RED WILLOW.

Jacob and Gabriella Longnecker are seriously ill with measles.

Rev. T. L. Ketman will preach in the north end of district 72, Sunday afternoon at three o'clock.

After a hotly contested election, J. F. Helm was elected school director by a majority of one. In district 72 Wm. Taylor was elected moderator.

At Mrs. Ruggles' party the new town of Red Willow was discussed. It was mentioned that the son of the Red Willow man who first graduated for the ministry was to be called to this point. Much sympathy was expressed for the young fellow—so much that one might have supposed a call to the wilds of Africa would be preferable to coming here.

Wednesday was the occasion of Mrs. Tom Ruggles' birthday. Mrs. Tom is a pioneer among us and has borne patiently all the trials and vicissitudes that come to the pioneer wife and mother. Her life has been very quiet and unassuming and she has probably never realized how many admirers she possessed among her neighbors until this eventful birthday, when something less than fifty of them repaired to her home to help her celebrate. The surprise was complete, and the new rocker with which her friends presented her seemed a most appropriate gift. The "lords of creation" were left out in the invitations, but of course they had to come to bring the women. The guests brought the dinner and there was no lack of good things. The men folks were allowed to eat at the second table, and Mr. Ruggles was properly admonished to keep out of the new chair. Among the number present were Mesdames B. Baker, Woodworth, Pate, Jacob Ball, Crookford, Ira and Lefe Miller, Wm. Taylor, Sheets, Strayer, Eli Crookford, Byfield, Hines, and many others whose names we do not now recall. The day was most pleasantly spent and we feel that no doubt remains in Mrs. Ruggles' mind about her neighbors' appreciation of her, if ever any existed.

BANKSVILLE.

A. Peters is building a new house.

Ed Lawthers is putting down a large cistern.

The rains during the past week will no doubt revive all who were having the "blues."

Grace Bell of South McCook has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Relf, the past week.

Several of our boys took in the ball game, last Saturday, at the Tuttle place near the head of Dry creek.

Spring wheat was materially injured and fall wheat and rye will be a short crop on account of the prolonged dry weather.

Our fellow correspondent from Coleman precinct will come in this part of the county he will see plenty of corn that is knee high and better.

Corn has not been injured in the least by the dry weather and will make up for lost time, as it is in fine condition. The farmers have had ample time to destroy the weeds.

LEBANON.

William Murphy, one of the best known men in this section of the county, was laid to rest in the cemetery at this place, Sunday. This funeral was one of the most largely attended in the history of this part of Red Willow county. Delegations from various portions of the county being present.

The hail storm of Sunday evening extended to within about a mile of town on the north, and did much damage to crops and live stock in that section as well as east and west of town. Following is a partial list of the heaviest damages sustained in this section: J. S. Hoobler, one-fourth mile north of town, lost 40 head of fat hogs averaging about 350 pounds, 1 milk cow and 4 calves. B. F. Bradbury lost 5 or 6 hogs and some pigs. Walter Devore, one mile east, lost about 25 hogs. A. C. Wickup, one-half mile north, 6 or 8 hogs. Ed. Widner, about four miles east, lost a fine thoroughbred hog by lightning. T. J. Cress lost over 20 pigs on his farm west of town.

Burlington No. 3 now carries five sleeping cars west. They are the St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha and two Chicago cars. Even with this equipment it is sometimes hard for the ticket agents to secure accommodation for westbound passengers.

A Tornado at Bartley.

Last Saturday morning at about 1:30, Bartley was visited by quite a lively and destructive tornado. It had rained in the early part of the evening, and a season of quiet and oppressive heat intervened before the tornado came pouncing upon the town from the southeast, and in the twinkling of an eye it was all over.

The main damage was sustained at college hall, a two-story brick building owned by J. E. Seelye of Poughkeepsie, N. Y. The hall part of this building was entirely destroyed and the falling bricks damaged the floor and ceiling below. The general merchandise establishment of G. W. Jones and the drug store of F. A. Walsworth occupied the two store rooms under the hall. Neither of these stocks of goods was materially damaged and both stocks were removed from the building Saturday, hence escaped any damage from the heavy rain of Sunday evening. The damage to the building is about $1,000, which is covered by tornado insurance. The barns of David Mangus, John Jones and Rev. M. S. Fouth were also destroyed. Besides awnings, chimneys etc, along the street in the neighborhood of the hall were slightly damaged.

Exposition Opens Saturday, July 1, 1899.

Grand parade; good music; Dan Godfrey's Military band and scores of others; good orators; excellent exhibits; hundreds of new features; big fire works in evening; biggest and best exposition ever given in the west.

McCook, Neb., June 19, 1899.

Board of county commissioners met in regular session. Present, James A. Robinson, Henry Crabtree and Stephen Bolles, commissioners, W. R. Starr, county attorney and R. A. Green, county clerk. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

It appearing from the affidavit of R. H. Thomas, and from the best evidence at hand, that the personal tax for the year of 1898, assessed against R. H. Thomas, has been paid, the board on motion instructed the county clerk to strike tax from the tax-list and place said affidavit on file.

McCook, Neb., June 22, 1899.

Board of county commissioners met pursuant to adjournment. Present, James A. Robinson, Henry Crabtree and Stephen Bolles, commissioners, and R. A. Green, county clerk. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

The following claims for damages by reason of the location of the roads hereinafter set forth were examined and on motion approved and the overseer of road districts where said roads are located were directed to pay the same out of any funds belonging to said districts as by law directed to the following persons, to-wit:

Road No. 335, road district No. 28: Joseph McKeever, damages to south-east 1/2 12-4-28..... $ 20 00
Road No. 336, road district No. 15: High W. Cole, damages to west half of 16-2-28..... 5 00
The following official bond was examined and on motion approved: H. Stone, overseer of highways, road district No. 30.

It appearing to the board, from the affidavit of J. A. Curlee, that his personal property assessed to Curlee & Co. for the year 1899 was a part of that assessed to the Bartley Milling Company for said year, the board finds that said Curlee & Co. were erroneously assessed for said year, and the clerk is therefore instructed to strike the tax assessed against Curlee & Co. for the year 1899 from the tax list.

The following claims were examined and on motion allowed, and clerk instructed to draw warrants on county general fund, levy of 1898, in payment thereof, as follows:

Pretty Children

"We have three children. Before the birth of the last one my wife used four bottles of MOTHER'S FRIEND. If you had the pictures of our children, you could see at a glance that the last one is healthiest, prettiest and finest-looking of them all. My wife thinks Mother's Friend is the greatest and grandest remedy in the world for expectant mothers."—Written by a Kentucky Attorney-at-Law.

MOTHER'S FRIEND prevents nine-tenths of the suffering incident to childbirth. The coming mother's disposition and temper remain untroubled throughout the ordeal, because this relaxing, penetrating liniment relieves the usual distress. A good-natured mother is presure-free to have a good-natured child. The patient is kept in a strong, healthy condition, which the child also inherits. Mother's Friend takes a wife through the crisis quickly and almost painlessly. It assists in her rapid recovery, and wards off the dangers that so often follow delivery.

Sold by druggists for $1 a bottle.
