S. M. COCHRAN & COMPANY

McCook, Nebraska

DANBURY.

Real estate transfers are not uncommon, in this neighborhood, just now.

Quite a number are heading toward Oklahoma from this section this spring.

And THE McCOOK TRIBUNE is the county's official newspaper for 1901. O. K.

G. W. Billings has returned from McCook, where he has been employed in the Burlington service.

A D. E. Thompson petition has been signed and sent in to Representative Hathorn from this place.

It is stated that S. R. Messner and W. H. Harrison will engage in the implement business in Danbury, this spring.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Woods have returned from Lincoln, where they have been making their home for a year or two.

Ex-Commissioner James Robinson has leased his farm for a term of years and will, early in March, become a resident of Danbury. Here's a warm hand for you Jim.

J. B. Holmes has sold his farm near town to W. L. East. The Holmes family departed last Thursday, for Westfield, New Jersey, where they will make their future home.

O. L. Everist and Frank Brott, with their families and household and effects, left for Mountain Grove, Missouri, last week, and will make their homes there in the future, having bought farms in that neighborhood.

How to Cure the Grippe.
Remain quietly at home and take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as directed and a quick recovery is sure to follow. That remedy counteracts any tendency of the grip to result in pneumonia, which is really the only serious danger. Among the tens of thousands who have used it for the grip not one case has ever been reported that did not recover. For sale by McConnell & Berry.

NORTH COLEMAN.

A young son at E. C. Osbaugh's on the 15th.

B. F. Wilson and his boy John are pretty bad off with colds.

Miss Anna Hannan finished her term of school on the 22nd.

The literary at Spring Creek is running again on Friday evenings.

Mrs. Mary Ward, who spent much of the winter in McCook, is now home again.

The friends of Alva Simmerman will be pleased to learn that his arm is much better. He has suffered severely with it.

Several of the young gentlemen are chopping wood and making posts for H. T. Church. Quite creditable for the boys.

The patrons of the Coleman school surprised the teacher, Miss Brown, on the last day with their presence and a basket dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Epperly have been going the rounds visiting their friends; they have been received very warmly. Many friends have visited them also at their home. THE TRIBUNE will follow them to their new home in Madison county, Iowa. Some fear that the change will not agree with Mrs. Epperly, as she is subject to lung trouble.

LERANON.

William Halsey has purchased the T. J. Cress farm.

T. J. Cress' sale, last week, drew a crowd and everything went at a good figure.

The broom factory at this place operated by D. A. and Bert Waterman is turning out a good product.

Commissioner D. A. Waterman attended a meeting of the board in McCook, latter part of last week.

Mrs. S. E. Ralsten entertained her sister, Mrs. F. C. Bennett of Kansas City, Missouri, part of last week.

W. H. Staples and C. H. Nichols spent a day or two, close of last week, at the county seat on business.

T. J. Cress, formerly of this place, but now of Effingham, Kansas, was a McCook visitor on business, close of last week.

Mrs. S. Kinkad entertained her niece, Miss Mary Scull, of Wilsonville, last week. Miss Scull was on her way to her new home in Iowa.

Word has been received here that Mrs. James Smith of Denver is suffering with smallpox. A few weeks since she visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bradbury at this place.

J. W. Sluts has bought J. W. Hupp's interest in the Sluts & Hupp ranch near McDonald, Kansas. This gives him about 3,000 acres of land, including what he owns and has leased. W. C. Huntsimer will have charge of the ranch.

COLEMAN.

Jacob Betz marketed hogs in McCook, Wednesday.

The Thomas Real sale, this week, passed off in good shape.

They have a new girl at R. E. Divine's and a new boy at E. B. Osbaugh's. All parties doing nicely.

J. W. Corner, Michael Coyle, H. B. Wales, and R. E. Divine were in McCook, Tuesday, with hogs for market.

A gentleman from Indiana has leased the W. O. Norval farm and will be here soon to occupy the same. He has three big boys and wants to buy six good horses, harness, wagon, tools etc.

For the weakness and prostration following grippe there is nothing so prompt and effective as One Minute Cough Cure. This preparation is highly endorsed as an unfailing remedy for all throat and lung troubles and its early use prevents consumption. It was made to cure quickly. McConnell & Berry.

SOUTH SIDE.

Roe Wasson has been sowing rye.

Leslie Jones is helping W. S. Fitch, this week.

John Whittaker and family left for Michigan, Thursday.

John Burtless is putting up a large barn on what was the Whittaker farm.

Merton Bunnell left for Las Vegas, New Mexico, last Monday evening, as he received word to come at once, for his brother-in-law, E. A. Crawford, was dangerously ill.
