THE "BEE HIVE,"

McCOOK, - - - NEBRASKA

[OFFICIAL—BY AUTHORITY.]
Commissioners' Proceedings.

McCook, Neb., February 27, 1899.
Board of county commissioners met pursuant to adjournment. Present, James A. Robinson, Henry Crabtree and Stephen Bolles, commissioners, and R. A. Green, county clerk. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

On motion county treasurer was instructed to divide all moneys "left in East Valley and Indianola precinct bonds" among the school districts comprising said territory in proportion to the valuation of said districts.

The following resolutions were on motion adopted:
Resolved, That the county treasurer be instructed to transfer the interest fund and bank interest fund to the county general fund at least once every six months, and that the transfers heretofore made be approved.

Resolved, That the action of the county treasurer in purchasing the Indianola precinct bonds numbered 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 be approved.

Resolved, That the county treasurer be instructed to receive the personal tax of S. A. Moore for the years 1894 and 1895 at the face of said tax, for the reason that said tax was levied and taxed in the wrong name.

Resignation of W.C. Shockley, justice of the peace in Beaver precinct, read and on motion accepted, and James H. Everist was appointed to fill vacancy.

On motion Andrew Barber was appointed county surveyor to fill vacancy.

The following official bonds were examined and on motion approved:
W. J. Porter, overseer road district No. 8.
R. F. Goreley, overseer road district No. 23.

Engraved Cards Cheap.

Omaha stationers are cutting each others throats on card engraving. Clement Chase, whose bookstore is at 1518 Farnam st, Omaha, advertises until March 15th only, a copper plate and 100 engraved cards for 75 cents, postage 5 cents extra. That is just half the regular price. He prints 100 cards from plate for 60 cents, postage 5 cents. The regular price is $1, as everybody knows. This is an opportunity to get handsome calling cards for almost nothing.

Get next to some of those rough white pine two-by-fours, six feet long, for cheap fence posts; at Bullard's.
