The legislative wheels are again in motion. The buttons to start the machinery were pressed at noon January , according to the constitutional mandate, by Secretary of State Porter, in the house, and Lieutenant Governor Gubert, in the senate.

The program agreed upon by the two party caucuses the previous nightwere carried out without visible hitch in the organization of both houses, after which adjournment was taken for the day, to prepare for the canvass of the vote in joint session on Wednesday, when perhaps a few more steps will be taken in further perfecting the outgoing and incoming governors being reserved for Thursday. As usual chief interest centered in the house to which was attracted a good attendance of spectators, who, however, soon tired of the lack of excitement in the proceedings and gradually stole away. There were no flowers and little applause, except for two neat speeches of the temporary and permanent speakers. The senate organized along lines agreed upon in caucus and adjourned to meet at 10 o'clock Wednesday. Senators were called to order by Lieutenant Governor Gilbert. Alpha Morgan, secretary of the last senate, was present, and had prepared a temporary roll, which was called. Rev. Mr. Cressman asked divine blessing to rest on those present and to guide their every act. Senators Currie of Custer, Edgar of Gage county, were appointed a committee on credentials. After a tenminute recess, during which time they prepared their findings, they reported that all, with the exception of two, whose names were on the list read by Mr. Morgan, had presented duly accredited credentials, appearing valid and conclusive on their face, and should therefore be entitled to seats. Lyman of Adams and Campbell of Holt had mislaid their eredentials, but were recommended to seats. This report was adopted, thus seating, temporarily at least, Oleson of Cuming and Liddell and Ransom of Douglas, all of whom have contests confronting them.

The republican nominees were as as follows: Calvin F. Steele of Fairbury for president pro tem; John C. secretary, and A. H. Keim of Falls City for assistant secretary. Clark Robinson, sergeant-at-arms, John Patrick of Washington county for doorkeeper, W. H. Pool of Cass for enrolling and engrossing clerk, A. A. Cressman of Crete for chaplain and Harry Beebe of Stanton for custodian of the cloak room.

It was five minutes of the noon hour when the house was called to order by Secretary of State Porter. Rev. George W. Porter of the Methodist Episcopal church of Palmyra led in prayer. Members arose to their feet and remained standing while the divine blessing was invoked. The roll was called by Theodore Mahn, bookkeeper in the secretary of state's office. Boulier of Saunders was the only member failing to respond to his Lafflin of Gage placed in nomination for temporary speaker J. W. Armstrong of Nemaha county, the choice of the republican caucus. Claus Grell of Sarpy, on behalf of the minority, placed in nomination the name of John C. Sprecher of Colfax county. Roll call resulted in Armstrong's election by a strict party vote of 53 to 46 Eoulier, fusion of Saunders, absent and not voting. John Wall of Arcadia was made temporary clerk. The speaker, on motion of Cain of Richardson, appointed a committee of five on credentials, as follows: Cain of Richardson, Andrews of Frontier, Mead of Douglas, Taylor of Custer, Tanner of Nance. On motion of Lane of Lancaster the rules of the twenty-sixth session were adopted pending further action. A recess of ten minutes was taken to give the credentials committee an opportunity to report. Their report was adopted, and Chief Justice Norval of the supreme court administering the

The house then proceeded to elect. as the remainder of its officers, the nominees of the republican caucus, by a vive voce vote as follows: Chief clerk, John Wall, Arcadia; first assistant clerk, A. D. Gilmore, Auburn; second assistant clerk, C. H. Barnard, Table Rock; third assistant clerk, C. E. Sandall, York: fourth assistant clerk. H. S. Wetherell, Alma; sergeant-at-arms, A. Wilsey, Frontier county; chaplain, J. H. Presson, Milford: doorkeeper, F. L. Miller, Beatrice, postmaster, E. D. Preston, Hamliton county. Adjournment followed until 10 o'clock Wednesday. SENATE .- In the senate on the 2d the following list of employes was reported by Senator Currie and elected unanimously in a bunch: Second assistant clerk, Ralph Johnson; stenographer, Miss Nettie Darth; messenger, Alex Porter; private page to lieutenant governor, Charles Perin; clerk of committee on claims, W. H. Van Cleve; janitors, Albert Wahig and Edgar McCrea. The senate authorized the hiring of nine employes, heard five of the sev-imous vote nine referees, with necestwo years as a salary of 2,500 annually. Emergency clause attached. Senator Ransom's kidnapping bill: To amend section 207 of the criminal code. Removes age limit of 18 years in crime of seduction. Providing penof infants, children or adults. To the criminal code relating to allowing domestic animals with contagious diseases to run at large. Emergency clause attached.

