Question Answered

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Get Green's Prize Almanac. A. McMillen.

L. R. Corwin informs us that if the weather continues fine next week, he and Mrs. Corbin will take their departure for their new home in Indianola. Mr. Corbin recently bought a $3,000 residence, and as he has long been the owner of a highly cultivated farm five miles from there, has decided to make that section their home. North-West Nebraska is loth to lose these estimable people.—Alliance Times.

Pneumonia Can be Prevented.
This disease always results from a cold or an attack of the grip and may be prevented by the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. That remedy was extensively used during the epidemics of La Grippe of the past few years, and not a single case has ever been reported that did not recover or that resulted in pneumonia, which shows it to be a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has gained a world wide reputation for its cures of colds and grip. For sale by McConnell & Berry.

Like bad dollars, all counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve are worthless. The original quickly cures piles, sores and all skin diseases. McConnell & Berry.

They Say.

It was the Mosaic law, that at the mouth of two witnesses or at the mouth of three witnesses shall the matter be established. (Deut. XIX, 12.) This ancient law of testimony in matters pertaining to justice between man and man, when carefully examined, discloses its importance to social welfare in every age, our own not excepted, that reputation shall not be lightly regarded, nor the welfare of any in their innocence be imperilled by the tongue of the slanderer, and yet it is not perfectly surprising (?) that falsehood and deceptions gain such amazing currency, inflicting such cruel injuries upon the harmless and defenseless, who often like Dreyfus, are compelled at greatest cost to vindicate their innocence. Such malicious defamers, when arrested, as in the case just cited, will coolly reply, well, "they say" it is so. Who says so? "They say." The subjoined poetry of a young lady in Wisconsin is worthy of being preserved, not merely in some friendly scrap-book, but of being committed to memory by every boy and girl, and of being enforced by every parent and guardian of the rising generation; and when thus treated what a vast amount of falsehood in the sphere of religious and social life would be relegated to the pit where it belongs. GLYNES.

"THEY SAY."
Have you heard of the terrible family "They,"
And the dreadful, venomous things they say?
Why, half the gossip under the sun,
If you trace it back, you will find begun
In the wretched House of "They."

A numerous family, so I am told,
And its genealogical tree is old;
For ever since Adam and Eve began
To build up the curious race of man,
Has existed the House of "They."

Gossip mongers and spreaders of lies,
Horrid people whom all despise!
And yet the best of us now and then
Repeat queer tales about women and men,
And quote the House of "They."

They live like lords and never labor,
A "They's" task is to watch his neighbor,
And tell his business and private affairs;
To the world at large they are sowers of tares—
These folks in the House of "They."

It is wholly useless to follow a "They"
With a whip or a gun, for he slips away
And into his house, where you cannot go,
It is locked and bolted and guarded so—
This horrible House of "They."
Though you cannot get in, yet they get out,
And spread their villainous tales about;
Of all the rascals under the sun
Who have come to punishment, never one
Belonged to the House of "They."
—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

La Grippe Quickly Cured.

"In the winter of 1895 and 1899 I was taken down with a severe attack of what is called la grippe" says F. L. Hewett, a prominent druggist of Winfield, Ill. "The only medicine I used was two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It broke up the cold and stopped the coughing like magic, and I have never since been troubled with grippe." Chamberlain's Cough Remedy can always be depended upon to break up a severe cold and ward off any threatened attack of pneumonia. It is pleasant to take, too, which makes it the most desirable and one of the most popular preparations in use for these ailments. For sale by McConnell & Berry.
