McCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 24, 1899.

NUMBER 28

Resolutions of Condolence.

Whereas, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to send His angel of death to call home the spirit of Acil Thomas, son of our beloved sister, Mrs Kate I. Dutton, therefore be it

Resolved, That we, as sisters of the Ladies Circle No. 33, extend our heartfelt sympathy in their bereavement; that we invoke the Divine Blessing in their behalf of Him who doeth all things

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our records, a copy brook, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. be sent to Sister Dutton, and a copy be J. R. Predmore. provided each of the local papers.

Whereas, It has pleased our Heavenly Kansas, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Father to call away the spirit of W. M. Irwin, husband of our beloved sister, Mrs. L. E. Irwin, therefore be it Resolved, That in the death of Mr. Irwin, we lose one of our esteemed brothers, his wife a kind husband, his children an affectionate father.

Resolved, That we, as sisters of the Ladies Circle No. 33, extend Sister Irwin and family our deepest sympathy in their sorrow and loss, and commend them to the blessing of the All-loving and All-wise Father,

Resolved further, That these resolutions be made a part of our records, that a copy be sent to Sister Irwin, and that each of the local newspapers be furnished copies of the same. Signed by the committee:

MRS. ADELINE DOLE. MRS. FRANK CAMPBELL. MISS BLANCHE STARR.

A number of the merchants of the moved into the old Robb residence city complain that the sign boards erect- south of the Congregational church pared by them at various places throughout | sonage the county have been defaced and destroyed and they desire to call attention to the following law relating to the de struction of property: "If any person shall wilfully and maliciously injure or destroy to any amount less than one hundred dollars, any personal property of any description whatsoever, or any building or other structure of any kind, owned by any other person, every person so offending shall be imprisoned in the jail of the proper county not exceeding thirty days and amount of the damage of the property daughter in Anaheim, Calif.

A Just Complaint.

injured or destroyed.' They have expended sums in procuring and placing these signs and if the destruction continues, they intend to for Lincoln, on a week's visit to her combine for the purpose of taking steps parents, Treasurer and Mrs. Meserve. to discover and prosecute the guilty

Their Usual Success.

tional church, last Friday evening, residence here. closed another successful annual supper and bazaar. The gross receipts of the two evenings were close to $200 and the net proceeds were about $150. It is, perhaps, unnecessary to state that the ladies, in the numerous articles made and sold, the splended suppers served and the cut flowers purveyed to the public, abundantly earned their money. We congratulate them upon the success and a fine time, notwithstanding the achieved, even though achieved at so rainy weather and the muddy condition large an outlay of labor.

Milk, Butter and Eggs--

The farmers' winter resources. What would the world do without them? How to increase the supply? Pratt's Food and Animal Regulator-the best milk and egg producer known. Cows thrive, calves grow, pigs get fat, hens lay and periment, but certain success. Try it. McConnell & Berry.

On a Large Scale.

Mrs. C. H. Douglass has leased her 20-acre tract near the middle river bridge to Messrs. L. S. Watson, J. E. Sanborn and A. H. Tirrill, who will engage in the poultry business on a large scale, The lease is for a term of three years, and possession will be given on the first day afternoon. of the new year. A. H. Tirrill will be directly in charge.

Turkey Shooting Match.

Tuesday before Thanksgiving, at the D. J. Osburn ranch on the Willow. Fifty fine turkeys. Managed by Henry Smith and A. M. Osburn.

Smoke Your Meat

With Hickory Smoke Extract. No danger; no trouble; better than wood smoke. See McConnell & Berry.

Notice.

School orders and county road warrants bought at a light discount.

C. F. LEHN, McCook, Neb. Did it rain? Ask the weather man.

He told us it rained, and also that there was a cold wave coming. You can get storm sash at Bullard's. Use an Ideal food cutter in cutting up pies. Finest thing in the market for the purpose.

use McMillen's Cream Lotion.

MOVEMENTS OF THE PEOPLE.

W. C. BULGER is visiting in Hastings for a week or two.

W. H. MILLS is employed in W. S. Augustine's barber shop.

MRS. T. A. NASH has gone to Endicott, this state, this week, on a visit.

