THE BEE HIVE, McCook, Neb.

SOUTH SIDE.

Very hot and dry at present.

Alfred Fitch is helping John Burtless, this week.

John Randall is haying north of the river, this week.

The concert people cleared $11, last Monday evening.

Roy Dutton arrived home, last Tuesday, from his extended journey in the east.

The programmes are out for the county C. E. convention to be held, next Sunday afternoon, in the Fitch grove. All are cordially invited.

There will be an ice-cream social at the home of I. H. Wasson, next Friday evening. All are cordially invited. The proceeds are to help buy supplies for the Sunday-school.

The people of South Side have lost a good neighbor and one of the best families in the community. W. G. Higby has lived among us for a long time and his many friends have expressed their regrets at his leaving. He has the best wishes of all and will be kindly remembered.

The law holds both maker and circulator of a counterfeit equally guilty. The dealer who sells you a dangerous counterfeit of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve risks your life to make a little larger profit. You can not trust him. DeWitt's is the only genuine and original Witch Hazel Salve, a well known cure for piles and all skin diseases. See that your dealer gives you DeWitt's Salve. D. W. Loar.

That one-legged man, who is to travel on foot from San Francisco to New York has not as yet announced which candidate he will stump for.

To Cure La Grippe in Two Days.
Take Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's name on every bottle. 25c. 4-1.

Just to preserve the fashion equilibrium, as the tailless horse goes out of favor the tailless shirt comes in.

One Minute Cough Cure is the only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. Try it. D. W. Loar.

Pool and His Money.

It chanced that the miser and the spendthrift took ship together.

En voyage the spendthrift bought much wine and sat long at the gaming table.

"The fool and his money soon part!" sighed the miser.

Presently a storm rose, and the ship foundered, and they were all cast into the water, and the miser, having his gold in a belt about his waist, sank to the bottom.

"The fool and his money," observed the spendthrift sadly, for he was a generous soul, "don't always part!"

After that the spendthrift swam to a raft, where he starved to death.—Detroit Journal.

A Golf Outrage.

The Earl of Wemyss was on a five golf course not long ago, accompanied by an old caddie. His lordship got his ball on one occasion so near the hole that to play it was, as it appeared to him, superfluous. So he simply tipped it in with the toe of his boot.

"The caddie revolted instantly, threw down the clubs and looked horrified. When he found words to speak, it was to say, "Hang it, me lord, gowf's gowf!"

Millais and Newman.

The author of the life of Millais tells the following anecdote: When Cardinal Newman came to sit to the artist for his portrait, he asked where he was to pose.

"Oh, your eminence, on that eminence, if you please," answered Sir John, pointing to the models' dais, and, seeing him hesitating, added, "Come, jump up, you dear old boy."

Oysters and Strawberries.

The oyster and strawberry are said to be the greatest of evangelists. They have built and furnished more churches, paid the salaries of more preachers and helped more heathen than any two other natural agencies in the world.—Reynoldsville (Pa.) Star.

ADDITIONAL PERSONALS.

MRS. DENNIS CULLEN and son Frank left on 6, Sunday night, for Chicago, and will visit in Omaha and Burlington en route. Frank may secure and enter a city situation, while absent.

MRS. CHARLES POTTER and Miss Mayme Beale, spent a day here, early in the week, on their return home to Red Cloud from an excursion to Ogden, Utah, guests of their brother Conductor H. A. Beale.

B. F. SIBBITT was up from Bartley, Tuesday, and with Ed Noel secured the contract from the commissioners to do the grading to the approaches of the river bridge, south of Bartley, which the board is arranging to thoroughly repair.

LITTLE LESLIE THOMSON fell off his brother Matt's bicycle, Thursday, and received an ugly cut on his forehead that the surgeon had to stitch up. He is getting along very nicely, however, and will soon be none the worse for his painful experience.

MR. AND MRS. SAMUEL BOYER, parents of Mrs. Joseph and Mrs. Herman Hegenberger, arrived from Glenwood, Iowa, Tuesday, most happily surprising their daughters, whom they will visit a couple of weeks. They formerly lived near Herndon, Kansas, and will visit in that section before returning to Iowa.

W. G. HIGBY departed, early in the week, for his new home in Hebron, Thayer county, driving through with the horses. The rest of the goods and family followed during the week. It is a distinct loss to lose such estimable and substantial people as the Higbys, and it is with regret we note their departure. However, we hope their lines may fall in pleasant and profitable places.

INDIANOLA.

A kid base-ball club went from here to Cambridge, Wednesday.

Percy M. Bell, who learned the barber's trade in Indianola, was married to Edith M. Messner of Danbury, Thursday, by County Judge Bishop in McCook. His friends here congratulate him.

Watermelon "sniping" seems to be a pastime of picnic parties on the Willow. We hear of several complaints and damage to fencing as well, both of which should be tabooed by city folk.

Mrs. Harry Barbratt of McCook was the guest of Larry McEntee, first of the week, returning home on Wednesday. She was accompanied by two of the McEntee girls, who will visit her in the capital.

Miss Grace Barton, Miss Jennie McClung, Mrs. D. J. Fitzgerald and John McClung went up to McCook, last Saturday evening, to hear the last concert of the season of the celebrated Nebraska Brigade band of the big red stand-pipe town.

The institution of Indianola lodge No. 37, L. M. O. T. W., last Saturday, and the subsequent public installation of its officers, constituted the leading order event of last week.

The lodge was instituted during the day by Grand Organizer Lady Louie M. Bouk of Omaha, assisted by Grand Mistress at Arms Lady A. J. Kittenhouse, local organizer, of McCook, supported by a team of twelve ladies from the McCook hive of the order. The lodge starts with a charter membership of 25. The officers were chosen during the day sessions and were publicly installed in Masonic hall in the evening as follows: Lady Barton, P. L. C.; Lady Beardslee, L. C.; Lady Welborn, L. C.; Lady McCool, record keeper; Lady Strayer, finance keeper; Lady Russell, mistress at arms; Lady Lytle, sergeant; Lady Miller, sentinel; Lady Simpson, picket; Lady Hayden, captain of the guards. The marching of the team of twelve from the McCook hive, uniformed and accoutered, during the public installation, was a very pretty feature of the event. In the evening, following the installation, the knights of Indianola lodge, K. O. T. M., entertained the instituting and installing officers, the ladies of the visiting hive and the officers of the local lodge, serving ice-cream and cake in the office of the old Hobson house. The hive commences its existence among the orders of the town with an encouraging outlook, under favorable auspices.

A BLIND MAN

Is one who fails to profit by experience, even though he has use of both eyes without the aid of glasses. Time and again people buy clothing that is half made and containing mostly "Shoddy and Flock." Remember that three years among you has taught you that we carry no satinet goods in the house; what you buy of us is reliable and made by the best equipped factories in the in the country. Our prices are the lowest named for good goods; we carry no other.
