Volume after volume has been written on this subject and no other is of such great importance to everybody. In Omaha they had considerable discussion on this point among the stores, and it ended in the condemnation of quite a number of them. Hayden Bros.' big grocery department derived considerable advertising at the time and is now known as the Pure Food Department. # NEITHER A TRUST NOR MONOPOLY

Exactly Like the American Oil Seed Pool

Except That the Stock Has Not Been Watered-The Business to Be Carried on in the Proper Way.

NEW YORK, July 10.-A dispatch to the Tribune from London, Eng., says: The complete success of John R. Bartlett's campaign in the English oil seed trade is assured. When he came to England five months ago the managers of the linseed and cottonseed crushing mills and refineries were competing sharply with one another and adopting no methods for self preservation. He has drawn 60 per cent of this great trade into an amalgamated company. His plan of operations has been adopted by a majority of the trade, including all the strongest companies and firms. He has made contracts with seventeen corporations and firms and purchased twenty-eight mills and twelve oil refineries, with plant, business and good will. The British Oil and Cake mills, limited, has been organized to carry into effect these agreements made by him and his brokers and conduct the business for the common advantage of the majority of the trade. The share capital and debenture stock of the consolidated company is £2,250,000, but £500,000 is reserved for future development of the business. The British Oil and Cake Mills, limited, is an exact reproduction of similar amalgamations in America, with the single difference in detail that the stock is not watered. 'The new company is neither a trust nor a monopoly but simply one of many industrial amalgamations which are formed here as readily as in America. English law sanctions such consolidations and they receive the support of the greatest financiers, and there is no popular agitation against them.

The Consolidated company will be powerful enough to control production the disposal of products and the improvement of plants will be the reduction to the English oil trade.

While allowing Mr. Bartlett to carry out his own plan without modification, the British trade is acting entirely for itself and independently of any Amercan trade amalgamation. There is as yet no concerted action between trades of the two countries, nor any attempt to regulate prices by an international trust or combination. Some basis of common action may be arranged in the future.

TACOMA, Wash., July 10 .- Dr. L. O. MANILA, July 6 (via Hong Kong, July 10.)-Friendly Filipinos have been the medium of communications between the American authorities and the military leaders of the insurrection in Cavite province, which for some time resulted in bringing over a prominent general and several hundred of his followers.

If the negotiations had succeeded the action would have had a great moral effect, for others would dcubtless have followed.

Were the general's name given it might lead in his case to a similar fate as that of others suspected of friendliness to the Americans.

He had foreseen the failure of the insurrection and advised Againaldo to make terms, but it is understood that he has sent word to the Americans that having sworn to support the insurrection, he must remain loyal to the end

Similar negotiations, it is said are under consideration by a member of the cabinet of the so-called Filipino government, who himself took the initiative.

The first party to leave this country will consist of Admiral Walker, Colonel Ernst, Mr. Burr and Mr. Morrison, constituting the Panama committee, with probably two other members of the commission, who will leave here in about thirty days for Paris. There they will examine the records of the Panama company and secure whatever data si obtainable in connection with that part of the work. It is possible they may visit Kiel before returning. Meanwhile the remainder of the commission in this country will do whatever is possible by correspondence with the several Central American governments who may be interested in the route to be finally selected. The start of the entire commission for the isthmus will be made probably in November. When the commission takes the field it will divide into three sections, one to study the Panama route, one to further investigate the Nicaragua route and another to go over the Darien line. Afterward the San Blas and several minor routes will be studied, so as to leave no possible question open when the survey is finished.

TEST NEW RAPID-FIRE GUNS.

Two Designs of Six Pounders Which Eclipse Previous Records.

NEW YORK, July 10 .- A new rapidfire gun designed for the protection of mine fields and a novel semi-automatic six-pounder for the navy has been successfully tested on the proving grounds of the Driggs-Seabury Gun and Ammunition company at Derby, Cann. These guns were built for the army and navy respectively under contracts awarded at the beginning of the war with Spain and will probably play an important part in the plan and scope of national defense. The army gun is a six-pounder of the Driggs type and is mounted upon a parapet carriage, which admits of the piece being fired with the same rapidity as upon a naval mount, while it can be easily transported from place to place. In fact, the new weapon is a combination of a field and coast defense gun. Its use will be principally to protect the torpedoes in the harbors by throwing such an overwhelming shower of shot and shell that no small boat could live within its zone of fire. The semi-automatic gun is also a six-pounder and is expected to work a revolution in rapid-fire guns, for, with it a speed of sixty shots per minue was attained, which is twice the record by the six-pounder when worked by hand. Another important feature is that it reduces a crew of a six-pounder from four to two men, one of whom throws fixed ammunition as a person throws coal into a furnace, while the other fires as the breech lock closes automatically.

