THE treasury receipts continue to pile up in excess of the treasury expenditures, despite the Democratic assertion that the Dingley law was a failure and could not meet the ordinary running expenses of the government.

JUDGE BISHOP has attended to the business of the office of county judge carefully, faithfully and efficiently. He is qualified in law and judgment and character for that position, and the voters of Red Willow should take no chances, should make no common error, but should elect him by a generous plurality.

AFTER making a few playful feints at the Fusion county ticket, and making a few brief visits to McCook, the terrible, Colonel Phillips makes bold to divulge his "real" feeling in the matter: "We candidly admit that we like the Pop crowd the best and would be tempted to vote most of the ticket were we in Red Willow county election day."

MORE railroads are being built in the United States, more business is being transacted on those already in existence, more manufacturing is in progress, more exportation of manufactures is being done and more general prosperity and less failures are reported than ever before in the history of the country, a condition which augurs ill for the Democratic campaign in 1899 and 1900.

THE Fusion forces up in Frontier county seem to be in a "hard row for stamps" as Colonel Phillips of the Indiana Reporter eloquently states it. "We have the confidential evidence of one of the Fusion nominees across the county line, that secret methods are being used, reminding us all unpleasantly of the palmy days of the Farmer's Alliance. And this reminds us that the eagle is the Republican emblem and not the bat."

THE record of Judge Reese, the Republican nominee for supreme judge, is so uniformly clean and straight and consistent as to unqualifiedly recommended him to the thoughtful voter. His business is the law—he is a lawyer who has reflected honor upon the profession and who graced the supreme bench in years gone by. He will bring to the supreme court an honorable career and a ripe knowledge and judgment. Vote for Reese.

LOYAL and consistent Democrats, and there are millions of them, must blush for their party and the reputation which its would-be leaders are making for it when they read Aguinalo's latest manifesto, in which he says that "In America there is a great party that insists upon the government's recognizing Filipino independence, and we should pray God that the great Democratic party shall win at the next election, and imperialism fail in its mad attempt to subjugate us by force of arms."

THE only fault that Colonel Phillips can find with the Fusion county ticket is, "That they are generous to a fault." It can easily be recalled when these generous gentlemen, like the Republican nominees now, were not so well provided with the where-withal with which to be over liberal. It is easier to give with generous impulse upon a comfortable salary. Every Republican nominee would do as well were the situation reversed. Try them! They are all right, although Jasper doesn't love them so dearly as he does the Pop nominees.

THE Republican nominee for county superintendent, Mrs. M. J. Cordeal, is a teacher of almost twenty years of actual, practical experience. Her experience is as varied as it is long and honorable and fruitful. She has taught in high schools and primary schools. Both city and country schools have had the advantage of her professional skill and genius as a teacher. Entering the school-room when but a mere girl with a first-class certificate, she has been in the fore front of progress in school matters, keeping fully abreast the times in the latest, up-to-date methods and systems of the highest and approved educational authorities. She knows the requirements and needs of public schools, both city and country, and it will be her very highest joy to meet them and improve them, if elected to the office of county superintendent. Vote for her.

IN THE INTEREST OF TRUTH.

To Whom It May Concern:

From what was said in the late Populist judicial convention by a prominent candidate, and from several things that have since appeared in the Beaver City Times, it is evident that some of the would-be Populist leaders of Beaver City intend to charge Norris personally with fraud in obtaining the office which he now holds. While I firmly believe that I was fairly elected, four years ago, and that the office was wrongfully taken from me, yet I am equally confident that he honestly believed that he was elected and that he took no part in the commission of the crime and fraud that I believe was committed.

I am a Populist and am supporting the Populist ticket, but my loyalty to my party does not go so far nor to such an extent that I will assist in imputing a crime to one whom I believe to be innocent, especially when such charges are put into circulation by those whose own conduct in this matter is very suspicious, and who are anxious to divert the public eye from their own fraudulent actions by following on the heels of honest persons and yelling, "Stop, thief!"

AFTER the election Mr. Holcomb will be uncertain whether there is a "God in Israel" or not, when he crawls out of the snowbank.

