

Joe Got Gay in Iowa.

The following startling item of news involving a former well-known resident of our city, appears in the Daily Beacon of Ashtabula, Ohio, of March 22: Sheriff C. D. Lukenbill, Clarke county, Iowa, stopped at the Stoll house, Tuesday night, and left, Wednesday morning, for Franklin, Pa., on a little errand which is calculated to culminate in making serious trouble for a couple of elopers.

Last September, Joe Reizenstein, a cigar maker of Osceola, Clarke county, Ia., succumbed to the charms of sixteen-year-old Lottie Sanders, who was an employe in his cigar factory, and deserted his wife and daughters, one of the latter of whom is older than the fair charmer in this case.

Joe and Lottie decamped and managed to escape detection, until last week, when they were located and arrested, and Sheriff Lukenbill is making the trip on the strength of the following telegram, which he received last Monday:

Oil City, Pa., March 20.

Parties under arrest in the station. Reizenstein requests the presence of Mrs. Reizenstein. Come immediately, answer.

G. M. TIMPTIM,
Chief of Police.

The wayward husband will no doubt be disappointed when Sheriff Lukenbill arrives, as Mrs. Reizenstein is not with him.

The sheriff telephoned Chief Timptom from here Wednesday morning and was instructed to stop at Franklin, where the chief will meet him with requisition papers.

County Prosecutor I. A. Tonet, of Clarke county, reached Ashtabula on an early train Wednesday morning and joined Sheriff Lukenbill.

All Reasonable Privileges.

The ordinance providing certain privileges and rules for the government of lot-owners in Longview cemetery, which appears elsewhere in this issue, is a very liberal one, and will doubtless meet with the approval of all reasonable citizens. The privileges granted do away with all reasonable objections that have been urged against the management of the city cemetery. The rules prescribed are only such as are necessary in any well-managed and carefully-kept burying ground, and such a place Longview cemetery can claim to be. It is a credit to the city, and will in time be an attractive and beautiful city of the dead.

Card to the Public.

You are cordially invited to make your cash purchases in hardware implements, carriages, etc., of Cochran & Coleman on April 1, Saturday next. Also groceries and merchandise of James McAdams, next door.

The members of the Christian church are soliciting trade for these firms on that day in which they are mutually benefited. May we not depend on your help in this way. Respectfully,
COMMITTEE.

School of Instruction.

Commencing on April 10th and continuing two days and two nights, J. A. Tuttleys of Red Cloud, grand custodian, A. F. & A. M., will hold a Masonic school of instruction in McCook, in local lodge rooms.

W. C. T. U.

First regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held on Friday, April 7th, at 2:30 in the afternoon, at the home of Mrs. C. H. Boyle. A cordial invitation is extended to all women. By order of the president.

Eggs for Hatching.

I will sell a few sittings from my high scoring pen of White Plymouth Rocks specially mated by Judge Hennes. Eggs $2.00 per 13. D. CULLEN, 610 Monroe St., McCook, Neb.

There are no "dead" issues in this city campaign that need agitate or frighten any thoughtful citizen. But the live issues that now and that may in the next year confront the city and will be taken care of by the gentlemen on the Republican ticket. Vote it.

What do you care how cold it gets in Alaska? What you want is some of Bullard's coal to keep you warm here "till the flowers shall bloom in the spring."

They all admit cheerfully, that the American Woven Wire is far and away the best wire on earth. You will use no other after trying it. S.M. Cochran & Co.

JUDGE F. B. BEALL of Hastings arrived in the city, Wednesday night, on his way up to Imperial, whither he continued his journey on Thursday morning, on business.

E. R. BANKS, A. C. Banks and W. O. Dimmick, all of Blue Hill, this state, were city visitors, part of the week, arriving here on Tuesday night and remaining over until Thursday.

MISS MABEL WILCOX came up from Juniata, Friday night last, and is spending the spring vacation at home. Miss Mabel is teaching a very satisfactory school in Juniata, this year.

MRS. M. E. BARGER entered her 70th year, this week, and a few friends celebrated the fact in a mild but pleasant manner. Not many women continue in active business at Mrs. Barger's age.

MRS. J. A. WILCOX, so word from Omaha conveys the news, is getting along nicely now and her early discharge from the hospital is a possibility which her many friends here will learn with greatest pleasure.

A Card of Thanks.

The fire boys that were present and assisted at the burning of my house in the early morning of March 17, and all others that assisted them and all the friends and neighbors that assisted me, I desire to heartily thank. The good judgment in carefully handling my household goods saved to me my personal effects with scarcely any loss, for which I am so very thankful.

MRS. L. C. DOLL.

There's money in it for you, if you are a prospective buyer, to see the stock kept by Cochran & Co., before making any purchases in their line—and they keep everything, and lots of them, and a large variety.

Some fall wheat has been damaged, but most of the fall wheat will come through the winter in good shape in this part of the state.

COURT HOUSE NEWS.

COUNTY COURT.

Licenses as follows have been issued by the judge since our last report: William E. White and Stella J. Saunders, both of Danbury.

Louis Lawritson of Indianola and Marie Frederickson of McCook. They were united in marriage by Rev. W. J. Turner on Sunday afternoon at the Congregational parsonage.

In the case of the State of Nebraska vs. David Rittenhouse, James VanNortwick and G. W. Cooley for trespass on complaint of H. A. Bull, the defendants were each fined $50 and costs. Albert Styer, a hired man of one of the defendants, was fined $5 and costs. Thirty acres of land, belonging to the heirs of the late Perry Plumb, are involved in this case, which is the result of the survey made last fall by County Surveyor Reeves, to which THE TRIBUNE made reference at the time.

