AS TO NEW COLONIES

Discussion of Them to Be Opened in Congress This Week.

DETERMINING THE FUTURE STATUS

Porto Rico in the House and Hawaii in the Senate—Late Senator Hayward to Be Eulogized Thursday—Other Matters at the National Capital.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—Debate upon the Porto Rican tariff bill, consideration of which the house will enter upon today, promises to be memorable in the history of this congress.

The vital question at issue in the bill is whether that clause of the constitution providing for equality of impost and excise taxes throughout United States territory extends over the island of Porto Rico and in this is involved, perhaps, the determination of the future status and government of our new possessions.

The republicans in framing the bill have proceeded upon the theory that the constitution and its immunities do not extend over Porto Rico. The democrats are solidly arrayed on the other side and in committee they were joined by one republican, McCall of Massachusetts. Among the other republicans who take the same view is Littlefield of Maine who succeeded the late Mr. Dingley. He won his spurs in the debate upon the Roberts case and is already considered one of the most powerful debaters in the house.

The support of these two prominent republicans has raised some hopes in the opposition that they may be able to defeat the bill, although this hardly seems probable just now.

Both sides are preparing for a royal struggle. Payne, the floor leader of the majority, will open in support of the bill. He will be followed by Richardson, the minority leader. Bailey of Texas will close for the minority. The debate will continue throughout the week and the vote will be taken on the following Monday.

The attention of the senate this week will be given largely to the relations of the United States to its insular possessions. The bill providing a form of government for the Hawaiian islands has right of way, and if it should be so fortunate as to be finally acted upon before the close of the week, the Porto Rican bill, under the agreement made in the republican caucus, last week, will be immediately taken up.

The probabilities are that the Hawaiian bill be debated at considerable length and that many amendments will be offered to it. On this account and because it may be made the basis of more or less general talk on the question of the policy to be pursued toward the new possessions, considerable time probably will be necessary to the final disposal of the bill.

All admit the urgency of legislation giving the Hawaiians a government, but there are some points on which there are radical differences of opinion, and these will have to be fought out. The most important of these is the question as to whether the commercial intercourse between the United States and the islands shall be under a tariff or under the free trade system allowed between the states of the union. The bill provides for free trade, but several of the senators, under the leadership of Platt of Connecticut, are making an effort to secure a radical amendment in this respect.

Senator Cullom, in charge of the bill, will resist, and he will be supported by some republicans and nearly all the democrats members. Practically the same fight will be made on the Porto Rican bill.

The Garrison for Manila.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 19.—General William R. Shafter was at Port Porter today while returning to San Francisco. Interviewed on the Philippine situation he said: "I regard the insurrection as broken. So far as the Tagalogs are concerned, the insurrection is practically ended. As to what may occur among the other tribes people over there cannot say."

"How long will a garrison be necessary in the Philippines?" was asked. "Forever," he replied, "and by that I mean during your lifetime and mine. Troops must be there for years to come. We have garrisons in this country and certainly garrisons will be needed there."

General Shafter will leave for San Francisco tomorrow.

MACRUM WILL NOT RETRACT.

Pleas Over His Statement and Will Back It With Testimony.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 19.—Charles E. Macrum, former United States consul at Pretoria South Africa, left for Washington tonight at 10 o'clock on the Baltimore & Ohio road. Before leaving he said:

"I do not withdraw a word of my charges against the British officials in South Africa. If I am called upon, I am prepared at any time to testify to them and furnish evidence of their truthfulness."

Mr. Macrum is evidently disgusted over the effect of his statement made last week, and says that although he was not acquainted with Congressman Wheeler of Kentucky, who introduced a resolution in the house asking for an investigation of his case, he will call upon him. The ex-consul says he is not going to Washington on any special mission, but wants to be on the ground to give his testimony should it be needed.

Politics is Still Loaded.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 19.—A political argument between ex-State Senator A. J. Bronston of Lexington and Claude Desha, chief clerk of the senate, came near precipitating a shooting affray on a Chesapeake & Ohio train crowded with returning democratic legislators tonight. Bronston is said to have denounced the Goebel men as revolutionists, and Desha, to whom the remarks were addressed, denominated Bronston a bolter. Angry words passed and Senator Bronston drew a pistol.

LEGISLATORS IN FRANKFORT.