J. N. PURVIS of the postoffice lobby was bedfast, early part of the week, but is about again.

MRS. L. D. GOCKLEY is up from Hol-

L. J. Rittenhouse.

E. DeLong, this week. MISS STELLA L. ALLEN of Albion, Mich., has been the guest of Mrs. Ray P.

Vahue since last week. MRS. L. S. SAGE was up from Beatrice, early part of the week, guest of her sister, Mrs. W. S. Morlan. H. L. KENNEDY, who now makes his headquarters in Cambridge, was a city visitor on business, Tuesday.

WILL JAY of the State Journal's subscription department was with us briefly, Wednesday night, on his way west.

MICHAEL O'LEARY and family deexpecting to locate in that part of the on which he held a chattel mortgage,

MR. AND MRS. M. J. SMITH have

MISS NELLIE PLUMMER, who has been visiting in Eastern Nebraska for the past year, arrived home, last Saturday night on 3.

MRS. YERRICK of Trenton visited the family of W. W. McMillen, Monday between trains, while on her way home from a visit in Indiana.

EUGENE POHL and wife are now living in Santa Aua, Calif. Chris. Woerner shall morever be fined in double the and wife are living with a married tion," and he comes well recommended.

> MRS. F. M. KIMMELL and Master Schell departed, Wednesday morning,

JUDGE NORRIS was over from Beaver City, Thursday, and closed the purchase of the Frank Harris residence on upper The Dorcas society of the Congrega- Main street. He will shortly take up his

MRS. C. H. RANDALL of Prattsburg, New York, has been the guest of Mrs. C. F. Babcock, for a few weeks past. She will also visit Cambridge friends during her sojourn in the west.

MISS MAUD WOOD entertained the week. There was a large attendance are as follows:

MRS. C. A. DIXON went down to Lincoln, Wednesday morning, to attend a recital by the pupils of the musical department of the Wesleyan university, in which Miss Edna took a part, Wednesday evening.

MRS. L. L. WILLIAMS and Mrs. A. L. roosters crow where it is fed. No ex- Williams, mother and sister-in-law of Mrs. A. P. Bonnot, arrived in the city, consin, and will make her a visit of some length.

> REV. J. A. BADCON has been called to preach the funeral sermon over the remains of the late H. H. Calfee of Trenton, who died on Thursday of this week, and will be buried at Trenton on Satur-

C. F. LEHN has retired from the Chamberlain store, and will devote his Lulu Ayer, time for the present to his private busi- T. E. Huett, ness matters. He has been closely con- Arthur Sherrer, fined for the past twelve years, and a Mr. Eldrich, Jr. little rest and outside work will be beneficial to his health.

COURT HOUSE NEWS.

COUNTY COURT. Marriage licenses as follows have been ssued since last week's report: Michael Morosic and Anna Brahler, both of Indianola. Henry Cashen and Hannah Droll, both of this city.

Mayo W. Green and Lola Stilgebouer, both of Danbury.

DISTRICT COURT. E. E. Blake vs. M. A. Spaulding; exe-

Hew, secretary, for a premium list.

S. W. Neb. Educational Association.

The next session of the Southwestern Nebrsska Educational association will be held in Orleans, November 30th and December 1st and 2d. An elaborate programme has been arranged for.

Supt. A. I. Caviness of the McCook schools is on the programme for a paper on the "Introduction of Methods by Superintendents-(a) by Teachers Meeting; (b) by Grades." Principal W. R. Pate of the Danbury schools will present "Topical Outline."

Free entertainment will be provided all who enroll and pay the fee, 50 cents. Those desiring entertainment MUST MRS. MARY E. HAYNES of Augusta, write I. C. Gregory, Orleans, Nebraska, before November 28th.

In case 75 persons attend, a one and MRS. W. A. MITCHELL of Red Cloud one-third fare will be given. You pay has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. full fare going, taking agent's receipt for same; this receipt after being signed by the president of the association, will entitle you to return home at one-third the regular fare.

A Former Red Willow Countian. They are trying an interesting case in the district court of Platte county at Columbus, this week, in which P. E. McKillip, a former Red Willow countian, is the defendant in a damage action for $3,000, and a Polish woman by the name of Agnes Mastek, is plaintiff. It is claimed that McKillip, who is cashier of a bank at Humphrey, fired off a revolver several times, while driving away thirparted, Tuesday evening, for Lincoln, teen head of cattle and forty-eight hogs thus frightening the plaintiff so that a long and serious illness resulted. The defendant puts in a general denial. Many of the witnesses are Poles and a court interperter has to be used, which draws out the case considerably.

