

DO YOU FEEL LIKE THIS?

Pen Picture for Women.

"I am so nervous, there is not a well inch in my whole body. I am so weak at my stomach and have indigestion horribly, and palpitation of the heart, and I am losing flesh. This headache and backache nearly kills me, and yesterday I nearly had hysterics; there is a weight in the lower part of my bowels bearing down all the time, and pains in my groins and thighs; I cannot sleep, walk, or sit, and I believe I am diseased all over; no one ever suffered as I do."

This is a description of thousands of cases which come to Mrs. Pinkham's attention daily. An inflamed and ulcerated condition of the neck of the womb can produce all of these symptoms, and no woman should allow herself to reach such a perfection of misery when there is absolutely no need of it. The subject of our portrait in this sketch, Mrs. Williams of Englishtown, N. J., has been entirely cured of such illness and misery by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and the guiding advice of Mrs. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass.

No other medicine has such a record for absolute cures, and no other medicine is "just as good." Women who want a cure should insist upon getting Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound when they ask for it at a store. Anyway, write a letter to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and tell her all your troubles. Her advice is free.

PISO'S CURE FOR CONSUMPTION
CURES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS. Best Cough Syrup. Pleasant Taste. Use in time. Sold by druggists.

Anxious About Wana-maker.
Several life insurance companies are watching with great interest for daily news of John Wana-maker's condition. The ex-postmaster general has over a million on his life, and is probably the most heavily insured person in the country. He has just undergone a surgical operation for the removal of a carbuncle and has not quite recovered, notwithstanding which he made campaign speeches. Love to a woman is a thrill; to a man it is a throb.

Dicky's Had His Hair Cut.
When Richard Le Gallienne arrived in New York from Europe a week ago he was so changed in appearance that few familiar with his face knew him. While in Europe he cut the long, flowing black hair, which has always distinguished him in the past and most deeply impressed his face upon the memory.

Helen Keller a Chess Player.
Helen Keller, the deaf and dumb and blind girl, who has just entered Radcliffe college at Cambridge, Mass., is a descendant of John Adams and a connection of some of the best New England families. Her latest accomplishment is chess, at which she plays a capital game.

The Journeymen of the Eye.
A French statistician has calculated that the human eye travels over 2,000 yards in reading an ordinary sized novel. The average human being is calculated to get through 2,500 miles of reading in a lifetime.

Blue Laws Against Blacking.
The bootblacks of Boston have been forbidden by the police authorities to do any "shining" on Sundays in the public streets of the city.

Increase of Aluminum Output.
The production of aluminum for commercial uses began in 1889 with a total output of 47,468 pounds. In 1895 it had reached 5,200,000 pounds, and at present the rate of production is over 7,000,000 pounds a year.

The First Elevator.
A patent was taken out on a passenger elevator sixty-six years ago. But the first patent for a complete and practical elevator was given to Mr. E. G. Otis of Yonkers, N. Y., in January, 1851; so that while the idea is much older the elevator is only 39 years old.

Sleepless Vigilance.
A Vermont lawyer sent to a client a bill containing the following item: "For waking up in the night to think over your case, 50 cents."

Thickness of Gold Leaf.
Goldbeaters, by hammering, can reduce gold leaves so thin that 282,000 must be laid upon each other to produce the thickness of an inch. They are so thin that, if formed into a book, 1,500 would only occupy the space of a single leaf of common paper.

SPORTING IN ALASKA.

