

Mildred Trevanion BY THE DUCHESS.

CHAPTER IV.—(Continued.) "Don't be alarmed," said the newcomer, "it's only me, and not the long-expected come at last in the shape of the 'midnight marauder'—I like my grammar, don't you, Mildred? How are you old boy? Glad to see you. Had no idea I should first come upon you spooning with my sister in the moonlight, but accidents will happen. Are they all quite well, Milly?"

fitting raiment got very little of Miss Sylverton's society. CHAPTER V. It was just at this period that Miss Trevanion became aware of a certain falling of Eddie's about which she had hitherto been ignorant. It came to her knowledge in this wise: One hunting morning during the chilly early breakfast, at which she always presided, her father having a prejudice in favor of the coffee administered by her fair hands, it so happened that the post arrived rather more than twenty minutes before the usual hour, and consequently the various letters were handed to the assembled men to peruse at their pleasure, while getting through the agreeable task of devouring cold game-pie.

lowance, and the governor is too hard up to advance, even if he would, another fifty—to say nothing of what I want. Besides, Mildred, I—I could not bear to tell him of it; he has so often warned me against gambling on account of that wretched old story about Willoughby Trevanion. I think it would almost break his heart if he fancied the family curse had broken out again in me, and—oh, Milly, I swear to you I never meant it; it all came about so suddenly, so miserably. I had always been proverbial for my luck, until that evening at the vicount's rooms, and then I lost my head, I think; and the worst of it is Poyntz is just now so deucedly used up himself that he can't afford to wait.

HASTENING TO GIVE UP Many Disheartened Insurgents Surrender Since Aguinaldo's Capture. OFFICERS AND INDIVIDUALS ALIKE The Leader in the Province of Morong is Among the First to Come In—General Cailles' Atrocious Murders Make Him Fearful of a Trial. MANILA, March 30.—On arriving in these waters the United States gunboat Vicksburg stopped eight miles out, and in response to a signal exchanged with Corregidor island, a launch appeared from the shore of Corregidor and Aguinaldo was quietly transferred to the launch, which steamed up the Pasig river to the wharf at the back of the Malacanang palace, where the prisoner disembarked, almost unnoticed.

ALL TO SURRENDER. Aguinaldo Will Issue Address Advising General Capitulation. WASHINGTON, March 29.—A cablegram received at the War department late this afternoon from General MacArthur tells in a succinct way the story of Aguinaldo's capture, gives all credit for the brilliant exploit to General Funston, whose reward he suggests should be that of a brigadier general in the regular army, and finally closes with an expression of confidence in the early cessation of hostilities throughout the Philippine archipelago as a result of the capture. Except that it makes no reference to the disposition to be made of Aguinaldo, the dispatch covers the whole field of gossip and speculation excited in Washington by the news that Funston's adventurous expedition had been crowned with complete success. The cablegram is as follows: "MANILA, March 28.—Adjutant General, Washington: Important messages fell into the hands of General Funston, February 28, from which Aguinaldo was located at Palanan, Isabela province. Expedition organized, consisting of Aguinaldo's captured messenger, four ex-insurgent officers and seventy-eight Macabebes, who spoke Tagalo, armed Mausers, Remingtons, dressed to represent insurgents. Funston commanded, accompanied by Captain Russell T. Hazzard, Eleventh cavalry; Captain Harry W. Newton, Thirty-fourth infantry; Lieutenant Oliver P. Hazzard, Eleventh United States volunteer cavalry; Lieutenant Burton J. Mitchell, Fortieth United States volunteer infantry. Officers dressed as American privates and represented prisoners. Expedition sailed March 5, Vicksburg. Landed March 14, east coast Luzon, twenty miles from Casiguran. Reached Palanan, marching, 3 afternoon, March 23."

