modern statesmen.

During a recent revival meeting the preacher asked all in his congregation to rise up who had read a passage in the book of Hekiah during the past month. About a dozen arose, some of them long-time amen-corner church members. The evangelist said: "Why, God bless you, there is no such book in the Bible." A rosecate flush o'er-spread some cheeks that had been bald for years. They realized at once that the preacher had tumbled to their hypocrisy.—Pittsburg Dispatch.
