BARTLEY.

S. C. Wolf told his troubles to the authorities in McCook, last Saturday. Miss Gertrude Ransom returned, Sunday on 12, from a brief visit in McCook. Dr. J. E. Hathorn went down to Omaha, Tuesday night, on professional business. Henry McKean went up to McCook, Tuesday evening, where he took No. 6 for Omaha. L. Lyman departed, Monday morning, on an extended visit to the old home in West Virginia. Guy Curlee and E. O. Scott of the west end metropolis were guests of friends here over Sunday. W. H. Wadsworth of Indianola and John Clouse have purchased W. E. Rollings' implement business. Clouse will be in charge. Blacksmith Haining filed his bond as village marshal, last Saturday, and a ray of hope for peace in larger quantities comes through the war clouds. The next county clerk, who draws mail addressed to Sam Clark, attended the meeting of the Republican county central committee and the judicial nominating convention in the seat of county affairs, Wednesday. The wise men who run the town have decided to enforce the ordinance concerning vehicles on the sidewalks, and automobiles, trolley cars, bicycles and the mail cart have been relegated to the streets and alleys. Perambulators, however, still have the right of way.

Lute Bush got funny, Saturday morning of last week, and entertained himself for awhile by taking divers and sundry smashes and kicks at the anatomy of Silas Wolf. His sensitive nature had been jarred by the protests of Silas against his turning the restaurant inside out and he adopted this method of resentment. A warrant was sworn out for his arrest and when he heard Sheriff Neel was in town he left such a hot trail through the cornfields to the southeast that the smoke hovered over it for two hours. The warrant is waiting for him to return.

Joe McKinzie is whiling away time in the county jail waiting for the next term of district court, when he will draw his reward for attempting to take the life of George Wheeler, Friday morning of last week. While the victim was sleeping, McKinzie entered his room and made a murderous attack on him, using a chair for a weapon. His scalp was laid open, and the fact that the blow did not land squarely alone prevented his skull being crushed. Though stunned by the blow and blinded by blood, Wheeler grappled with his assailant and the struggle continued until Milan Beeson, who occupies the same house, separated them. McKinzie is a worthless cuss who should have been hung years ago to make room for a better man, and he will probably get a term in the penitentiary now, which will relieve his wife of his support. Wheeler is a harmless fellow who has been boarding at McKinzie's, and the latter claims jealousy prompted his action. Neighbors refuse to credit his story of his wife's unfaithfulness, however.

BOX ELDER.

Wm. Doyle has finished another large barn, Sam McClain doing the work. What was known as the Knight farm has been purchased by Ira Kimball. There was preaching at Box Elder Sunday by Rev. Robinson, our new pastor. John White made a purchase of some blooded pigs at Indianola last Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. James Robinson and family visited friends in Frontier county this week. Miss Mollie Stephens visited Saturday and Sunday in Bartley, the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. P. Hodgkin. James Doyle has returned from Lincoln county, where he has been selling pantries. He reports crops very poor in that locality. Dan Doyle and a party of neighbors enjoyed a coon hunt up and down the Willow last week, killing some eight coons and several skunks. Mr. and Mrs. John White, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schooner, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schooner are taking in the sights at Omaha, this week.

Box Elder correspondent did not go with the circus, as some are so curious to know what has become of him. Took a vacation, that's all. By the way it takes a circus to draw Box Elder folks to town. It has been positively learned by friends at Box Elder that the report of the death of Rev. E. J. Vivian in California, is not so. He is there, however, at the hospital in a very serious condition. It is hoped by all that his wife may be able to reach him yet.

For wounds, burns, scalds, sores, skin diseases and all irritating eruptions, nothing so soothing and healing as DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Mrs. Emma Bolles, Matron Englewood Nursery, Chicago, says of it: "When all else fails in healing our babies, it will cure." D. W. Loar.

INDIANOLA.

S. R. Smith and wife were visitors to the city on the west, Monday. Miss Jennie McClung is taking in the carnival at Denver, this week. Legal business called S. R. Smith to the county seat, Thursday. A. L. Haley's application for license at Danbury was not allowed. Bernard Skolla was a delegate to the Republican judicial convention in the county seat, Wednesday. John F. Helm of Redwillow and Charles Carmichael of the Beaver are the proprietors of the new meat market, just recently opened up in our town. It is rumored that our newspaper colonel, Jasper Phillips, will soon remove from our town, and that Mr. Happersett will have charge of the Reporter. The way the Populists rustled around, during fair week, would indicate that they are not so cock-sure about being elected as they have been in the past. It should stimulate the Republicans of the county to put up a winning fight. There is a growing feeling here among Republicans that this is the time to give the Republican ticket the loyal support it deserves in this county, and it is hoped to quite largely increase the Republican vote in this precinct, this fall, for the county ticket, as well as for the state ticket.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers permanently cure chronic constipation, biliousness, nervousness and worn out feeling; cleanse and regulate the entire system. Small, pleasant, never gripe or sicken—"famous little pills." D. W. Loar.