Many Kinds of Game are in Danger of Extinction.
Reindeer have made themselves thoroughly at home in Alaska—that marvelous country whose richness in animal life and agricultural possibilities is not yet half suspected by the majority of Americans. The pilgrim fathers of the family were imported from Lapland in the early stages of the Klondike craze to be worked and eaten by the starving miners. They luckily escaped being eaten, and were later reinforced by 700 reindeer imported by the government from Siberia. From the mixed herd of 1,000 head, or a little more, they have multiplied to 2,000, and under Uncle Sam's protection they promise to play an important part in the future of Alaska and add greatly to its wealth. The 25 Laplanders who came over with the first consignment are on their way home with about $700 each, saved out of their earnings as reindeer drivers and mail carriers. But Alaska needed no importations to add to its fascinations. Gold? Of course—everybody knows about that, but everybody doesn't know that gold is one of the least interesting things about the country. Take strawberries, Alaska has near Big Stone a strawberry bed seven miles long and two miles wide. Fourteen square miles of strawberries! And they are beauties. Nothing finer is grown in this country outside a hothouse. Raspberries and blackberries, too, reach a high pitch of cultivation in Alaska, which is popularly supposed to grow nothing more nourishing than glaciers. Oats spilled by mules as they feed grow wild higher than a man's head, and would yield, it is estimated, 200 bushels to the acre, big as a man's hat. Alaskan tomatoes are described as big as a man's hat. All manner of fruit and vegetables belonging to temperate climes thrive amazingly. All this, of course, is south of Bering sea, in a region where, thanks to a warm ocean current, the temperature seldom reaches zero, even in the long winter nights. As for game, big and little, it is of unmatched richness, but bids fair to be extinguished. Deer exist no longer, and the moose and the sea otter are hovering on the verge of annihilation. Nevertheless, an Alaskan traveler, C. F. Perolat, has just returned home with a collection of the largest moose heads in the world. But the sportsman is less of a menace to the fauna of Alaska than the trader. The skin of a single sea otter will now sell in London for as much as $1,200.—New York World.

Educate the Women.
In a sermon recently delivered at Rome by Bishop Spalding of Peoria, Ill., a Roman Catholic ecclesiast, he said: Since it is our duty to educate, it is our duty to give the best education, and first of all to give the best education to woman; for she, as mother, is the aboriginal God-appointed educator. What hope is there of genuine progress, in religious life especially, if we leave her uneducated? Where woman is ignorant, man is coarse and sensual, where her religion is but a superstition he is sceptical and irreverent. If we are to have a race of enlightened, noble and brave men, we must give to woman the best education it is possible for her to receive. She has the same right as a man to become all that she may be, to know whatever may be known, to do whatever is fair and just and good. In souls there is no sex. If we leave half the race in ignorance, how shall we hope to lift the other half into the light of truth and love?

A Noted Knight Templar Owes His Health to Peruna

Colonel T. P. Moody, a prominent Knight Templar, is well known in every city in the United States west of Buffalo, N. Y., as a Jeweler's Auctioneer. In the city of Chicago as a prominent lodge man, being a member of the K. T.'s and also of the Masons. The cut shows Colonel Moody in the costume of the Oriental Consistory Masons, 32d degree.

Colonel T. P. Moody, of Chicago, had Catarrh Twenty-five Years and Was Cured by Peruna.

In a recent letter from 5900 Michigan avenue, Chicago, Ill., Mr. Moody says the following:
"For over twenty-five years I suffered from catarrh, and for over ten years I suffered from catarrh of the stomach terribly. I have taken all kinds of medicines and have been treated by all kinds of doctors, as thousands of my acquaintances are aware in different parts of the United States, where I have traveled, but the relief was only temporary, until a little over a year ago I started to take Peruna, and at the present time I am better than I have been for twenty years."

"The soreness has left my stomach entirely and I am free from indigestion and dyspepsia and will say to all who are troubled with catarrh or stomach trouble of any kind, don't put it off and suffer, but begin to take Peruna right away, and keep it up until you are cured, as you surely will be if you persevere."

"My wife, as many in the southwest can say, was troubled with a bad cough and bronchial trouble, and doctors all over the country gave her up to die, as they could do nothing more for her. She began taking Peruna with the result that she is better now than she has been in years, and her cough has almost left her entirely. The soreness has left her lungs and she is as well as she ever was in her life, with thanks, as she says, to Peruna. Yours very truly, T. P. Moody."

Catarrh in its various forms is rapidly becoming a general curse. An undoubted remedy has been discovered by Dr. Hartman. This remedy has been thoroughly tested during the past forty years. Prominent men have come to know of its virtues, and are making public utterances on the subject. To save the country we must save the people. To save the people we must protect them from disease. The disease that is at once the most prevalent and stubborn of cure is catarrh.

If you were to make a list of the different names that have been applied to catarrh in different locations and organs, the result would be astonishing. We have often published a partial list of these names, and the surprise caused by the first publication of it to all people, both professional and non-professional, was amusing. And yet we have never enumerated all of the diseases which are classed as catarrh. It must be confessed, however, to see even this partial list drawn up in battle array is rather appalling. If the reader desires to see this list, together with a short exposition of each one, send for our free catarrh book. Address The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.