S. S. Hamill and Daughter. On Tuesday evening, November 28th, S. S. Hamill and daughter Minnie will give an entertainment in the Methodist church under auspices of the schools. The entertainment will consist of recitations and Shakesperean impersonations-embracing the humorous, pathetic and tragic. Mr. Hamill is the author of the "New Science of Elocu-The Chicago Times says: "Prof. Hamill is no ordinary elocutionist. He neither rants nor mouths, and "in the very torrent, tempest and whirlwind of passion begets a temperance that gives it smoothness." When he read "The Vagabonds" many a bronzed cheek was wet McCook Postoffice Figures.

The business of the McCook postoffice was well indicated by the report recently transmitted to the department covering the period from October 3d to November 6th, both inclusive, during which time, by governmental direction and instruction, a careful accounting was made of all mail matter originating at this "Awl-Os" on Tuesday evening of this office. The totals for the several classes

First-class matter, 409 pounds; secondclass, postage paid, 720 pounds, county free, 878 pounds; third and fourth-class, 290 pounds; government free, 1,028 pounds; equipment, 2,155 pounds; making a total of 5,480 pounds.

Starbuck-Lindstrom.

Gayer Starbuck and Miss Lindstrom, both of Omaha, were united in marriage in Omaha, Monday evening at nine o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents. Gayer is well known in our city, where Thursday night from Eau Claire, Wis- he formerly resided with his parents. He is now employed as a conductor on the Omaha street railway system. Miss Lindstrom is a daughter of Mail Clerk Lindstrom of the Pacific Junction-Mc-Cook run. They have our congratula-

Advertised Letters.

The following letters were advertised by the McCook postoffice on Nov. 17th: H. D. Carter, M. F. Lewis, Mrs. B. Quigley,

In calling for any of these letters, please say that they are advertised.

F. M. KIMMELL, Postmaster. Drew the Lucky Wad.

John C. Gammill will be clerk of the district court in Frontier county for the next four years. In the drawing of lots, the other day, he drew the lucky gun wad. Harry Roach was his opponent, and they each received 976 votes. Gammill is well known all over this senatorial district, and his numerous friends will join us in hearty congratulations.

Five Cents a Copy!

few sets left.

RAILROAD NEWS ITEMS.

Switchman G. A. Kelsey has resigned. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. E. E DeLong, Sunday.

elevated to extra conductor.

Conductor T. E. McCarl was in Hast ings, Sunday, between trains.

gone to Grand Island on a visit.

Walter Clark was up from Republican

City over Sunday visiting the folks. Robert Moore of the freight house force visited his folks in Franklin, Sun-

Just as we go to press we learn of the ence. death of F. W. Piersall's little child, this ductor Line temporarily vice Brakeman held in this city on Thursday, Friday point from Republican City, and is firing yet held by the Republican Valley Disout of here.

Herbert, brother of Harry and George Frey, has come to McCook to live with his brothers.

Oxford, Wednesday, returning on the following day. Elmer Engberg has gone to Chicago, to be away a week or two visiting while his hand heals.

Conductor L. E. Gilcrest made a flying them fresh. visit to the folks in Akron between trains, Sunday.

G. W. Bunting is building a dwelling house over on North Monroe street just south of John Steven's home. Supt. Campbell went east on No. 2,

Vednesday morning, in his private co

10, on business of the division. Brakeman A. H. Washburn returned home, Wednesday morning on 2, from a short lay-off and visit in Denver. F. L. Enlow, formerly agent at Bartley and later transferred to Longmont.

Colo., is now night operator at Oxford. Quite a party of railroad men indulged in a hunt near Bartley, Sunday. By the by, Bartley seems to be a popular hunt-

Brakeman J. J. Laughlin has been transferred to the Hastings-Oberlin been transferred to McCook on the main get two tons of Maitland coal for it.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. only survived a few hours. Mrs. Knox ever exhibited in this city. is rapidly recovering from her serious between trains, Wednesday, visiting the Western division boys briefly. He is braking out of Lincoln now on the Burlington.

Cook for a while until ballasting opera- supply of mllk at that point. tions are resumed. They have been working in the neighborhood of Republican City.

