ENGLAND may be said to be having an up-hill time of it in South Africa.

THE remarks of the Hon. Arthur Sewall, late Democratic vice-presidential candidate, to the effect that he believes Bryan will undoubtedly be nominated but that he will be again defeated, are not considered good Democratic literature for campaign circulation.

EXPORTATIONS of iron and steel during 1899 amounted to $105,689,645 against $15,422,874 in 1880, while imports of manufactures of iron and steel in 1880 were $63,956,853 and in 1899 but $15,799,206. And all this under protection, which has been denounced as a something which would prevent Americans finding abroad a market for their products.

NO LOYAL Republican will be disturbed in the least in his ultimate fidelity and allegiance to the party and its president in the coming national contest by the fact that he does coincide completely with the expansion or colonial policy to which the party and its chief executive have fallen heir by reason of the late Spanish-American war. All Republicans are united in the matters of stable currency, protection, good government, and have confidence that the party can take care of the colonies and trusts with a wisdom that the Democratic party has never exhibited in its history. The Republican front will be a practically solid one in November, notwithstanding any and all minor differences of opinion.

HARVARD's professor of history, Albert B. Hart, in an interesting article in Harpers Magazine, calls attention to the fact, and illustrates his point by copious quotations, that the present debates over the annexation of Puerto Rico and the Philippines contain, with more prolixity and less cogency, the same passionate objections and the same rejoinders which busied the minds of the senate and the house in the discussion of the Louisiana purchase in 1803. Nothing new has been raised by the anti-expansionists of the present time over those of a century ago, although those of to-day must admit that the reasoning of their namesakes was defective. The objectors of those days were simply obstructionists, as badly divided in opinion as are those of the present day, having no common principle on which all could stand.

THE calamity shriekers, who did such a thriving business (at so much per diem) in the campaign of 1896, are liable to find their branch of industry somewhat depressed by a recent publication in that staunch Democratic paper the New York "World." The "World" calls attention to the fact that the New York State bureau of labor and statistics in its report for 1899 says that "at the end of December, 1898, 27.2 per cent of all the working people in all trades were unemployed. At the end of March, 1899, the unemployed amounted to 18.6 per cent. At the end of June the percentage was 10.9. At the end of September it had sunk to 4.7 per cent." And the "World" adds that at the present moment it is "incalculably small," and further says, "How much these simple figures mean of prosperity! How much they mean of happiness in the home lives of hundreds of thousands! How much they mean of welfare for the country! What a warning they hold for politicians who would start another 'calamity' campaign." To this the Democratic Washington "Post" adds that "reports from other states are of like tenor. Never before in the history of this country was labor in such demand as at present; never before was the general average of wages so high; never before were the deposits in savings banks increasing so rapidly; and there is the strongest promise that this most happy situation will continue for some years."

THE Populist state convention is announced for March 19th in the new auditorium building in Lincoln.

THE Republicans of Nebraska will hold an early convention, this year, meeting in Lincoln, Wednesday, May 2.

IN spite of the reading in the senate of Admiral Dewey's letters stating that he never made any coalition or agreement with Aguinaldo, the anti-imperialists still maintain that Dewey did regard the Filipinos as his allies. It looks as though the Democratic campaign managers were proposing to go before the country on the question of veracity between Admiral Dewey and Aguinaldo.

MR. BRYAN's eastern tour was a great success. He managed to get on every side of every question which could be possibly considered in the coming campaign, and therefore retires to the west flatteringly himself that he has given everybody a little platform on which to stand long enough to cast a vote for Bryan in 1900. The most striking feature of his trip was the evidence which he brought forth that the silver question must be relegated to the background, that anti-expansion is the most unpopular proposition he could offer, and that his chief reliance now is the imperialistic bogie, whatever that may be.

City Property Transfers.

Activity in city real estate continues. The following transfers of residence properties have taken place, this week: Jonas Engel to James S. Doyle of the Willow. Consideration, $2,500. This is one of McCook's finest properties, and the contemplated removal of Mr. Engel and family from the city is doubtless responsible for the bargain price at which it sold.

The old Frank Hess dwelling over on south Monroe street to Mrs. M. E. Barger. The consideration was in the neighborhood of a thousand dollars.

