Brought Their Heroes Home.

The cost of transporting the Tenth regiment of Pennsylvania from San Francisco to Chicago was $30,851. From the latter city to Pittsburg the Keystone state's troops were carried free by the Pennsylvania railroad, which company also took entire charge gratis of all transportation arrangements over the whole route.

On the crowded East Side of New York the city has invested $120,000 in another little park. It contains six acres that were a mudhole near Corlear's slip.

Do Your Feet Ache and Burn? Shake into your shoes Allen's Foot-Ease, a powder for the feet. It makes tight or New Shoes feel Easy. Cures Corns, Bunions, Swollen, Hot and Sweating Feet. At all Druggists and Shoe Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address Allen S. Olmsted, LeRoy, N. Y.

Something Worth striving For. Chicago Times Herald: "What." asked the lady who believes in the eternal rights of women, as she set down the glass from which she had moistened her throat, and looked defiantly at her hearers, "What has the little girl to look forward to in this country? What possible glory is there to fire her with ambition? The poorest boy that is born in our land today," she shouted, shaking a fat forefinger at a baldheaded man who sat near the stage and looked as if be was sorry that ne had come, "may aspire to an office which carries with it more power than is wielded by any prince or king or emperor on earth. There is something for him to live for, to strive for. There is always the glorious incentive that makes for greatness. However humble his surroundings, there is the ever present possibility that he may some day stand in the fierce white light of publicity with the destiny of the nation in his hands.

"But for the fair haired girl who plays with him, what glorious hope is there? What dreams of future greatness are there for her to dream? What does the future hold for her, that she should consecrate herself to the achievement of the sublime? Degraded at the very threshold of life, what aspirations may find lodgement in her

She paused for breath, and also to permit the ladies present to applaud her eloquence.

"I repeat," she shouted, after the storm of approval had died away, "what glory does the future hold for

"Well," said the baldheaded man, "she might strive to become worthy of one of those cornhusk bonnets that the Kansas people are giving away." The meeting tnen broke up in con-

An apparatus has been devised for automatically photographing people as they enter shops and other places.

Ther your liver isn't acting well. Yo i suffer from biliousness, constipation. Ayer's Pills act directly on the liver. For 60 years the Standard Family Pill. Small doses cure. 25c. All druggists.

Want your moustache or beard a beautiful rown or rich black? Then use BUCKINGHAM'S DYE Whiskers change, to be sure!"

Julienne?"

July evening.

seem to be a soul about."

took up the wine card and lazily studied the long list-"to think that the last time I was here, twenty years ago, Andrew Gillibrand was brewing his own ale! It was certainly a primitive bill of fare that he had to offer

Then he turned and looked out of the change was not so remarkable.

The "Royal George" had always possessed a lovely garden; and, if the grass was shorn a little closer, if the paths had a neater appearance and the marigolds and pinks, the change was quaint old clumps of sweet-williams, the county.

rees unoccupied, and, excepting for of a butterfly.

half aloud; and, just as the words left | neath the shade of the trees.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 & $3.50 SHOES UNION MADE.

S Get Your Pension DOUBLE QUICK

W. L. DOUGLAS SHOE CO., Brockton, Mass.

Write CAPT. O'FARRELL, Pension Agent, 1425 New York Avenue, WASHINGTON, D. C. DENSIONS Spanish and Civil Wars. Soldiers, Sailors, Widows, Children, Fathers and Mothers. No fee unless successful. E. H. GELSTON CO., Atterneys, Washington, D. C. DENSION Washington, D. C. Successfully Prosecutes Claims.

3 yrs in civil war, 15 adjudicating claims, atty since.

ORMAN wanted to travel and appoint agents. 860 per month salary and all expenses. Ziegler Co. 718 Monon Bidg. Chicago

If afflicted with Thompson's Eye Water.

That Mysterious Major...

ETHEL A. SOUTHAM * * * * * * * * * * * *

CHAPTER I.

The rambling, old-fashioned hostelry of the "Royal George" had stood upon the green hillside overlooking the now fashionable watering-place of Saltcliffe from the time when that picturesque and prosperous town consisted of little more than a few fishermen's huts and small lodging houses. But, though hotels and boarding houses-magnificent | face. structures which gave quite an appearance of superiority to the small town -had sprung up on all sides, the little hostelry itself still held its own. Indeed the "Royal George," though quite as retired, was still as preposterous as it had been forty years before, when the huge board upon which the monarch after whom it was named was displayed, looking as gorgeous and kinglike as his crown and unlimited quantity of somewhat stiff-looking ermine could make him, hung out over the narrow little doorway, with the name of the worthy proprietor, "Andrew Gillibrand," set out in gilded letters below. And, as one stood in the lovely quaint old garden and gazed around at the stretches of down and the heathergrown cliffs beyond, one could hardly elieve the changes which had been fected scarcely a mile away.

