The Oxford Standard has passed out of the hands of the Lashbrook brothers and is now being edited by H. A. East, late of St. Paul, this state. It will continue Republican in politics.

If Governor Tanner of the state of Illinois represents Illinois' best idea of law, then the Lord help Illinois. A more stupid executive blunderer than Tanner perhaps cannot be found in a gubernatorial chair in these glorious United States.

It is taking some politicians, and the Republican party has its full share of the species, a long time to learn that ridicule, misrepresentation, false-hood and semitruths, are not winners, much less honorable or righteous allies in any political campaign.

A BALLOT for E. N. Allen will be a vote for a United States senator in harmony with the present administration. It will also be a vote for a capable and energetic legislator, who is well acquainted with the needs of this district and will conscientiously and intelligently seek and labor to enact those needs into effective laws. Remember and forget not to place an X after E. N. Allen's name.

The office of representative is a most important one in the political and commercial life of the state, and requires an occupant of intelligence, judgment and energy. The Republican nominee for that position in this county is peculiarly and exceptionally well qualified for such a place in the service of the state. You will make no mistake in voting for Dr. J. E. Hathorn. He embodies in a marked degree the qualities that go to make an effective, wide-awake, up-to-date legislator.

Let no old soldier be misled into a support of Congressman Sutherland on account of any alleged pension getting record that may be advanced in his behalf. Congressman Sutherland is but taking advantage of the tireless work performed by Hon. W. E. Andrews during his incumbency of that office, and is but reaping the fruits of a Republican administration. Than Captain Adams there is no better or truer or firmer friend on earth of the old soldier. He has been one, and knows how to sympathize with them. Vote for gallant Captain Adams.

ADVICES from various parts of Nebraska give every needed assurance that there will be a republican governor at the state house after January first. Judge Hayward is as popular with the masses since his nomination as he was with republicans before it, and his election is already a foregone conclusion.—Kearney Hub.

Of the many pension cases that Congressman Sutherland claims all the honor of securing their allowance, over 40 per cent are the result of Senator Thurston's efforts. But the Senator modestly refrains from even speaking of the little matters that are Congressman Sutherland's chief stock in trade.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY has taken high rank as a true orator in his late addresses at Omaha and Chicago. These speeches are masterpieces and may be properly regarded in the light of setting forth Republican policy for the future. The president has shown great capacity to arise to the dignity of every emergency.

HONORABLE C. E. ADAMS, republican candidate for congress in this district, has labored in the interest of the old soldiers for the last thirty years, and the number he has assisted in securing their just right is legion. When department commander of the state he issued a circular letter to all the posts in the department offering his service to all those who desired assistance in securing their pensions.—Hayes Center Times.

VOTE for Captain Adams for congressman. If you are a good patriotic American citizen, you indorse the policy of the president with reference to the Cuban, Porto Rico and Philippine questions; and if you indorse that policy, you must sustain the president by sending to Washington congressmen who also indorse it, and who will be as patriotic as the president. Mr. Adams is making an energetic canvass of the district, and every man can easily learn from his own lips how he stands upon the leading questions of the day. He is a man who will do credit to Nebraska, and to the voters who send him to Washington.—Red Cloud Argus.

In holding patriotism higher than partisanship and urging that the present administration should be upheld, should be tendered a popular vote of confidence, by sending to congress men who will be in accord with the president and who will assist him in carrying out the policies already inaugurated respecting the war, expansion, protection, etc., Senator Thurston has taken high and patriotic grounds for the Republican party. It's apparently the only issue before the people at this election. Support the administration. It has led America out into a larger place. Maintain the "Greater America." Vote for Captain Adams.

DURING the two years in which Mr. Sutherland has represented this district in congress he has responded to 65 roll calls out of 110, just a trifle more than half. Of these 54 were cast in opposition to the administration. Ten were cast with a divided house where party questions were not introduced. On the revenue bill, he hadn't nerve enough to vote for or against the measure, but simply answered "present." Do the people of the Fifth district want a representative in congress who is afraid to vote his honest sentiments on so important a matter as a revenue bill? Whoever heard of such a thing? What is he supposed to be in congress for, anyway?—Minden Gazette.

Mrs. Ballington Booth's Experiences.

Mrs. Ballington Booth, of "The American Volunteers", is writing out her experiences in American prisons, and in the slums of New York, for The Ladies' Home Journal. Mrs. Booth has perhaps come closer to the lives and confidences of the men and women in prisons, and to know the poor better, than any woman living. She will not only tell what she has seen, but she will point out what her experience has shown her to be the most effective way in dealing with the people of the prisons and the slums.

"Many have said their children would have died of croup if Chamberlain's Cough Remedy had not been given," write Kellam & Ourren, druggists, Seaview, Va. "People come from far and near to get it and speak of it in the highest terms." This is equally true of this remedy in every community where it is known. Buy a bottle at McConnell's drug store and test it for yourself.