The J. A. Snyder residence, corner of McFarland and Dakota, by W. F. Everest to the Leach brothers. The consideration is placed at less than one thousand dollars. There are two lots. The boys secured another profitable investment in this purchase.

The J. R. Phelan residence, corner of Dakota and Madison, to W. F. Everest for $2,800. This property embraces three fine lots and one of the city's best and largest dwellings. The price is a very low one for so valuable property.

J. E. Sanborn to William Wood, lot 3 and south half of lot 2, block 1, West McCook; consideration, $300.

Mrs. Sadie A. Bates to J. J. Barry, part of lots 15 and 16, block 27, original McCook; consideration, $650.

Advertised Letters.

The following letters were advertised by the McCook postoffice on Feb. 11th: W. H. Burns, Mrs. J. G. Allen, John Cann, J. G. Frazier, F. Fowler, R. E. Stephenson, Charley Huffman, Charley Wantz, Will Smith, Mrs. Youman, James Tupper, M. L. McDermott.

In calling for any of these letters, please say that they are advertised.

F. M. KIMMELL, Postmaster.

A Word of Thanks.

We wish herewith to express our thanks and gratitude to one and all for assistance and sympathy in our late bereavement.

SAMUEL SPENCER, WILLIAM SPENCER, WESLEY SPENCER, HENRY SPENCER, MRS. F. D. GRIFFETH.

McConnell's Balsam cures coughs.

ADDITIONAL PERSONALS.

MRS. PURVIS returned home, Saturday night, from a visit of two weeks in Denver.

MISS INEZ YOUNG and Ira Cole of Culbertson laughed with those that laughed, last evening.

JOSEPH ALLEN, the well known Osburn cattleman, is at the Commercial hotel, being treated for blood poisoning.

F. T. DIMICK of Wauweta was in the city, last night, to meet his daughter Freda, who has been east visiting. He took in the show.

ELMER ROWELL departed, Sunday night on 3, for the west, to be gone a month or longer. He will go to Colorado Springs, Colorado, and from there to New Mexico. He represents a mining company in his trip to New Mexico.

EAST RED WILLOW.

The cold snap hit us pretty hard on the 7th. Mrs. R. J. Hadley is very ill with pneumonia.

J. F. Helm has closed his meat market in Indianola.

Johnny McNeal is slowly improving from a severe attack of pneumonia.

The east and west roads are all drifted full of snow, making traveling difficult.

E. A. Sexson and A. H. Reynolds attended the banquet given in McCook, February 2d.

A horse belonging to Noah Sawyer was badly crippled by getting into barbed wire, recently.

C. J. Suiter of North Branch, Kansas, is improving his farm in this neighborhood, and will move onto the same and cultivate it, in the spring.

It is quite amusing to see Pop-Gun Smith and Would-be-deputy Matthews trying to emerge from obscurity by attempting to get into a controversy with THE TRIBUNE.

A Night of Terror.

"Awful anxiety was felt for the widow of the brave General Burnham of Machias, Me., when the doctors said she would die from pneumonia before morning," writes Mrs. S. H. Lincoln, who attended her that fearful night, "but she begged for Dr. King's New Discovery, which had more than once saved her life, and cured her of consumption. After taking, she slept all night. Further use entirely cured her. This marvelous medicine is guaranteed to cure all throat, chest and lung diseases. Only 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at McConnell & Berry's."

TYRONE.

Work is resumed on the church. The chief topic, just now, is the numerous public sales.

August Broman writes that he will return home soon from Chicago, where he has been attending a pharmacy school.

The postmaster has the selling of several more good farms near here, both improved and unimproved.

Some have recently patronized the fake concerns that offer to foretell your future, if you send your sex, age, and race.

C. G. Broman and J. C. Moore attended the reception and banquet at McCook on the 2d, returning next day. They report a good time. It seems evident that much money is sent to such firms as Montgomery Ward and the Searbuck people, who our local merchants might take in if they would sell just a little cheaper.

Stood Death Off.

E. B. Munday, a lawyer of Henrietta, Tex., once fooled a grave-digger. He says: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice. I persuaded him to try Electric Bitters, and he was soon much better, but continued their use until he was wholly cured. I am sure Electric Bitters saved his life." This remedy expels malaria, kills disease germs and purifies the blood; aids digestion, regulates liver, kidneys and bowels, cures constipation, dyspepsia, nervous diseases, kidney troubles, female complaints; gives perfect health. Only 50c at McConnell & Berry's.