D. A. WATERMAN of Lebanon has an enviable standing among his neighbors in the First commissioner district, and will make a heroic effort to overcome the Fusion plurality in the First.

It will not be easy to convince the ob-serving and thoughtful Populist that the resignation of Miller from the Fusion judicial ticket was innocent of any "deal." The ear-marks seem to be too plain.

WAGE-EARNERS appear satisfied with dollars worth one hundred cents each. At the recent meeting of the Illinois State Federation of Labor a silver plank to their platform was proposed but deliberately rejected.

THIS is Republican year. Republican sentiment is everywhere thriving and growing. It's irresistible. These are Republican times—when every man can have a job at good wage. Stand by the administration by voting the Republican ticket straight—county, judicial and state.

FRED KINGHORN's friends will be in evidence on November 7th, when the votes are to be cast for sheriff and other offices. Put a pin here. A majority of the people of Red Willow county are going to vote, this fall, as Fred shot during his Philippine service; which means a victory all along the line.

THE Republicans of Red Willow county are before the people with a ticket honestly, honorably and freely nominated, composed of capable and clean nominees. They have no apologies to offer. There is no need of any. On the contrary they can and do confidently ask the votes of the people for candidates in whom they can rely for good and honest service.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY showed very clearly in his recent speech at Minneapolis that expansion found as many opponents and as much severe criticism when the Louisiana territory was acquired and the Alaska purchase made as it does today, yet everybody now concedes that both of those purchases were extremely wise and extremely advantageous in the results to the union and the people affected.

OUR Fusion friends are trying the dangerous experiment of "swapping horses in the middle of the stream," in this judicial campaign, and will reap the usual harvest. The people have found Judge G. W. Norris a dependable judge; they feel that their interests and rights are fully guarded by him and they will not be found swapping at all, this fall, in the important office of district judge, but will let "good enough" alone by returning Judge Norris to the bench he has filled so wisely and justly and ably during the past four years.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY is maintaining a high position among the greatest speakers of the land in his western "swing around the circle." We clip the following gem from his Cedar Falls, Iowa, address: "I believe, my fellow citizens, that this territory came to us in the providence of God. We did not seek it. It is ours, with all the responsibilities that belong to it; and as a great, strong, brave nation we mean to meet them and we mean to carry our education and our civilization there. I am not one of those who would take a laurel from the brow of the American soldier or a jewel from the crown of American achievement."

J. H. Relph was taking in the town of Traer, Kansas, Saturday... Charles and Laveta Olmsted are husking corn for Steve Pierce near Cedar Bluffs... Quite a number of cattle are being wintered and fed along the Beaver, and the indications are that the farmers will get a fair price for their surplus corn... The rock has been hauled for the new school house... The Republicans of Grant precinct held their caucus at the school house, Monday night, and nominated their precinct officers... W. H. Benjamin was a Traer, Kansas, visitor, Monday... F. M. Kennedy of Valley Grange and Samuel Ellis of Gervoy were in this precinct, first of the week, in the interest of free silver... While some small grain has been sown, the acreage will not be as large as usual on account of the dry weather.

LEBANON.

D. A. Waterman, our next county commissioner, drove over to hear the Fighting Chaplain in the county seat, Monday. He reports one of the best speeches he has heard in a long while... Zetta M. McCart of this place and William Dimmitt of Danbury are the latest in this section to enter the realm of matrimony... The Republican county ticket is O. K. from top to bottom. Vote it straight... Go up to Danbury, Wednesday evening, October 25th, to hear Hon. E. A. Tucker of Tecumseh set forth Republican doctrine. He is a most convincing and logical talker. You will hear nothing of his equal in this campaign.

He sells cheap soap; the sale, once made,
 Brings larger profits for to-day.
 The soap, when used, offends his trade,
 Which deals, henceforth, "across the way"—
 Both purchaser and seller lose;
 But Ivory Soap makes steadfast friends;
 'Tis best to sell, and best to use,
 And brings best profits in the end.

A WORD OF WARNING—There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory';" they ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.