Differences as to Whether Democrat or Republican Will Precede.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 19.—A good part of the democratic legislators returned here tonight, and numerous conferences were in progress during the evening relating to the political program tomorrow when the democratic and republican branches of the legislature will meet together for the first time since the assassination of the late Governor Goebel.

The question whether Lieutenant Governor Marshall (republican) or President Pro Tem Carter (democrat) will preside in the senate tomorrow is as wide open tonight as it has been. The democratic leaders say Senator Carter will preside. Lieutenant Governor Marshall is not here tonight, but before leaving the city last night he stated positively that he would return Monday and insist on his right to preside and the republican leaders assert positively tonight that he will preside. Neither side goes farther than these bare statements and what steps they will take, if any, to carry out these cross purposes respectively can only be determined by events tomorrow.

Governor Taylor went to church today without military escort and spent the remainder of the day at the mansion with his family.

Governor Beckham returned to the city tonight with the democratic legislators and will have his headquarters at the Capital hotel. Messrs. Justus and Arthur Goebel, brothers of the late democratic governor, also returned and will remain here until the body of their dead brother is finally consigned to earth. The body still lies in the little chapel in the cemetery, the relatives having been slow to determine the exact spot of burial.

The question of reopening the contest over the governorship by presenting resolutions in both houses ratifying the action taken by the democratic legislators on two occasions declaring Senator Goebel governor, was discussed by some of the democratic members tonight who favor it. They say this would not be a concession that the former proceedings were illegal, but would probably put an end to the controversy sooner. The matter has not been decided on definitely, but a majority of the members who are outspoken on the matter expressed themselves as opposed to reopening the matter in any form. They will abide by the decision of the party managers, however, and there may be some reference to it in the session of the legislature tomorrow.

Sioux Cityman Goes to Paris.

SIoux CITY, Ia., Feb. 19.—John H. McGibbons, chief assistant to the director general of the United States to the Paris exposition, left yesterday for New York, en route to Paris. He has been actively engaged in preparing the American exhibit. He says:

"The United States exhibit at the Paris exposition will be the most complete of any nation except, of course, France, and the number of exhibits will be larger than any other except France. It will be in every sense American. The United States exhibit will be fully ready for the opening, April 15. Its building is nearing completion and its exhibits have all been collected and partly transported, the last shipment going in the Prairie, which left New York February 7.

Coloradan's Wanderings.

CHICAGO, Feb. 19.—John Costello, who said he was the owner of a cigar store at 311 Bennett street, Cripple Creek, Colo., was found wandering around the streets tonight. He was nearly overcome by the cold and exposure. He was taken to the police station, where he told the police that on January 13 he was sitting in his store at Cripple Creek with $500 in his possession, and he can recall nothing of what happened since that date until he was found by the officer. After having been revived by warm drinks, he looked at his tattered clothing and asked where he got them in place of his other clothes.

Fighting Plague at Manila.

MANILA, Feb. 19.—Out of a total of fifty-one cases of suspected bubonic plague reported forty-two proved genuine and thirty-two deaths resulted, half of them being Chinamen. There were twelve cases during the past week, mostly within the walled city, and 109 inspectors, under the superintendence of a health officer, Major Edric, are enforcing the sanitary regulations. Thirty of the inspectors are Chinamen, who have been furnished with the Chinese merchants.

The health department census shows the population of Manila is about 190,000, including 31,000 Chinese.

CASTELLANE'S TURN TO PLAY.

Rodays Sets the French Count's Bluff and Raises Him the Limit.

PARIS, Feb. 17.—(New York World Cablegram.)—When a correspondent communicated the last threats Count Boni de Castellane made as he left New York for Paris to Rodays, he said:

"In my opinion the young man's cockiness will diminish gradually each day as the ship draws near these shores. His swaggering threats and bluffing denials are quite necessary while in America or else his position during his stay there would be absolutely impossible. But depend upon it, Boni just now is mighty uneasy in his mind. I predict when he gets here he will find all sorts of excellent reasons to not make good his promises to take pugilistic liberties with me. Perhaps his counsel will advise him not to jeopardize his success in the law suits between us, or his doctors may say that his wife's delicate nerves wouldn't resist the shock of a street clash between us. But whatever excuse is chosen he will not slap or cane me, much less blow out my brains. For my part, I intend to stand by what my paper said; moreover, I am quite ready to give Castellane all the duelling he wants. I fancy I will even be able to give him a trifle more than he would seek of his own accord, if unpushed by public opinion. I have a record, with which everybody, including Castellane, is acquainted, and I refer you to that. But while willing to meet him both that way and before the courts, where the Figaro intends to prove its assertions, I shall not tolerate any ungentleman-like assault. Whoever tries to pummel me is warned that he will do so at great risk."