Asst. Supt. Frank Harris came down Denver, last night, on business connected with the sale of his North Main street residence to Judge Norris of Beaver City He returned to Denver on 2, today.

The man Stiles reported in last week's TRIBUNE as having been killed in an accident up on the Wyoming line was not L. B. Stiles, as some thought, but J. B. Stiles, a brakeman. He was killed at Sparta in a rear end collision.

L. S. Troy, superintendent of the Sixth division railway mail service, died at his home in Chicago, Saturday. He was between 50 and 60 years of age, and one of the oldest men in the railway mail service, starting as a mail clerk.

Machinist Knud Stangland had the and enjoy the social hour. misfortune to break one finger of his left hand, mash another and slightly cut the third, Tuesday afternoon, while doing some machine work on an engine frame. The frame fell on his hand, He was fortunate, however, and in a short time will be able to resume his place in the shops.

No. 6 was delayed until 4 o'clock, Sunday morning, in arriving at McCook, on account of an accident near Wray, Colout the water and steam and disabling car, laying the car out of commission That's the remarkably low price at also, making it necessary to transfer at the captain's office and liquidate. which we are closing out the remainder the mail to the baggage car. There was The dates of the coming chicken show of our Navy Portfolios, those superb about six tons of mail, which made the your meat for your next batch of mince are: December 14th, 15th and 16th. The pictures of our splendid and victorious transfer a pretty hard proposition and premium lists are now being printed navy. You can buy the entire series of engaged the attention of every available at this office, and will be ready for dis- twelve numbers for 50 cents. This is man-section men included. A new car To make your hands smooth and soft tribution in a day or two. See J. S. Le-less than half price, and they are only a had to be transferred again to the mail

Thanksgiving Day Football.

The B. & M. and Athletic Club foot ball teams will meet for the second time this fall at half past two o'clock, next Thursday afternoon, Thanksgiving day. Brakeman William Shinsel has been The B. & M. boys are making a great effort to get in condition to regain the laurels lost in the Labor day game, when the crimson of the Athletic Club triumphed over the yellow and black in Conductor O. R. Amick and wife have a score 5 to o. The goal line of the Athletics has not been crossed this year, but the beefy and muscular representatives of the Burlington promise to see that the oval pigskin is downed there in the coming game, and their opponents will offer a stubborn resistance. Go out and encourage your favorites with your pres-

The Chicken Show.

Readers of THE TRIBUNE should Brakeman W. A. Bryant is with Con- keep in mind the chicken show, to be and Saturday, December 14th, 15th and Walter Clark has been returned to this 16th. It will be one of the best shows trict Poultry association, and no chicken fancier can afford to miss it.

And in this connection, the management desires to thank the merchants of McCook most heartily for financial as Engineer G. W. Starks was up from sistance rendered.

Private Sale.

Having rented my farm, I will offer at private sale all my stock, farm implements etc., as follows:

28 head of cows and heifers-three of One registered Durham bull,

Several good brood mares. Together with all farm implements. BENJ. BAKER, Four miles east of McCook. Buy your drugs of Loar.

Self-basting roasters at S. M. Cochran | Stokes' grocery, McMillen is closing out remnants of wall paper at a bargain. FOR SALE-Five full-blood Bronze S. G. GOHEEN. James Dulaney, who has been firing the company's employ. A party of Omaha sportsmen were up on the Willow in the Bolles neighborhood, first of the week, hunting.

stationary in the house, has retired from

Lots of places a man can spend $10, branch run vice H. J. Hines, who has but Bullard's is the only place he can "Finer than silk," is the verdict of all who see those sewing machines at S. M. line. Richard Knox, Saturday morning, but Cochran & Co.'s. They are the finest The Beatrice creamery folks opened up a new separating station at Hayes The ballast crew is running out of Mc- Center, this week. They expect a heavy On December 2, 1899, we will give away a beautiful wall calender with any purchase; but in no case will more than Tom Wilkinson was up from Lincoln, one be given to a family. D. W. LOAR. The people kicked when Dewey gave his house to his wife, and they kick when they do not get good coal; Bul> lards have few kicks. The U.S. cruiser Charleston is reported to be a total wreck. How about your coal pile? If it gets wrecked call at Bullard's; they can repair it on short

Those who buy a wash boiler or a pail, or in fact any article in tinware that is guaranteed not to rust by S. M. Cochran & Co., are always pleased. Try them. You won't have any inferior article in that line after one trial.