It was late one evening toward the ed of July when a stranger who had ist arrived sauntered leisurely into 1e large dining room of the "Royal George" and gave orders for dinner to be prepared for him immediately.

He was a tall, dark, striking-looking man, with a soldierly bearing and decidedly distinguished air; and, as he crossed over toward the bay-window and sat down at a small table the waiters paused involuntarily with their white table napkins slung over their arms and trays of jingling glass held up high above their heads, while Josiah Williamson, under whose charge that particular table happened to be placed, mentally decided that he was in for a little luck at last.

"What will you have, sir?" he began, with an air of expectation-

THERE WAS A MOST BEWITCHING SMILE UTON HER LIPS WHEN SHE REPLIED TO SOME REMARK OF HER COMPANION.

"coupe a la Reine, Bouillabaisse or | ard. They have been here more than

"Bring me anything you have ready," | remain for a month when they come.

said the stranger, brusquely. "Yet to I don't suppose they will be going till think." he murmured to himself as he the end of that time. Her ladyship is his customers then-only ham and egg3 | Oh, yes-of course I have! He was one or bread and cheese and a pint of his of the largest land-owners in Blank-prime October; today he has all the shire. Who has inherited the prop-the open window. There, however, They say she will have something like flowers were more recherche, prim of the black poodle Miss Luttrell of rows of calceolarias, geraniums and the far-famed Luttrell court and stately dahlias taking the place of the owner of one of the finest estates in delicacies of the season. How things | erty? Had he a son?"

his lips, as though to disprove the truth of them, a handsome black French poodle came trotting into the middle of the room with an air of unruffled composure decidedly at variance with the aspect of his mistress, who a moment later suddenly ap-

"You bad dog, Sambo! I was just wondering if you could have found your way here. Could you give him a bone, Henry?"

But here her care of Master Sambo was unceremoniously cut short, as, raising her head, she suddenly encoungray eyes, and for the first time became aware of the presence of a stranger in the room.

As for the owner of the gray eyes, he carefully surveyed the figure in the doorway for the space of about three seconds longer, and then, looking away, tried to become absorbed in the merits of Mr. Andrew Gillibrand's wine

But, after studying it intently for five minutes, he tossed the card aside and steadily regarded the doorway through which the fantastically clipped poodle and its mistress had just disappeared.

"By the bye, who is she?" There was something strangely inconceivable in the question, and the waiter, who had made his appearance otherwise unremarkable face. with the first course, paused to stare in astonishment.

"She, sir?" he repeated. "I beg your pardon, what she?"

"Oh, the young lady with the dog! Surely you know whom I mean!"

"The young lady with the dog? Ahthat is Miss Evelyn! Oh, yes, sir-of course I know Miss Luttrell"-here a placid smile expanded the waiter's face -"and a very nice young lady she is." "She is staying here, I suppose?" There was commendable indifference in the speaker's tones.

"Yes, sir-with her aunt, Lady How-a fortnight now; as they generally do

"Ah-she is an orphan, then?"

doubt have heard tell of him."

"Yes, sir. 'Squire Luttrell died just

"Luttrell of Luttrell, do you mean?

"No; Evelyn is the only child, and "Really!"-and the speaker turned to the contemplation of the Julienne soup, considerably astonished at dis-has come in for everything, I believe.

ten or twelve thousand a year."

about two years ago. You will no

Miss Luttrell's guardian."

She was not alone, however, In close attendance this time was a man in evening dress, who had seated himself by her side on a straight ironbacked form, which he had evidently chosen in preference to a more luxurious seat half a yard farther away.

Yes; at a second glance he came to the conclusion that Miss Luttrell was even prettier than he had imagined her to be at first. There was nothing statuesque about her beauty, nothing absolutely perfect in her features; but the face before him was one which, once seen, could never be forgotten.

CHAPTER II.

There was a most bewitching smile upon her lips now as she laughingly replied to some remark of her companion, who was leaning forward swinging his stick backward and forward and trying to knock off the head; of some daisies; but his head was peared in the open doorway with a turned toward the girl besile him, at rather bewildered expression upon her | whom he was gazing in rapt atten-

"Who is the fellow," murmured the stranger, as he put up his eye-glass and surveyed the individual in question with an air of curiosity not unmingled with envy. "Her brother? Fiddlesticks! More likely her father!" with a shrug of his shoulders, though tered the gaze of a pair of amused an unmistakable cloud gathered upon his face as he noted the unpaternal manner in which he had laid his hand on the back of her chair and was listening to her words. "I can always come within a year or two of anybody's age, and that fellow is either 44 or 45 if he is a day!"

