NORTH COLEMAN.

Spring Creek is not supplied with a minister yet.

There is a vacation in district 74 of one month. Miss Hannan will resume the school.

Several of the Colemanites, ladies included, took in the political entertainment at McCook on Monday night.

Charles R. Herrick of Campbell, Neb., is expected to visit the Stryker family soon. He is a nephew of Mrs. Stryker.

Rev. Gould preaches at the Coleman school-house, every other Sunday, at 3 o'clock. Come and hear this worthy pastor.

Willie Ward had a bee to gather corn, last Saturday morning. Miss Emma prepared a bountiful dinner for the boys who did the work.

The literary is running on full time, every Friday night, at Spring Creek. There were several quiet young debaters at the last session. All are cordially invited.

The Spring Creek teacher found the work too hard as her health was not good, and two weeks ago resigned her position. She was much endeared to her pupils. She is very kindly spoken of.

George Shepherd returned on Saturday from his sojourn of six months in the northwestern part of the state. He had but one day off during that time, July 4th. He was employed by a ranchman.

There was a gathering of 52 persons at the home of G. H. Simmerman on Saturday last, a base-ball game being the amusement. The Coleman and Spring Creek teams played and the Spring Creek boys carried off the honors. A number received accidental bruises. One was hit on the back of the head, and he could not go on with the game for awhile, and he has suffered quite badly at times since.

August Flower.

"It is a charming fact," says Prof. Houton, "that in my travels, in all parts of the world, for the last ten years, I have met more people having used Green's August Flower than any other remedy, for dyspepsia, deranged liver and stomach, and for constipation. I find for tourists and salesmen, or for persons filling office positions, where headaches and general bad feelings from irregular habits exist, that Green's August Flower is a grand remedy. It does not injure the system by frequent use, and is excellent for sour stomachs and indigestion." Sample bottle free at A. McCullen's. Sold by dealers in all civilized countries.

The average woman is not averse to being looked after, for she is nearly always conceited enough to think she commands every man's admiration.

Six Frightful Failures.

Six terrible failures of six different doctors nearly sent Wm. H. Mullen of Lockland, O., to an early grave. All said he had a fatal lung trouble and that he must soon die. But he was urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. After taking five bottles he was entirely cured. It is positively guaranteed to cure all diseases of throat, chest and lungs, including coughs, colds, influenza, pneumonia, bronchitis, asthma, hay fever, croup, whooping cough, 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at McCullen & Berry's.

Some people are so constituted that they are unhappy unless they have something to worry about.

There is probably no disease more distressing and annoying than piles. Tabler's Buckeye Pile Ointment is daily curing cases of year's standing of itching and bleeding piles. The cure begins on the first application, a little perseverance makes the cure complete. Price 50 cents in bottles. Tubes, 75 cents. A. McCullen, druggist.

No maiden band of hope is a husband.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will quickly heal the worst burns and scalds and not leave a scar. It can be applied to cuts and raw surfaces with prompt and soothing effect. Use it for piles and skin diseases. Beware of worthless counterfeits. McCullen & Berry.

No man ever flatters the woman he truly loves.

It brings to the little ones priceless gift of healthy flesh, solid bone and muscle. That's what Rocky Mountain Tea does. 35c. Ask your druggist.

SOUTH SIDE.

In a close but decisive election Driftwood has gone Republican.

Roy Jacobs will arrive home about Sunday, having left Lincoln, by wheel, Thursday afternoon.

Roy Barnes has been home on a short visit, incidentally going to Driftwood school-house to vote, Tuesday.

W. S. Fitch, accompanied by his son Frank, came home from Lincoln, Monday night. Frank returned to Lincoln, Tuesday night.

Among the familiar faces seen at Driftwood school-house, last Tuesday, was that of Uncle Jimmy Harris, who has been absent almost a year. He is making a short visit in that vicinity.

The Republican club is now a thing of the past. They held their last meeting, last Friday evening. There were numerous short addresses among them being one by Sen. E. N. Allen of Arapahoe. This was pronounced the most successful meeting of the campaign here.

Brave Explorers.

Like Stanley and Livingstone, found it harder to overcome malaria, fever and ague, and typhoid disease germs than savage cannibals; but thousands have found that Electric Bitters is a wonderful cure for all malarial diseases. If you have chills with fever, aches in back of neck and head, and tired, worn-out feeling, a trial will convince you of their merit. W. A. Nall of Webb, Ill., writes: "My children suffered for more than a year with chills and fever; then two bottles of Electric Bitters cured them." Only 50 cents. Try them. Guaranteed. Sold by McCullen & Berry.

The candidate who is unable to dodge issues had better give up the job and go to work.

McCullen & Berry, druggists, guarantee every bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and will refund the money to anyone who is not satisfied after using two-thirds of the contents. This is the best remedy in the world for la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough and is pleasant and safe to take. It prevents any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia.

The error of a moment may become the sorrow of a lifetime.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and find it to be a great medicine," says Mr. E. S. Phipps, of Poteau, Ark. "It cured me of bloody flux, I cannot speak too highly of it." This remedy always wins the good opinion, if not praise, of those who use it. The quick cures which it effects even in the most severe cases make it a favorite everywhere. For sale by McCullen & Berry, druggists.

The front parlor is the most popular of all court rooms.