AGUINALDO IS TAKEN Was Captured Last Saturday and is Now Under Guard at Manila. FUNSTON'S STRATEGY SUCCESSFUL Posing as a Prisoner the Kansas Fighter Reaches His Man—The Joyful News Comes as Last Chapter in Important Series of Successes. MANILA, March 28.—General Funston, with the assistance of a number of Maccabebe scouts, has captured Aguinaldo in the country near Casiguran, some miles from Baler, on the northeast coast of the island of Luzon. The rebel leader and his entire staff are now in Manila. General Funston employed a clever ruse to reach Aguinaldo. His plan worked successfully, with the result that the head and front of the insurrection is now where he will do no more harm to American interests. Some months ago letters were captured by American troops showing beyond peradventure that the rebel leader was hiding in the northwestern part of the island. General Funston immediately conceived his bold plan to capture him and this received General MacArthur's approval. Two weeks ago he started from Manila with Surgeon Major Harris, Captain Newton of the Thirty-fourth infantry, Lieutenant Admire of the Twenty-second infantry, Lieutenant Mitchell of the Fortieth infantry, six veteran American soldiers and a number of native scouts, all of whom were selected for their bravery and extensive knowledge of the country. General Funston and his party landed as near as possible to the place where Aguinaldo was in hiding, with native scouts, and passed themselves off as insurgents, who, having captured General Funston and other Americans, were conveying them to Aguinaldo. When the supposed prisoners were brought by their alleged captors before Aguinaldo they suddenly appeared in their true character, seized the Filipino and made their way back to the coast, where the gunboat Vicksburg, which had conveyed the party, awaited their return. The adventure was a desperate one, as treachery was always possible, and General Funston had no absolute means of knowing how many men Aguinaldo had with him. It was possible that he would have enough to overwhelm the Americans and their native allies, but this did not deter the Americans. They accepted the risk with the result that Aguinaldo is now safe in the hands of the American military authorities. MANILA, March 28.—General Frederick Funston's daring project for the capture of Aguinaldo in his hiding place in the province of Isabela, island of Luzon, has proved completely successful. Aguinaldo was captured there on March 23. The United States gunboat Vicksburg, Commander E. B. Barry, with General Funston and Aguinaldo aboard, arrived here this morning. BRYAN TO TRY A WEB. The Commoner's Proprietor Will See What a Perfecting Press Will Do. LINCOLN, Neb., March 28.—Beginning with the issue of April 7, 1901, William J. Bryan's paper, The Commoner, will be changed from an 8 to 12-page paper in size, and be printed on a Web Perfecting press, thus dispensing with flat-bed work. The Commoner has been issued from the first by the Lincoln branch of the Western Newspaper Union, and the work has been handled in a most satisfactory manner in all departments. Owing to the rapidity of a Web press, a fear exists of the possibility of maintaining the perfect standard of printing that has character The Commoner from the very first, and placed it among the up-to-date publications in point of mechanical effect. In the event the work is not satisfactory from a rapid press, Mr. Bryan will either install a plant of his own or go back to flat-bed work. In the latter event the Western Newspaper Union will again be designated. Knox Likely to Accept. PITTSBURGH, March 28.—P. C. Knox left the city at 10 o'clock for Washington in answer to summons from President McKinley. It is understood Mr. Knox will be tendered the position of attorney general by the president and the belief is general that if the portfolio is offered he will see his way to accept it. Japan Alive to Situation. YOKOHAMA, March 28.—At a meeting of his parliamentary adherents today the premier, the Marquis Ito, referring to foreign politics, said Japan had attained a position enabling her to protect her legitimate interests and to take whatever steps the exigencies of the moment required. It was impossible to deny that Japan feels the influence of the complications connected with her neighbor.

WILL SMASH IN KENTUCKY. Mrs. Nation Promises Lexington Saloon Men to Come Back. LEXINGTON, Ky., March 29.—Mrs. Carrie Nation opened her lecture tour here tonight, a small audience being present in the opera house. She had arrived from Cincinnati at noon and after dinner in her room at the Phoenix hotel and a brief audience with reporters, she spent the afternoon sleeping.

ALREADY ON THE PAYROLL. Nebraska's Two New Senators May Draw Considerable in December. WASHINGTON, March 30.—By one of those coincidences that happen seldom in government affairs Senator Allen ceased drawing pay as a senator of the United States Thursday, as his successor was being elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of M. L. Hayward. Under the rule of the senate, emphasized on three or four occasions since 1866, when it was first promulgated, the financial clerk of the senate, R. B. Nixon, proceeded Thursday to strike Allen's name from the roll of senators, as the legislature had agreed to adjourn that day, and under a rule of the senate the term of the senator filling a vacancy also terminated with the passage of a concurrent resolution fixing the time certain for adjournment. Had there been no election Senator Allen would still have ceased being senator from Nebraska Thursday, the time set for adjournment, and the state would therefore have been without a representative in the upper branch of congress until an election had been had.

SENATOR J. H. MILLARD. He is at the Head of a large Financial Institution. OMAHA, March 29.—J. H. Millard, one of Nebraska's new senators, is at the head of the Omaha National bank, which is one of the largest financial institutions in the state of Nebraska. He was appointed cashier of the bank in January, 1867, and has been with it ever since. He has a yearly income of $35,000 as president of the concern. His wealth is rated at over half a million dollars.

Attempt to Kidnap Fails. WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 29.—A daring attempt was made to kidnap Edward McAvoy, aged 11 years, of this city. Two men picked him in the yard of his father's home, carried him to a surrey, placed a handkerchief saturated with chloroform over his nose and drove away. The child became unconscious and when he revived he found himself on the back seat of the vehicle.

Treatment of Aguinaldo. WASHINGTON, March 29.—The War department has not had time as yet to consider the exact status of Aguinaldo; whether he is to be tried, and what punishment, if any, is to be meted out to him. But there are certain general principles which are said to be clearly established, and the first question asked is as to whether Aguinaldo is to be tried as a military or a civil offender, or whether under some other charge.

Farms Can Be Made to Pay. A professor in Cornell university has been discussing in print the question whether a farm can be made to pay. He thinks it can, but with some mental reservations on the subject of what it means to have a farm "pay."

Maurice Barrymore's End. NEW YORK, March 30.—Maurice Barrymore, actor, was taken to the insane pavilion of Bellevue hospital this afternoon by his son, John Barrymore. He went to the hospital willfully. He was received there by Dr. Barclay. He had nothing at all to say and acted like a man who was dazed. John Barrymore told the doctor that his father's real name is Blye and that he was born in the East Indies about fifty years ago.

Sultan Fears Assassins. CONSTANTINOPLE, March 30.—Owing to apprehensions of attempts by anarchists upon the life of the sultan, his majesty intends to completely exclude tourists from the precincts of the Yildiz kiosk. As a step in this direction he has ordered the demolition of the pavilion erected at the grand gate of the palace grounds for the accommodation of tourists hitherto permitted to attend the Selamlik.

Burns Hotel Guests' Clothing. NEWPORT NEWS, Va., March 30.—Fire damaged the Augusta hotel, Hampton, to the extent of $15,000 today, the loss being confined chiefly to the furniture and fixtures. The house was well filled with guests, all of whom escaped without injury, but several lost all their belongings. The blaze started in the dry goods store of Mrs. C. W. Betts, on the ground floor of the building. The loss is covered by insurance.
