SOUTHWESTERN NEBRASKA is getting such an array of "red hot" newspapers that it will be necessary soon for the government to provide asbestos-lined sacks in which to transport them. They are "too warm" for ordinary tie-sacks.

A NORTHWEST NEBRASKA Populist attributes Secretary of State Porter's amusing political pranks to a disparity between the size of boots and the size of hat worn, claiming that the odds are too strongly in favor of his pedal extremities.

IN the capture of General Cronje and 4,000 Boers, this week, the British scored their first decisive victory of the South African war. The defense by the Boers is entitled to an illumined page in history, but they had to yield in the face of superior numbers.

THE January exports were the largest shown by any January in the history of our foreign commerce—amounting to $117,620,930. And yet this happened under the protective Dingley law, which was branded by Democratic orators as one which must injure the foreign trade of the United States by reason of the fact that it was intended to exclude foreign products coming into competition with those of the United States.

IN its official report the Philippine commission has outlined a territorial form of government similar to that proposed and adopted by Jefferson for Louisiana, and the commission quotes from the words of Jefferson on the subject. The bringing to light, from time to time, of Jefferson's pronounced views in favor of expansion must be a serious matter for those Democratic statesmen who have been parading Jefferson around as an anti-expansionist.

THE delight of the Democratic editors and orators over the new-found issue relative to ex-Consul Macrum, and his statement that an alliance exists between the United States and Great Britain, was of very short duration. President McKinley and Secretary Hay demolished it by sending a letter to congress, in answer to a resolution of inquiry, stating that Consul Macrum's charges of interference with his mail by the British were apparently unfounded, and that certainly the assertion that there is any secret alliance or agreement between the United States and Great Britain is absolutely untrue. The letter calls attention to the fact that the constitution expressly prohibits such alliance or agreements.

THE Silver Democrats in the house are greatly disgusted over Sibley's recent stand for prosperity. The Pennsylvania statesman was a tower of strength in the Democratic camp during the 1896 campaign, consequently his present turn-about is keenly felt by his erstwhile colleagues. The other day in congress he referred to the taunts and jibes constantly directed at him from the Democratic side because of his expansion speech. They might, he said, call him turncoat if it made them feel any better, but he would nevertheless turn his coat whenever the inside looked better than the outside. "Some of my Democratic friends," he added, "would do well at this time to turn their coats inside out and thus cover the rags and tatters in which they are clothed."

CONSUL MACRUM's long-delayed bomb did not, after all, create much of a sensation when he got ready to explode it. It appears that the whole trouble grew out of his desire to run home and tell his ma that somebody else had been, as he thought, interfering with his prerogatives. How easy it would have been for him to have stepped aboard a railway car at Pretoria and in a few hours' ride reach Lourenco Marques, in Portuguese territory, and entirely outside of British jurisdiction, and there file a cable message to the state department, requesting a reply to be sent to him there, thus obviating the possibility of the alleged British censorship. Instead of adopting such a course he took a month to come to the United States, without offering any explanation of the cause for his absence at a time when the presence of a United States representative in Pretoria was imperative.

Moving is in progress, this week. Eunice Goheen will return to college, shortly. Mrs. W. G. Higby has also been on the sick-list. W. S. Fitch is going into the hog business again. Mrs. G. B. Nettleton has been quite sick, this week. Wm. Thomas has been undergoing an attack of the grip. Remember the preaching, next Sunday afternoon, March 4th. There was a large attendance at the literary, last Wednesday evening. There will be an immense amount of spring wheat sown as soon as the weather is favorable. The farmers are happy over the big snow, and the fine prospects for good crop of winter wheat. M. W. Gallagher and family of Lenox, Iowa, are expected here, this week. They will move on the Farin farm on the Driftwood. The roads across the river bottom, towards McCook, are getting in very bad shape and it is dangerous to haul big loads over them. Philomena Schmitz will soon close a very successful term of school in district 16. She is drilling her children for a public exhibition on the closing day. Homer Trayer of Chardon, Kans., is visiting with Oscar Hammond. They are having fine sport chasing the jacks and have taken in quite a number. Captain I. H. Wasson and Frank Fitch attended the Pleasant Ridge literary, last Friday evening, and compliment the Ridge people very highly on the kind of a society they have. Their literary is worth going to.

