

NEBRASKA.

An unusual amount of building is going forward at Emerson.

Fritz Crunasic, who was hurt by a stone falling on him while working on the Burlington depot at Omaha last June, died at Fairmont from his injuries.

A fire at the home of T. J. Morrow in Norfolk resulted in the loss of a hog pen and five fine hogs. The loss is estimated at $60 or $70, origin is unknown.

Will H. Smiley sold his 160-acre farm near Emerson to Rudolph Schopke for $5,000. He then purchased the grocery store of John F. Herbuck and will engage in business in Emerson.

Word reached Wanneta that Thomas O'Brien, a farmer living near Ough, was found dead, lying in the road near his home. He was absent from the house for twenty-four hours but was supposed to be herding cattle.

A young man named Clarence Coats accidentally shot James Newton and Charles Walkham at Wymore, but neither is badly hurt. The gun was loaded with birdshot and young Coats was shooting at a dog on a crowded street.

John Rylander of Farnam started for home from Gothenburg, when his team became frightened and ran away, throwing him out of the wagon and injuring him internally. His head and face were badly cut and he is in a critical condition.

A reception banquet and ball was tendered the members of Company L, Second Nebraska, by the citizens of Norfolk. There was a brilliant display of fireworks. Speeches were made by prominent citizens and officers, and the result was a grand success.

The passenger department of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific reports that more tickets to Omaha during the time of the exposition were sold at Fairbury than from any other station on their system. Two thousand five hundred tickets were sold during that time, 1,448 of which were sold in October.

Bert Dawson, brakeman on the Rock Island, while making a coupling at Narka, fell under the wheels which passed over his right leg. He was brought to his home in Fairbury and the leg amputated, but it was impossible to save his life. He was about 29 years of age and had been married only about a year.

Three prisoners escaped from the jail at Geneva by sawing through a window grating, cutting off the bolts. Bush and Lovejoy were in for the Ohio bank robbery, awaiting a new trial. Needer was up for hog stealing. They threatened the fourth man, who had no desire to escape, if he should give warning. This makes a second jail breaking in about two months.

A hypnotist and mesmerist entertainment was given at the opera house in St. Paul. During the performance a large lamp was accidentally overturned and a panic ensued among the audience. The fire companies responded promptly to the alarm, but their services were not needed. No damage done except a few broken windows and some of those in attendance badly scared.

The house of S. A. Kinney, a prosperous farmer residing four miles east of Wymore, was burned, the fire being caused by a defective flue. At the time the fire broke out Mr. Kinney and some neighbors were in a field a half mile distant threshing. They reached the house in time to save the contents, but too late to save the structure.

Julius N. Miller, who the dispatches said had died at Honolulu, and who was credited to company B, was a member of the recruits for company C of Lincoln. He was a brother of Francis Miller. Their mother lives in Franklin county and is a widow. The boy who died resigned a position as second miller at Block's mill to go to war. He was well liked by everyone.

Ashland dispatch: Saturday evening Mrs. Louie DeSouch, wife of a farmer living south of this city, while on her return home, was shot in the face by an air gun in the hands of a small boy. The ball struck near the side of her nose and glanced, lodging under her eye where the surgeon could not reach it with a probe. The accident is a serious one and may result in the loss of the eye.

The Atlas bank of Neligh opened for business last week. The incorporators are Messrs. Birmingham, Ryan and Gallagher of O'Neill. It is understood that another bank will be opened right away by St. Clair and others of Sioux City, Ia. They have rented the rooms formerly occupied by the Merchants' bank. Bank Examiner Whitmore of Lincoln has been appointed receiver of the First National bank.

With the aid of the Beatrice Creamery company the organization and the completion of the plant of the Crawford Creamery company was consummated last week. On the opening day cream was separated from 3,000 pounds of milk in the presence of a large number of people from the surrounding country, who came to celebrate the opening. Prof. Haacker and Dr. Peters of the state university delivered interesting and appropriate addresses and the Gate City Cornet Band gave musical selections.

It has been years since there has been such a demand for men in all branches of farm and other kinds of labor, as there is at the present time, says a Harvard dispatch. No man has occasion to be without work, who is willing to work for reasonable wages at work he can do.

The poultry business has become a good source of revenue to the farmers of this community, says an Ashland dispatch. Every Friday a poultry car comes here from Schuyler. Every week the car takes out from Ashland, Wahoo and Schuyler from 8,000 to 12,000 pounds of live poultry, which are shipped to San Francisco.

THE RESULT IN NEBRASKA

Exact Standing of the Legislature Appears to Be in Doubt.

STATE FUSION TICKET IS SUCCESSFUL.

Both Parties Put forth Claims that Leaves the U. S. Senatorship Matter in Doubt—The State and Congressional Vote as Far as Received.

At this writing there is claim on the part of both parties of the Nebraska legislature-elect. The Omaha Bee says:

"Both houses of the next legislature are republican. The United States senator elected to succeed William V. Allen will be a republican. This has been decided by the returns from the various senatorial and legislative districts which give the republicans an undisputed majority in each house of the legislature. One by one districts which were represented in the last legislature by fusionists have reported the election of republican members as the official figures have been compiled. The republican majority on joint ballot, according to the best available returns, is fifteen. The republican majority in the senate is nine, there being twenty-one republican senators as against twelve fusionist senators. The republican majority in the house is six, there being fifty-three republican members as against forty-seven fusion members. The joint session will therefore consist of seventy-four republicans and fifty-nine fusionists."

Omaha Bee: "With returns complete from forty-three counties and practically complete returns on the rest of the state Chairman Schneider of the republican state committee concedes the election of Poynter, fusion, for governor by 1,000 votes. It is possible that the figures may vary 200 from this, but hardly more. Returns on the rest of the state ticket indicate that the candidates are running about the same as the head of the ticket. The election of fusion congressmen in the Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth districts is indicated by the returns beyond hope of a change."

The Omaha World-Herald thus sums up:

"All interest now centers in the contest for the Nebraska legislature. The World-Herald prints today a corrected list of the members who, according to advices received by the World-Herald, have received a majority of the votes in their districts. According to this list the republicans have 18 and the fusionists 15 in the senate. The republicans have 48 and the fusionists 52 in the house. This would give the fusionists 67 votes on joint ballot, which is the exact number necessary to elect a United States senator."