The editor of the Figaro enjoys the reputation of a cool and fearless man. He has fought a number of duels with both sword and pistol, with prominent antagonists. On the other hand, nobody disputes Castellane's pluck. Two years ago he displayed, not only great courage, but immense skill in an encounter with Henri Turot. On that occasion the count wounded the journalist severely after one of the longest and fiercest duels of recent times. Paris is now preparing to feast on the results of the meeting, which will be inevitably sensational, between these two men.

Start on a New Campaign.

MANILA, Feb. 17.—Brigadier General Alfred E. Coal Prices to Advance.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 17.—The United Mine Workers' headquarters here are receiving many reports from coal operators in America, showing that the demands from Europe, and particularly England, will be enormous during 1900. The shortage in England has caused prices to advance until coal is selling for over $7 per ton in Saxony and coal that a year ago sold for $1 per ton on the cars in Pittsburgh and is now bringing $1.25 will bring over $3 in the London market.

UNLIMITED FAITH IN "BOBS."

English Do not Harbor a Doubt He Will Succeed.

LONDON, Feb. 16.—Intense satisfaction continues dominant in consequence of Field Marshal Lord Roberts' plan of operations in South Africa, as revealed by the dispatches published this morning. There is no further news of British advance into the Orange Free State or of activity at the Modder river, but a feeling of quiet confidence prevails that the strong hands of "Bobs Bahdur" and the hero of Kartoum are shaping matters toward a much needed decisive victory.

As the St. James Gazette says: "Lord Roberts, with his own line well guarded and having little reason to fear the only defense which would be deadly, viz, a counter stroke attacking his long line as it swings round, will be able to force the Boers to fight under very unfavorable conditions, or abandon their heavy guns and stores."

A special dispatch to the Times from Chieveley, Natal, dated Tuesday, February 13, says: "General Lytton has succeeded to the command of the Second division during the illness of General Clery, who is suffering from blood poisoning. Colonel Northcott of the Rie brigade temporarily commands the Fourth division."

News regarding a Boer attack on Zululand are somewhat allayed by a special dispatch from Durban, which says that a column of colonial scouts, after a forced march, has arrived at Eshowe, in splendid fighting form. They were pursued several times during the march by the Boers, but succeeded in repulsing them.

The headquarters for this division of the work, which embraces all the range country, will be established in Denver and active work will be commenced at once.

This will be the first time in the history of the country that a classified census of live stock will have been taken. The association began the agitation of the matter a year ago and through the assistance of L. G. Powers, Senator Wolcott, Governor Merriam and others, congress made the necessary appropriation to carry out the work.

CONFER WITH THE PRESIDENT.

Understood that McKinley Favors Free Trade With Porto Rico.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—Representatives Payne, Grosvenor and Dalzell, members of the ways and means committee of the house, today had a conference with the president on the subject of the pending Porto Rican tariff. It is understood that the president assured them that while he was rather of the opinion that there should be free trade between the island and the United States, he had no disposition to intrude his views upon congress, and if it was the opinion of the committee and a majority of both houses that there should be a small or nominal customs charge on Porto Rican goods entering the United States, he would willingly accept their judgment. It is the opinion of Messrs. Payne, Grosvenor and Dalzell that the bill, substantially as it now stands, will pass both houses and become a law.

At Baracoa and Mayari, on the north coast of the island, the McPherson will take on additional bodies.

New Job for Women.

"Women," suggests a Connecticut paper, "who are too timid to face the tradesmen who charge exorbitant prices, who furnish inferior goods, who do poor work, or the landlords who will not attend to making needed repairs, or servants who are impertinent or incompetent, can have their scolding done for them for a consideration, and if the professional scold knows just how to talk to these delinquents she can accomplish what any amount of reasoning and mild remonstrance have failed to do."

He was a native of Philadelphia, a graduate of Harvard '54, and devoted his life to landscape painting, having been a member of the National academy since 1861, though rarely a contributor to its exhibitions. He made Italy his country, and while he had painted Nahant, his subjects were mainly Italian.