SOUTH SIDE NO. 2.
Frank Freelove will soon leave us to go to Colorado. Menard and Little lost four head of cattle, last week. J. T. Birdsell and family have moved to the Kneeland farm. B. C. Bowman will locate in West McCook for a short time. Mr. Barrett, the spiritualist medium, is still holding meetings in this vicinity. Mr. Brown now owns a finely matched team, having purchased the cream twins of John Whittaker. Owing to the illness of the leader, William Thomas, the Bible-study, Sunday p. m., had not the usual interest. Mr. Grey from the J. H. Moore ranch, passed through the valley, Monday, on his way to Indianola, with several loads of household goods and cattle. The meeting of the V. S. club at Frank Freelove's, Friday evening of last week, resulted in a general good time. Ice-cream, tideo, Dan Tucker and cake being the prominent features. Two farmers have been hauling straw, for many and many a day. Which was given them by a neighbor, who about it had thought to say: Another man did own that straw, did own it all the while. And now, those farmers must "cough up," for all that big straw pile.

The Coming Evangelist.
The union protracted meetings will commence on next Sunday evening in the Methodist church and large religious interest naturally centers in the event and in the gentleman who has been secured to assist the local pastors in the services, Rev. L. P. Rowland. The Interior, a widely circulated and influential religious newspaper published in Chicago, recently contained a sketch of the gentleman on the occasion of the celebration of his silver wedding day at Grand Rapids, Michigan. This anniversary called forth numerous tokens and expressions of love from friends far and near. Hon. John Wanamaker sent them a "silver letter" beautifully inscribed upon a solid silver tray a foot long, addressed thus: "The church of Philadelphia saluteth you on the silver anniversary of your marriage. This letter in silver only reflects the golden love with which you wrote upon our hearts long ago, by your faithful lives and Christian service. John Wanamaker to Mr. and Mrs. Levi P. Rowland, December 6th, 1895." It is a most beautiful and unique silver token from this grand man. Sir George Williams of London, England, who organized the first Young Men's Christian association in the world, sent a beautiful letter of congratulations. Telegrams were received from their friends at Oberlin college and Beloit college, and from the Rev. Jarold Stanley Lee. A poem from the pen of Mrs. Emma H. Lee, wife of the president of the French college at Springfield, Mass., was received. Also marked letters of appreciation of the usefulness of the twenty-five years of Christ-like service of Mr. and Mrs. Rowland from Russell Sturgis, H. M. Moore and others of Boston; Robert R. McBurney, George A. Hall and Thomas K. Cree of New York—twenty-six such letters in all from different parts of the country. Many beautiful silver tokens came from the family friends. Not the least of the valuable letters was a full four pages of valuable love from Mr. Rowland's mother, who passed her eightieth birthday, December 4, in vigorous health.

The next meeting of the local union will be held at Mrs. A. G. Dole's at 2:30 p. m., next Friday, March 9th. An English inspector of poor houses for twenty-two years is quoted by Hon. T. W. Russell, M. P., as saying that during all his experience he has never met with a teetotaler in an English work-house. The Springfield, Missouri, Republican says: "Kansas City will get $50,000 worth of advertising out of the National convention, to say nothing of the sales of liquor. Brook, Nebraska, February 26.—Wilson Wakelin, a prominent farmer residing three miles north of this place, murdered his wife by cutting her throat with a razor. Mrs. Wakelin was very popular, being at one time president of the W. C. T. U. of Nebraska. Davness county, Missouri, has licensed the selling of whiskey and beer and shut out the dives. EAST RED WILLOW.
R. H. Thomas is busy building bridges, now days. E. A. Sexson has leased the Moss 80 in section 3, township 3, range 28. John Russell is drilling a well for C. J. Suiter on his farm. Noah Sawyer is digging a cellar, 14x20 feet, under his new house. W. P. Elmer purchased a team of horses of Harry Rankin of Indianola, this week. There is some talk of two Indianola parties putting in a store at the Willow, in the near future. Wm. Tucker will move in the Buck house for a few weeks until he gets settled before starting on his trip west. There are parties that make it a practice of going hunting to the river on Sunday. We would like to see the owners of the land along the river and creek put a stop to such Sabbath breaking by refusing to allow any hunting on their lands. Children often inherit feeble digestive power and colic of a more or less severe character results, when food is taken which is at all difficult to digest. White's Cream Vermifuge acts as a general and permanent tonic. Price, 25 cents. A. McMillen.