HOUSE-In the house on the 2d,

Lane, Fowler and Gishwiller were appointed, with a senate committee, to notify the governor that the legislature is ready to receive communications. Hibbert, Beisner and Schinstock were appointed a committee to arrange with a senate committee for a joint session for the purpose of canvassing the vote. The speaker announced the appointment of the committee on privileges and elections, as follows: Whitmore of Hamilton, chairman; Mullen of Douglas, Beisner of Thayer, Hibbert of Gage, Armstrong of Nemaha, Warner of Lancaster, Brown of Furnas (republicans) and Loomis of Dodge, Hamilton of Butler and Tanner of Nance (fusionists). At 11:30 both houses convened in joint session for the purpose of canvassing the vote of the last general election. The members of the house arose and remained standing while the senators entered representattive hall, escorted by their sergeanti-at-arms. Lieutonant Governor Gilbert and President (pro tem) Steele led the procession. The lieutenant governor called the joint session to order and announced its purpose. The house and senate rolls were called. The secretary of state not showing up to transmit the returns, Representtatives Crockett and Fowler and Senator Arends were sent out to apprehend him. After an interval, Mr. Porter was produced, who handed to the speaker the original abstracts of the vote. The speaker canvassed the vote, and announced the result of the election on presidential electors, state officers and congressmen. Immediately thereafter the joint session, Tanner of Nance moved the appointment of a committee of three, to report at the next session, to ascertain the cost of printing the journal each day in sufficient numbers for each member. Uhl of Douglas amended to include the cost of typewritten and mimcgraph copies. The motion as amended was agreed to. Taylor of Custer amended to strike out the daily papers, and Marshall of Otoe amended to strike out the 1-cent wrappers. Both amendments were adopted, and the motion thus mutilated was agreed to.

> SENATE-The work in the senate on the 3d was principally devoted to discussion of the pending contest cases, and resulted in the papers and documents purporting to be evidence teing delivered to the presiding officer, who opened the packages in the presence of the senate. A resolution by Baldrige of Douglas, diecting the sergeant-at-arms to summon D. M. Haverly, clerk of Douglas county, to bring the ballots and poll books of all the wards of South Omaha, the subpoena to be signed by the presiding officer and countersigned by the clerk of the senate, was passed at the morning session. A motion by Crounse of Washington prevailed, directing the presiding offer to turn over to the committee on privileges and elections all the papers and documents relating te contest cases in the senate. The committee on standing committees gave out the following additional chaionen: Highways, bridges and surveys, Trompen; counties and county boundaries, Van Boskirk; internal improvements, Berlet; school lands and funds, Crounse; labor, Steele; educational, Allen; library, Young; live stock and grazing. Van Boskirk; manufactures and commerce, McCarger; public charities, Martin; miscellaneous subjects, Oleson; corporations, Berlet; constitutional amendments and federal relations, Young; medical societies, Newell; immigration, Currie; insurance, O'Neill; irrigation, Owens: reform schools and home for the friendless, Harlan; insane hospitals, Arends; deaf, dumb and blind asylums, Baldrige; mines and mining, Ransom; apportionment, Van Boskirk. Among the bills introduced were the following: An act to amend section 77a of chapter xviii, article 1, entitled "Register of Deeds," of the Compiled Statutes of 1899, and to repeal said section. A bill to amend sections 18, 20 and 21 of chapter iv of the Criminal Code of the state of Nebraska and repeal sections 18, 20 and 21, Compiled Statutes of 1897. An act to amend section 140 of chapter xxvi, Compiled Statutes of Nebraska for 1899, enti-

IRRIGATION LAWS

Motion in Supreme Court for Rehearing on Riparian Rights.

EFFECTS OF A RECENT DECISION

State Military Board Will Recommend Adoption of a New Code-A Count of the Cash in the State Treasury-Varlous Other Matters in Nebraska.

LINCOLN, Neb., Jan. 7.-A motion for rehearing has been filed with the supreme court in the suit involving the irrigation laws of the state. Four weeks ago the supreme court held to the old English common law in the matter of riparian rights and thereby undermined the irrigation of the entire state, the only resource of owners of thousands and thousands of arid acres in western Nebraska.

Briefly stated, the court's opinion held that a property owner along the banks of a stream has the right to use of that water undiminished in quantity and undiluted in quality, so far as property owners further down the stream are concerned. As the tapping of streams and drawing off of water for irrigation purposes diminished the quantity in the stream, all attempts at irrigation would be unlawful according to this interpreta-

Several attorneys of the western portion of the state have interested themselves in the case because of the vast interests involved and the wide sweeping effect of the court's announced decision of allowed to stand. They have united in a brief in suporpt of the motion for rehearing, and in this they argue that there is not a single precedent in Nebraska to support the court's opinion.

Mrs. Jos. May is Dead.

FREMONT, Neb., Jan. 7 .- Mrs. Joseph May, wife of Joseph T. May of this city, died after a long illness, aged 53 years.
