No. 77 ran off the derailing switch at the B. & M. and U. P. crossing at Sand Creek, near Denver, Sunday afternoon, causing some damage and considerable delay to traffic. The crew of the switch engine was discharged from the service for its carelessness in the matter, which was especially aggravating under the circumstances.

All Eyes Turned to Lincoln.

The Omaha exposition has closed and all eyes are now turned toward Lincoln, the capital city, where the legislature will soon meet. The installation of new state officers, the election of a United States senator, and other matters of much importance will make Lincoln the center of state interests and every Nebraskan will want to read the old, reliable stand-by, The State Journal, during the coming year. As a special inducement to secure new readers, The Semi-Weekly State Journal, printed every Tuesday and Friday, will be mailed from now until January 1, 1900, for $1. This is a long time for the money and the sooner you send your dollar the more papers you get. There isn't any other paper in Nebraska that gives so much for the money. It is twice as good as the old-fashioned weekly. Try it. Address, The State Journal, Lincoln, Neb.

He says: "My boy came home from school with his hand badly lacerated and bleeding, and suffering great pain. I dressed the wound and applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely; all pain ceased, and in a remarkably short time, it healed without leaving a scar. For wounds, sprains, swellings and rheumatism, I know of no medicine or prescription equal to it. I consider it a household necessity." Sold by L. W. McConnell & Co.
