Two More Excursions to Hot Springs.

Those who find it inconvenient or impossible to leave home during the summer months will be interested in the announcement that on the 14th and 28th of February, the Burlington Route will sell round trip tickets to Hot Springs at half rates.

Tickets are good for thirty days from date of issue—long enough for visitors to receive substantial benefit from a course of treatment at the Springs. Discovered by a Woman.
Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined, and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, has absolutely been cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at McConnell's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

McCook Boys.
"Call a boy hard names when he is young, and he will live up to them when he grows up," or words to that effect, I once heard an old man say. This was recalled to mind several times a few weeks ago when different ones informed me that McCook had some pretty tough boys. It was at the chicken show. I got to studying about those boys. There was a dozen of bright boys at that exhibition, all very much interested and somewhat noisy as boys have ever been.

There were ever so many to whom I should like to extend thanks for pretty little courteous favors, but I noticed that very little attention was shown these boys other than to see that they did not meddle. I felt like censuring some of the men that they so soon forgot the time when they were boys. But perhaps the men were right; they have had a chance to know the boys better than I do. The men were quieter than the boys, but they spat mere tobacco juice. Perhaps the men were real nice boys. It will only be a few years until the boys will be men and will vote for mayor, and it would be good policy for future aspirants for that office to make friends with them now. If the boys are chummy with the real nice men, it is quite likely they will emulate them in many ways.

There are boys who find the greatest enjoyment in women's society. I did not see any mothers out with their boys, but perhaps the weather was too cold. Boys rarely ever plot mischief when they are visiting women. Now I have been wondering if McCook folks were not so busy they were neglecting to visit with their boys and, especially, giving the ones regarded as "tough" too much free time that ought to be occupied in visiting the nice men and women of McCook. It seems to me a town boy's social duties ought to be rather arduous. He ought to be invited out so often that he would seldom have time for an evening on the street.

Of course, no one believes their very own boy to be "tough." And, of course, our very own boy is to be trusted any hour of the day or night in any company. Still, we nice men and women would probably do just as well if we did not grudge them our society. If one has never cultivated the acquaintance of boys—all sorts of boys—they will have missed rare entertainment.
It would be very hard for me to believe McCook boys to be anything but the courteous, manly, little fellows they have been with me, overflowing with mischief of course. A BOY LOVER.

What Next?
It does seem as though the seedsmen would stop somewhere, but here comes a work of art. Think of it, twenty-four pages lithographed in colors, not gaudy chromos, but from photographs in colors, upon an entirely new plan. This, in itself, is enough to turn every woman's head. Then follow about one hundred more pages, filled with handsome half-tone illustrations of flowers, fruits and vegetables, photographed from nature, all printed on fine paper and enclosed in an elegant cover of white and gold. Vick's Garden and Floral Guide also contains full descriptions and directions for planting flowers and vegetables, plants, small fruits, etc. It explains a new departure in selling of packets; also a grand offer giving customers credit for full amount of purchase to apply on order for implements and useful articles. This splendid work of art will be mailed with a due bill good for 25 cents worth of seeds, for only 15 cents. Write JAMES VICKS SONS, Rochester, N. Y.

These are dangerous times for the health. Croup, colds and throat troubles lead rapidly to consumption. A bottle of One Minute Cough cure at the right time will preserve life, health and a large amount of money. Pleasant to take; children like it. A. McMillen.

How to Grow Young Again.
A daily, thorough bath with mild soap and warm water, aided by a brush, which leaves the body tingling and smooth; a nap or rest for twenty minutes every noon, before the system has exhausted its supply of force; a long and rapid walk; which gradually extends in length; a warm room in winter, with ventilation night and day; a perpetual open-air life in summer; a few but complete gymnastics for fifteen minutes a day to supply the muscles and tone the nerves; food composed principally of fruits and whole wheat, with meat once a day and abundant salads and nuts; and, lastly, nights of unbroken sleep for nine hours; these make up the regimen.—From "The Fine Art of Grooming," in Demorest's Magazine for March.

I congratulate the manufacturer of an honest medicine." For sale by L. W. McConnell & Co.