DISTRICT COURT.

The following cases have been filed in the district court since the report made last week:

Joseph T. Murtagh vs. Marie S. Eaton et al. Equity.

Sylvester Cordeal vs. Elizabeth S. Rice et cons. Equity.

State of Nebraska vs. Benson VanSteenbergh. Appeal.

Sarah Murtagh vs. Hulbert A. Graham. Equity.

FOR SALE.

I have for sale, on easy terms, the following described real estate in McCook, Nebraska:

Lot one in block twenty six, First Addition to McCook, $600.00.

Lot and building on Dennison street, occupied by the Probst bakery, $640.00.

Lot eleven in block ten, First Addition to South McCook, $240.00.

Lots five and six in block one, Second Addition of McCook, $600.00.

W. S. MORLAN,
McCook, Nebraska.

A Telephone Franchise.

As will be seen by the ordinance given in full in this issue, a 25-year franchise has been given the Nebraska Telephone Co. to place and maintain an exchange in our city. The company has wisely decided to comply in full with the reasonable requirements insisted upon by the council in the matter of maximum rates. The arrangement as now made seems to be fair and satisfactory to both parties.

Tablets Below Cost.

We have come into possession of an assortment of tablets, of different prices, which we will sell at cost to dispose of them in a hurry. If you want a good ten cent tablet for five cents, call in and see our line. We have them at from 2 for 5 cents up, and they are good quality and value. And some superb Crane's superfine paper and envelopes at a price unheard of in this city.

The present is as representative an administration as McCook has ever had or is ever likely to have. It represents as much brains, business sense and good order or as any administration the city has ever had. And THE TRIBUNE expects the voters to say the same on next Tuesday.

There is a diversity of opinion as to just what Colonel Corwin intends to make of the enclosure north of the Commercial house: A deer park, a jack-rabbit preserve or what-not. The colonel himself is undecided whether to hold a circus or a Sunday-school.

Cash will buy more of the very best implements in the world at Cochran & Co.'s, this spring, than have ever been sold before anywhere. And they are coming in now by the car-load. Two cars arrived, this week.

Steve Bolles says he can tell every time when Pop Gun Smith is giving a blast at McCook through the Indianola Reporter, from the peculiar hollow sound characteristic of Samuel Randolph.

Commencing with Saturday night, the snowfall of this week has been over six inches. While this wet weather keeps the farmer out of the field, it is a fine thing for the wheat, all agree.

In every branch of hardware business Cochran & Co. lead the procession in variety, quantity and quality,—and naturally enough in price as well.

The Tennesseans at the opera house tonight. It is claimed for them that they are better than ever, and they are always good.

Paint is to a house what clothing is to the body. It is just as important. McMillen guarantees every gallon of paint he sells.

If you are repairing your house and need a front door you should see the stock of the Barnett Lumber Co.

MINOR ITEMS OF NEWS.

Don't fail to see Loar's wall paper.

WANTED—Short-hand pupils. L. W. Stayner.

Loar's wall paper line is complete and up-to-date.

Your prescriptions will receive careful attention at Loar's.

A few remnants of wall paper at reduced prices at McMillen's, the druggist.

The Star of Jupiter is off the press for April. There is no assessment for April.

Prices that surprise; values that tell; at McMillen Bros.' harness and saddlery.

They have stock tanks to burn at Cochran & Co.'s. And the price is right.

The remnant or the Beardslee stock has been boxed up today and will be shipped out of the city.

Both the Stars of Jupiter and the Macabees had refreshments after their regular meetings, this week.

For Baker Barb Wire, Page Woven Wire Fencing and Poultry Netting, see the Barnett Lumber Co.

You will be glad if you do, and sorry if you don't, buy your harness and saddles from McMillen Bros.

Who wants to burn a stock tank? Bullard's Fir and Red Cypress tanks are made to hold water. Right prices.

Beautiful wall paper contributes much to happy homes. McMillen's wall papers contribute much to beautiful walls.

A hammock is a nice thing for summer and there is no better place to hang it than a porch. What Bullard's want is to sell you the porch, not the hammock. See?

This may be fun for the weather clerk, but it's a rude joke on the coal pile and the confiding citizen who has taken down his base-burner, in confidence that spring was about here.

The way goods are rolling into the immense establishment of Cochran & Co., these days, one would think they would soon be too full for utterance,—but call and see and hear all about it.

Easter will soon be here and the egg market will take a jump. When that is over we hope for some thawing weather and then you will want those fence posts Bullard's sell so cheap. Come early.

J. J. Garrard is building a large two-story addition to his dwelling house, formerly the A. G. Bump house, and will occupy the same when the work is completed. He will have one of the most commodious residences in the city.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. Circle made a surprise visit, Tuesday afternoon, on Mrs. M. E. Barger. It was her 70th birthday and at four o'clock a fine lunch was served. It was a very social affair and was highly appreciated by Mrs. Barger.

There is small room for criticism or complaint of our present city government and little or no room for a Republican to scratch his ticket, this spring. Just place an X in the circle under the national bird and the canvassers will do the rest.

An effort is being made to have a number of bodies from neighboring country cemeteries removed to Riverview cemetery of our city. Already a few have been interred in Riverview from Osborn and others are to follow from that and other burying grounds.

Dr. J. P. Williams, associated with Dr. W. L. Dayton of Lincoln, Neb., will again be in McCook, Friday and Saturday, March 31st and April 1st, at the office of Dr. W. V. Gage, for the treatment of diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat and the fitting of glasses.