The Degree of Honor has taken up the study of parliamentary law. The practical application and drill work comes just after the regular session. Many who cannot attend the regular meeting come in to take advantage of the drill

Church societies occupy a unique position in the commercial world-in that they are the only organizations in the world that can buy 47 cents worth of raw materials, expend 49 cents worth of labor in the manufacture of an article; sell the said article for 31 cents, and wax city and is living with his father C. F.

Treasurer Berge, ably assisted by Deputy Sheriff Smith, is now engaged orado. A spring broke on the engine, a in collecting up the little dribs of perpart of the spring striking and breaking sonal taxes previously overlooked in the blow-off pipe of the engine, letting making his collections. He desires to "clean the platter" before turning over Corn the engine. A flying fragment of the the office to his successor, and has given Wheat spring stripped the brakes on the mail due notice that he will issue distress warrants in all necessary cases. So call per you may want. Try it. Take your prescriptions to Loar.

THE TRIBUNE and The Cincinnati in advance.

MINOR ITEMS OF NEWS.

Residence for Sale.

My residence on upper Main st. The best located and, with one exception, the finest residence in the city. A portion of purchase money can remain on long time at a very low rate of interest. For further particulars address or apply personally at the Famous Clothing store.

JONAS ENGEL.

Loar's is the place to buy drugs.

Loas's Cough Killer does the work. Swell Golf Capes for sale at DeGroff's.

When you want a steel range, buy the

For chapped or cracked hands, use

Loar's Cream. It is folly to cough; McMillen's Cough

Cure is promptly effective. Call up 19 if you have any newspaper or job printing business to do. Telephone No. 31, when you want anything in the hardware line. SCALE BOOKS-For sale at THE TRIB-UNE office. Best in the market.

Think of it! A coal-hod and shovel for 15 cents at S. M. Cochran & Co.'s.

Increase your supply of eggs by using McMillen's Egg Producer. Guaranteed.

If you want a winter wrap it will pay you to look at DeGroff's before you buy. This paper and the great St. Louis

Semi-Weekly Republic for $1.75 a year. A few fine bargains in second hand hard coal heaters at S. M. Cochran &

Have you tried any of Bullard's nigger-head Maitland? It's the ONLY Mait-

Groceries and cold storage meats-the best and freshest the market affords-at

Everist, Marsh & Co. have been killing some corn-fed heifers that are second to nothing in the state. See the American Ringer Co. ringer before you buy. They are guaranteed at S. M. Cochran & Co.'s. FOR SALE-My residence on corner of Madison and Douglas streets.

F. S. WILCOX.

We have decided to close out what wall-paper we have left at a great reduc-D. W. LOAR. Stokes' grocery is known all over the city as the place to get what you want and the best of everything in the grocery Buy one of those small axes at S. M. Cochran & Co.'s. They are just the thing with which to break coal or cut Peerless Stock Food and Pratt's Stock Food-conceded to be the best condition powders made. Cheaper than any other.

See McConnell & Berry.

Self-Hypnotic-Healing, Clairvoyance and Hypnotism. Lessons free; 10c. for postage. Prof. S. A. Grannell, P. H. D., McCook, Neb. Box 123. ESTRAYED-One pair brown five-year-old driving horses; weight about 875 and 925 pounds, respectively. Finder please notify Everist, Marsh & Co. and receive reward. As a dramatic reader Professor S. S. Hamill ranks with the first in his profession. His rendition of "The Raven" is alone worth the price of admission.-

Chicago Tribune. Robbie Sutton's dome of thought came in violent contact with a portion of S. P. Hart's horse-power, the other day, with damaging effect to one of his eyes and adjacent brow.

All kinds of stock will winter better if given an occasional feed of condition powder. Peerless stock food for sale by McConnell & Berry is the best and cheapest stock tonic. When you are in buying your meat for harvesters or corn huskers, please speak to us about our little farm we have for sale, one and one-half miles from town. EVERIST, MARSH & Co. Henry Pade's sod-house collapsed as a result of the continued rains of this week, and the family has moved to the Pade until another dwelling place can McCook Markets.

Corrected Friday morning.

Hens Lay all Winter

THE TRIBUNE will club with any pa-When given an occasional feed of Lee's Tonic Powder. 25c. per pound. Try it. McConnell & Berry.