The man to whom the stranger at the window set down so decidedy to play the unromantic part of parent had the word "Bachelor" written upon every line of his countenance. At the same time he was a noticeable-looking personage, gentlemanly in appearance rather than handsome, with a cleanshaven face, clearly cut features and dark, almost fascinatingly determined eyes set deep beneath overhanging brows which gave character to an

For the past few minutes, however, the spreading branches of the trees had thrown everything into shade. But the sun was setting in a crimson glory, and one golden shaft strayed beneath the dark, heavy foliage, where it lingered for a few seconds to bring out the lovely blending of tints in the girl's nut-brown hair and to light up every feature of the man by her side

"The deuce!" broke involuntarily from the stranger's lips. "Yes, sir-beg your pardon, sir! Cheddar cheese or Stilton?" The waiter was engaged brushing crumbs from the next table, but in an instant he was at his post.

"Neither!" was the brusque reply. 'But"-with a detaining gesture-"have you such a thing as a visitors" list? If you have, let me see it." "Certainly, sir. I will bring it at

And the waiter smiled to himself as he followed the direction of the stranger's eyes and then turned away. It was astonishing what an amount of interest he could raise by the mere mention of Miss Luttrell and her ten or twelve thousand a year!

(To be continued.)

OLD WINE.

May Become Too Old and Unfit to Drink

by Deterioration. New Orleans Times-Democrat: 'There is such a thing as a wine being too old," said a member of the board of trade, chatting with some friends in the front offices. "I had that illustrated at my house the other day under rather interesting circumstances. Back in 1848 Gen. John M. Lewis, who was then sheriff and afterward mayor of New Orleans, gave my uncle a basket of four-year-old champagne. My uncle afterward moved north, taking that and other wines with him, and on his death, in the early sixties, the basket was still intact. There had possibly been some agreement about opening it at a certain time, and, at any rate, the champagne remained in the family cellar untouched, and only last month my cousin, now in New York, broke the lot and sent me down four bottles. I was naturally curious to know how the old wine would look d taste, and a few days ago, on the o asion of a little anniversary at our house, I opened one of the bottles. I had considerable difficulty in removing the cork without breaking it, but it finally gave way. There was not a vestige of pop and the wine ran out perfectly dead and limpid. It was pale amber in color and had a faint, pleasant bouquet, but the imprisoned gas that had once given it life and sparkle were gone forever. It was interesting as a relic, but not fit to drink, and some friends who are connoisseurs said that it had evidently covering in the curly headed mistress about that time."

He had almost finished his dinner not so great as to strike him with the and was quietly contemplating a anecdote of this energetic and practical | the subscription plan. same force as naturally did the inte- peaceful stroll round the ground with woman. One night, away out in the one of his best Havanas, when a sharp hills, I asked a Third cavalryman: This evening the garden had a very | bark made him look up just in time to Whom do you think the greatest hero serene, unruffled air. The tennis courts | behold the black poodle once more, of the war at Santiago: He changed were deserted, the chairs under the dashing across the lawn in hot pursuit his quid, took out of his mouth an old corn-cob pipe, looked away at the red the gentle lapping of the waves upon | In and instant he was all interest. rim of hills which the sun was colorthe shingly beach, scarcely a sound If the dog were there, his mistress ing, and reflectively replied: "Well, disturbed the dreamy stillness of the | would not be far away; and even as pardner, ef you want to know, my the thought passed through his mind ideas is thet thet there little old lady, "It is an idyllic place, I suppose," | the same laughing tones which had named Miss Bartoum, or Battom, or mused the stranger, "but it would been ringing in his ears for the past Blartom, or whatever is ber nam :drive me mad if I thought I had to half-hour were borne distinctly toward she's the best of all. She is a strictly stay here a moment longer than him. Bending forward, he saw the proper character, neighbor. I seen her twenty-four hours. There does not girl herself, a slight, graceful figure, a-goin' through two feet six inches o' leaning back in one of the low bamboo | mud to tie up a chap as was bleedin' His closing sentence was spoken chairs which stood so invitingly be- to death. She, comrade, is to my ideas the hero o' this yer campaign."