REDWILLOW.
Aaron Sheets is hauling straw to Wm. Byfield. Benj. Baker was obliged to defer his sale a week, owing to the big snow storm. Miss May Stangland has a very painful thumb, but she is not allowing it to interfere with her school duties. The big storm has "restored confidence" and the farmers are enumerating their probable wealth come harvest time. Clyde Lutes is much chagrined that the joke of a friend has been taken seriously. He says his wedding bells will ring as loud and long as if he was able to collect in his damage suit, and that no old lawsuit is going to stand in the way of his wedded bliss; then he grits his teeth and mutters direful threats that will probably silence further jesting. Couldn't help getting a cold never cures it; but carrying home a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and using it as directed, will cure the worst kind of cough or cold. Price, 25 and 50 cents. A. McMillen.

INDIANOLA.
A. C. Teel was in the big west-end town, Sunday. Harlow W. Keyes had business in McCook, Monday. Chairman Babcock of the Republican county central committee had business here, Monday. H. L. Fisher, C. B. McClung and Matt Rollings were visible to the natives of the county seat, Monday. No one knows the unbearable torture one undergoes from piles unless they are so afflicted. Tabler's Buckeye Pile Ointment is a quick, safe and painless cure. Price, 50 cents in bottles, tubes, 75 cents. A. McMillen.

Kerst-Carr Nuptials.
At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carr, southeast of Bartley, Charles G. Kerst and Miss Abbie Carr joined hands and hands in marriage at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of February 28th. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Roberts of the Christian church and witnessed by about thirty close friends. The happy event was concluded by all participating in a delicious wedding supper. Following were some of the presents received: J. H. Carr—horse and cow; Mrs. J. H. Carr—table cloth and napkins; Geo. Carr—lamp; Mrs. Geo. Carr—silver tea set and pair towels; Herbert and Grace Carr—salt and pepper shakers; Mrs. Della Mangus—rocking chair; Mrs. Kerst—$10; Mrs. Jas. Rittenburg—cake stand; O. M. Rittenburg and wife—glass set; Nellie and Willie Rittenburg—jelly and pickle dishes; Harry and May Blackson—water set; P. Hickman and wife—bowl and pitcher; Maud Hickman—berry set; Chas. F. Shafer and wife—$5; H. L. Burton and wife—stand cover; Etta Burton—silver salt and pepper shakers. When children have carache, saturate a piece of cotton with Ballard's Snow Liniment, and place it in the ear. It will stop the pain quickly. Price 25 and 50 cents. A. McMillen. In Pennsylvania women of 70 are marrying third and fourth husbands. It seems that nothing but death can break some women of the baneful marrying habit.

Have You Heard of It?
You may have heard about SCOTT'S EMULSION and have a vague notion that it is cod-liver oil with its bad taste and smell and all its other repulsive features. It is cod-liver oil, the purest and the best in the world, but made so palatable that almost everybody can take it. Nearly all children like it and ask for more.
SCOTT'S EMULSION
looks like cream; it nourishes the wasted body of the baby, child or adult better than cream or any other food in existence. It bears about the same relation to other emulsions that cream does to milk. If you have had any experience with other so-called "just as good" preparations, you will find that this is a fact. The hypophosphites that are combined with the cod-liver oil give additional value to it because they tone up the nervous system and impart strength to the whole body.

You stand on the threshold of youth, boys, Your future lies out in the years; [boys, You're learning your parts for life's work, You're planning your future careers;— You'll have to fill places of trust, boys, Your fathers will pass away soon, And if you'd be trustworthy men, boys, You'll have to avoid the saloon. If you would be honored in life, boys, If joy and contentment you'd know; If you would have plenty of cash, boys, And bask in prosperity's glow; If you would enjoy good health, boys,— That priceless but much abused boon; If God's benediction you'd have, boys, You'll have to avoid the saloon. You'll have to avoid the saloon, boys, Or sorrow and shame you will share; And poverty's crust you will eat, boys, And poverty's rags you will wear; Your future will end in disgrace, boys, Your life be cut off at its morn; Both body and soul will be lost, boys, Unless you avoid the saloon.