INDIANOLA.

F. H. Strout, the rustling representative of the McCook Milling Co., spent Sunday at home with the family.

Monday, at McCook, W. H. Wadsworth bought the northeast quarter of section nineteen and the northeast quarter of section twenty in township four, north, range twenty-nine, west of the sixth principal meridian. The price paid is $820. There are considerable improvements on the half section.

Court week has drawn quite a number of our citizens to McCook, this week. We note among those absent: H. W. Keyes, S. R. Smith, A. C. Crabtree, William McCallum, W. H. Wadsworth, John Russell, R. W. Neel, Bert Miller, Edwin and Bruce Hill.

W. S. Philpot, Albany, Ga., says, "DeWitt's Little Early Risers did me more good than any pills I ever took." The famous little pills for constipation, biliousness and liver and bowel troubles. D. W. Loar.

BOX ELDER.

We are having a spell of weather, and everybody is putting up ice.

J. H. Stephens is canvassing in the western counties.

Mr. and Mrs. William Weygint of McCook were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson, Friday of last week.

Two series of revival meetings were in progress here, last week, one by Rev. Robinson in the church, and the other by George Oakley in the school-house.

John Miller has purchased the farm owned by C. H. Boyle, located south of Ira Harrison's place. This gives John a half-section. Dan Doyle has bought what is known as the A. W. Campbell eighty.

Thurston Doyle and Dora Little were married in McCook, Wednesday of last week, by the county judge. Both young people are well known in this vicinity. Thurston is the third son of William Boyle and Dora is the eldest daughter of David Little. Congratulations.

"After doctors failed to cure me of pneumonia I used One Minute Cough Cure and three bottles of it cured me. It is also the best remedy on earth for whooping cough. It cured my grandchildren of the worst cases," writes Jno. Berry, Loganton, Pa. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Cures coughs, colds, croup and throat and lung troubles. It prevents consumption. Children always like it. Mothers endorse it. D. W. Loar.

The salesgirls of a New Jersey town have started a crusade against slang and seem determined to do up the deplorable habit or bust a cinch trying.

Ayes—Bolles and Waterman; nay—Crabtree. Motion declared carried.

Crabtree gave as his reasons for voting no that the county commissioners have already expended more than the law gives them the right to expend on public court house without first submitting the question to the taxpayers of the county by vote.

Each commissioner, Crabtree, Bolles and Waterman, gave the following reasons for rejecting said claim: That they and each of them admit that said claim is just and true, and that the county of Red Willow is indebted to said McAdams in said sum of $511 and that the same is due, but that the same being for vaults built in the county court house, and the county having already expended the limit allowed for said purposes, to-wit, $1,500, that said bill cannot be paid without a vote of the people appropriating money therefor.

The Jack-of-all-trades in charge of the local patent-medicine sheet appreciates his own efforts to such an extent that he runs all over town with a proof of his "roasts"—he says that's what they are—two or three days before the "squirr-gun" makes its appearance, that the people may know what a bad man he is in a pen. That's one way of getting the real ravings read, any how.

Since the last election, "Vinegar Bitters" Matthews has been discovering what a small-bore politician he is in the estimation of other people, and he can't fully realize it yet. Before the election he announced that he carried five votes in a certain family in his vest pocket, and the blow almost killed him when one of the boys said that they were looking for a photograph of the man he could influence to add to their freak collection. Among politicians the amateur editor reads one of a plugged nickel in a bag of double eagles—attracts attention by his infinitesimal calibre and relative value. Having made a failure of everything else, he should get a job as an animate comic valentine; he's admirably adapted to the part.

You Can't Dodge Them

Did you ever try to dodge the rain-drops? Did not succeed very well, did you? It's just as useless to try to escape from the germs of consumption. You can't do it. They are about us on every hand and we are constantly taking them into our lungs.

Then why don't we all have this disease? Simply because these germs cannot gain a foothold in a strong throat and lungs. It's when these are weak that the germs master.

The body must be well supplied with fat. The danger comes when the blood is poor and the body is thin. If your cough does not yield, and your throat and lungs feel raw and sore, you should not delay another day. Take