No Gold Statues Wanted

The United States commissioner to the Paris exposition desires the fact officially stated that no such undignified production as a life-sized gold statue of a woman will be permitted in the Paris exposition grounds, either as an exhibit or a concession. It is proposed to maintain the dignity of the United States exhibit, and not to encourage or permit advertising which would reflect discredit upon the nation.

Redlands, Cal., has a giant mowing machine, which cuts a strip of wheat fifty feet wide.

Oklahoma.

Its wonderful resources and superior advantages to homeseekers are set forth in a handsome illustrated pamphlet just issued by the Frisco Line Passenger Department. Copy will be mailed free on application to Bryan Snyder, General Passenger Agent, St. Louis, Mo.

Patents Sold.

The United States Patent Office records show that 141 patentees who received patents this week had sold either a part or (0) the entire interest in their inventions. This means NB C that 32 per cent of the inventors have been successful in selling their inventions. Amongst the prominent manufacturers who bought these inventions are the American Shoe Machinery Co., Portland, Me.

The Gorham Manufacturing Co. Providence, R. I. Brown & Sharpe Manufacturing Co.

Providence, R. I. Winchester Repeating Arms Co. New Haven, Conn.

Western Electric Co., of Chicago. Scoville Manufacturing Co., Waterbury, Conn.

American Electric Vehicle Co., Chi-

Bethlehem Iron Co., South Bethlehem, Pa. Inventors desiring free information as to the law and practice of patents | my life."-Miss A. P., Box 21 Abbott, may obtain the same in addressing Sues & Co., Registered Patent Attorneys, Omaha, Neb.

Locomotive Runs.

Baltimore and Ohio railroad has materially extended the runs of the passenger locomotives on through trains, Formerly engines were changed on an proved successful and reduced the number of locomotives formerly required by twenty-four, which can be used in other branches of the service and save the purchase of more motive power. Under the new plan, locomotives are double crewed and make from 7,000 to 8,000 miles a month, as against 3,500 to 4,000 under the former method.

The best qualified to judge reckon that the fortune left by A. T. Stewart, which he left to the care of the late Judge Hilton, amounted to about $40,-000,000. Mrs. Stewart survived her husband ten years, and the great Stewart fortune survived her ten years. In 1876 Stewart died; in 1886 Mrs. Stewart died, and in 1896 the last of the visible Stewart millions disappeared in the wreck of Hilton, Hughes & Co.

We will forfeit $1,000 if any of our published testimonials are proven to be not genuine. The Piso Co., Warren, Pa.

A pun is merely a play on words but it's hard work to understand some of them. A Perfect Cathartic.

Not violently emptying the bowels or cleaning b zently stimulating, toning, strengthening the late tinal wail—Ca_carets Candy Cathartic, 10c, 25c, 50

It's the easiest thing in the world to forgive an enemy who is large enough to command your respect. $118 buys new upright plano. Schmoller & Mueller, 1313 Farnam St., Omaha.

The military household of the czar is composed of ninety-eight officers of various ranks, eighty-three of whom belong to the army and fifteen to the navy. Nineteen members of the royal family are included in this list.

Iowa Inventions.

Fifteen patents were issued to lowa tive principles of plants known to be inventors this week as follows: To medicinally laxative and presenting A. W. Lewis of Keota, for a vehicle them in the form most refreshing to the attachment; to J. James of Atlantic, for a draft-equalizer; to W. Loudon of Fairfield, for a hay-carrier; to J. W. Macy of Searsboro, for a road-grader; to A. W. and T. E. Morgan of Burlington, for a wire fence stay; to J. H. Morris of Maquoketa, for a cream separator; to C. F. Nelson of Exira, fo? a boot and shoe cleaner; to C. O. Haven liver and bowels, without weakening and P. P. Uhrig of Fort Madison, for or irritating them, make it the ideal a harrow; to H. Phillips and W. Hunt laxative. of Ottumwa, for a car-loader; to H. B. Porter of Hartwick, for a hat and clothes rack; to E. L. Rigg of Griswold, for a steam generating appliance: to H. Tuttle of Cedar Rapids. two for a bicycle; to C. H. Van been deteriorating since 1870. It's a Alstyne of Manchester, for a barrel great pity my northern relatives held | heater and feed cooker, and to S. Adit in too much veneration to sample it son of Springwater, for a collar clasp. A copyright has been granted to Rev. A. C. Smith of Des Moines for a new book entitled "Gathered Gems of new book entitled "Gathered Gems of LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N. Y. Literature." The work is in the hands For sale by all Drupgists - Price 50c, per bottle. Rev. Peter McQueen writes to of a printer in Chicago and will be Frank Leslie's Monthly the following | handsomely illustrated and sold upon > Consultation and advice about securing property rights for inventions and literary work given free to inquirers. THOMAS G. ORWIG & CO., Registered Attorneys.