To remove a troublesome corn or bunion: First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn for a few days, to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by McCullen & Berry, druggists.

There are no flies on Father Time. He is always on the fly.

There is no pleasure in life if you dread going to the table to eat and can't rest at night on account of indigestion. Henry Williams of Booneville, Ind., says he suffered that way for years, till he commenced the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, and adds, "Now I can eat anything I like and all I want and sleep soundly every night." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest what you eat. McCullen & Berry.

The most effective blows are delivered in the guise of kind words.

You can't afford to risk your life by allowing a cough or a cold to develop into pneumonia or consumption. One Minute Cough Cure will cure throat and lung troubles quicker than any other preparation known. Many doctors use it as a specific for grippe. It is an infallible remedy for croup. Children like it and mothers endorse it. McCullen & Berry.

The average man likes to point to the good traits in his children as a heritage from himself.—Chicago News.

A DOSE OF JUSTICE.

LADLED OUT WITH A LIBERAL HAND BY JUDGE HOKE.

The Court Considers the Case of Arizona Sam, General Bad Man, and Disposes of It Without the Aid of Advice From His Lawyer.

[Copyright, 1900, by C. E. Lewis.] "This yere case," said Judge Hoke, as he called the court to order, "appeals to me not only as the legally elected and only justice of the peace for the county of Cold Chuck, but to every man in these diggin's who carries a gun and is supposed to hev the sand to take keer of hisself. It is the case of Arizona Sam versus Pete the Half Breed, and Sam is the complainant. I see he's got a lawyer yere to gab fur him, but that lawyer won't hev no talkin to do. "Let us begin at the beginnin. Arizona Sam strikes this town a year ago. He has a yell like a fog horn and he weighs 200 pounds. He wears two guns and a knife, and he bites the tops off a dozen beer bottles to show that he was born in a cyclone and cradled in a hurricane. He was sized up fur a bad man, and fur months and months he's bin cock of the walk. I can't remember that he's killed anybody, but that was becase everybody swallered his bluffs and stepped around softly. He has defied the vigilance committee and he has bluffed this court, and it'll astonish ye to find out jest what sort of a critter he is. Yesterday mornin he starts over the hills fur Tin Cup City. On the way he meets Pete the Half Breed. Most of ye know Pete and most of ye hev heard that he's got no backbone. Pete was ridin his cayuse and Sam was hoofin it. When they come together Sam holds up his hand and says: "'Git off'n that hoss.'" "What fur?" asks Pete. "'Be'case I want him.'" "But he's mine." "Then Sam calls him a string of names 40 rods long. He abuses Pete's father and mother and all the rest of "GIT OFF'N THAT HOSS!" his relations. He chanks his teeth and rolls his eyes and pulls his guns. He wants that cayuse, and he wants him inside of two minutes. Ye may figger that Pete, who hadn't any gun with him, turned pale and fell out of the saddle with a thump, but ye'll be mistaken if ye do. It took him some leetle time to realize the situation, but he didn't skeer. When he got things straight he slid off his critter and ran on to Sam. Did the bold, bad man who has carried the county of Cold Chuck in his pocket fur a year drill holes through the half breed as he comes? Not a drill. Was that an awful struggle lastin half an hour before victory perched on either banner? Not a struggle. That half breed, who was thought to be a worm of the dust, takes the bold, bad man by the nose and leads him around fur awhile. Then he strips him of his weepins, pulls his ears, slaps his jaw and kicks him around a bend of the trail.

"What does the terrible terror of Cold Chuck county do? Hevin given hisself away as a coward and a blowhard does he fall over a cliff that men may furgit him? Does he strike out fur a pint 1,000 miles away, that his name may never be known? Not much. He comes right back to town and to me, and the fust thing he says is: "'Jedge, I want jestice.'" "What sort of jestice?" "'Jestice fur bin held up and robbed by Pete the Half Breed.'" "But why didn't ye shute?" "'He skulked up on me. Gimme jestice, jedge—gimme lots of it.'" "That was Arizona Sam, bold, bad man, and I believed his yam and sent out a warrant and had Pete arrested. I was calkerlatin to gin him a mighty dose of jestice, but hearin his side of the story has changed my mind. 'Sam, the bluffer, stand up. Are ye denyin that what Pete says is true?" "'He lit on me mighty sudden, jedge,' was the reply.

"But you didn't try to pull a gun?" "'Mebbe not.'" "And you didn't fight?" "'I don't think so.'" "That's 'nuff. Ye ar' simply a great big blowhard and a bluffer, and ye've made every good man in this town back water. We'll be the laughin stock of Tin Cup, Pine Hill and all the other diggin's, and we'll feel the disgrace fur five y'ars. I can't send ye to jail fur bein a bluffer and a duffer, but I'm goin to sentence ye to be booted from this yere temple of jestice to the Red Dog s'loon, and if ye ain't over the hill and out of town ten minits later I won't answer fur consequences. As fur Pete, he is set at liberty, and he kin keep yer weepins and be the fust man to apply the boot. The rest of us, includin the court, will fall in arter him, and as ye feel yerself lifted 'lar off the earth I hope ye may come to realize that though jestice is blind and moves along like a kyote with two legs broke, she keeps reachin out her hand till she gits the right critter by the neck.'" We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled."