MAKES AGREEMENT BINDING.

Contract Entered Into by a Trust Declared Good.

TRENTON, N. J., July 10 .- The New Jersey court of errors and appeals, in a very sweeping opinion, reversed the decision of Vice Chancellor Green of the Trenton Potteries company vs. Richard Oliphant, et al. The Trenton Potteries company is the so-called sanitary ware trust formed a few years ago by the purchase of five sanitary potteries in Trenton, including the Oliphant. The potteries selling out entered into a written agreement not to start again anywhere in the United States, except in Nevada and Arizona. The Oliphant started up again, and the vice chancelor refused to restrain the Oliphant, taking the ground that the contract was in restraint of trade. The court of errors today said it is not a question whether sanitary ware is a necessity of life, and also remarked that the contract did not take out of business any large proportion of those engaged in it. The significant part of the opinion is that corporations in New Jersey have, under legislative acts, the right to buy the capital stock and business of other corporations, and that a contract such as that made by Oliphant would be necessary to secure the full benefit of such purchase. The court holds the contract made by Oliphant to be enforcible regardless of the question whether it restrains trade or not.

KANSAS CITY, July 8 .- B. H. Morse representing himself as "district agent of the Alaska-Klondike Improvement and Mining company," was arrested at his office here today by Mrs. Richard P. Bland, widow of the late congressman. The police seized Morse's books, which according to Chief of Police Hayes, proves him to be a clever swindler, whose operations have covered every part of the country. Morse's plan, it appears, was to collect from the widows of prominent men. lately deceased, whom, he always represented, had some time since bought certain mining stock of him and left a small balance unpaid. Morse came here recently from Nebraska City, Nebraska, where he married Miss Nellie Fitzgerald, whose parents live in Illinois, last May.

NOW UNDER A MODUS VIVENDI.

Uncle Sam and England.

WASHINGTON, July 10.-Mr. Choate has not communicated to the state department the result of any representations he has made to Lord Salisbury in London respecting the modus vivendi under his instructions of yesterday. Although it is believed that it is almost hopeless to expect a successful outcome of these direct negotiations with London, it is not regarded here as inevitable that a hostile clash will Confidence is expressed in the sufficiency of the present arrangements. backed by the sound common sense of the officials of the United States and Canada now in the disputed territory in Alaska, to prevent a collision. As a matter of fact, the United States and Great Britain have been actually working under a tacitly understood modus vivendi.

The existence of an understanding on this point is manifested in the ready acquiescence by the United States government in the suggestion by the British foreign office that it might tend to prevent trouble if the war department abandoned its plan of sending a garrison of troops to Pyramid harbor. On its part, the British government showed its disposition to maintain the status quo by quietly, but firmly, restraining the Canadian customs officers and mounted police, who were greatly harassing American miners passing over the trails. If this spirit continues to be exhibited on both sides there is little reason to fear that the failure of the London negotiations will result in anything more serious than another long and disagreeable postponement of the final settlement. The British embassy is similarly without advices from the foreign office as to the recent negotiations in London and the officials here positively decline to discuss any phase of the Alaskan question.

Money Required for Chlcago Plan Said to Be Forthcoming.

CHICAGO, July 10 .- The money required for the promotion of the plan for the great railroad clearing house at the Stickney tract, in the southwestern part of the city, has been provided. Assurances are given that the enterprise as originally laid out will go ahead without further delay.

The Chicago Transfer and Clearing company, the corporation which will manage the property, has a capital of $4,000,000, and this has been subscribed by individual men who are interested in the project. Mr. Benson of London, a capitalist, the estate of Roswell P. Flower, H. H. Porter and D. O. Mills have agreed, it is said, to assume most of the stock.

The plan is to establish a point of convergence for all railroads entering the city. Freight coming into Chicago on one road to be shipped out on another will be hauled directly on the cars to this track, where it can be transferred readily and, for but a small part of the expense which would be required in the heart of the city. It is said 18,000 men will be employed when the scheme is in full operation.

Fendists Cause New Scare.

FRANKFORT, Ky., July 10 .- The Clay county feudists caused another stir among the state officers today, and as a result state troops were ordered to Manchester for the second time within a few days, and again the order was revoked. The day's commotion was caused by a rumor that hostilities had been resumed at Manchester and that several persons had been killed.