Des Moines, Ia., Sept. 2, 1899.

The population of the South African Republic consists of 63,000 Boers, 87,-000 other whites called Uitlanders, and 600,000 kaffirs and ulus.

In Manitoba there are 2,500,000 acres under crops, of which 1,600,000 are in wheat.

chiefs of the Wisconsin Winnebago Indians, died in the town of Brockway, aged 20 years. Black Hawk has been well known in the western part of Wisconsin for the last fifty years, was always a friend of the whites and on several occasions prevented the Winnebagos from taking the war path against the palefaces. It is estimated that the consumption

Back Hawk, the most noted of the of beer in the entire world amounts to $1,080,000,000 per annum.

In life we count upon the uncertain, but the inevitable always surprises us.

Mrs. Barnard Thanks MRS. PINKHAM FOR HEALTH.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 18,992] "DEAR FRIEND-I feel it my duty to express my gratitude and thanks to you for what your medicine has done for me. I was very miscrable and losing flesh very fast, had bladder trouble, fluttering pains about the heart and would get so dizzy and suffered with painful menstruation. I was reading in a paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I wrote to you and after taking two bottles I felt like a new person. Your Vegetable Compound has entirely cured me and I cannot praise it enough,"-Mrs, J. O. BARNARD, MILLTOWN, WASHINGTON CO., ME.

An Iowa Woman's Convincing Statement.

"I tried three doctors, and the last one said nothing but an operation would help me. My trouble was profuse flowing; sometimes I would think I would flow to death. I was so weak that the least work would tire me. Reading of so many being cured by your medicine, I made up my mind to write to you for advice, and I am so glad that I did. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills and followed 'our directions, and am now well and strong. I shall recommend your medicine to all, for it saved lowA.

The government is paying from $200 to $500 a day for each vessel carrying horses, supplies and army baggage to During the past few months, the the Philippines, and $1,000 a day for each vessel that carries troops.

Are You Using Allen's Foot-Ease? It is the only cure for Swollen, average every 100 or 150 miles. It was Smarting, Burning, Sweating Feet, thought that the mountain grades of Corns and Bunions. Ask for Allen's the Baltimore and Ohio railroad would | Foot-Ease, a powder to be shaken into prevent an extension of the runs. How- the shoes. At all Druggists and Shoe ever, the experiment was made. It has Stores, 25c. Sample sent FREE. Address Allen S. Olmsted, Lelloy, N. Y.

> Unlike Some Other Occupations-Golfer-"Don't you ever get tired of farming?" The Farmer-"Taint no use gettin' tired of it, young man. Farmin' ain't no fad!"-Puck.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. For children teething, soften the gums, reduces for Samunation, allays pain, cures wind colle. 25c a bottle.

The man who succeeds in forging his way to the front is in a position to be trmpied on by the mob if he Hall's Catarrh Core Is taken internally. Price, 75c.

About the hardest thing for the amateur farmer to raise is the money to run the farm.

An Excellent Combination.

The pleasant method and beneficial effects of the well known remedy, SYRUP OF FIGS, manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co., illustrate the value of obtaining the liquid laxataste and acceptable to the system. It is the one perfect strengthening laxative, cleansing the system effectually, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers gently yet promptly and enabling one to overcome habitual constipation permanently. Its perfect freedom from every objectionable quality and substance, and its acting on the kidneys,

In the process of manufacturing figs are used, as they are pleasant to the taste, but the medicinal qualities of the remedy are obtained from senna and other aromatic plants, by a method known to the California Fig Syrup Co. only. In order to get its beneficial effects and to avoid imitations, please remember the full name of the Company printed on the front of every package. CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.

Tabteb'e Bull anieroina Too Good and Too Cheap to Be Without It.

Kodaks, Cameras and Photo Supplies Cata-log free. Huteson, 1539 Donglas street, Omaha.

No. 37-1899

W. N. U. OMAHA.

GUNS AND AMMUNITION at Wholesate Prices to Everybody. Our Large Gun Catalogue containing 96 pages, size 9½x12¼ inches, will be sent postage paid on receipt of three cents to any one returning this ad and mentioning this paper. We can save you BIG dollars on Gins. Write at once T. M. ROBERTS' SUPPLY HOUSE, MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

Clara Barton in Cuba.