

Their Secret is Out. All Sedieville, Ky., was curious to learn the cause of the vast improvement in the health of Mrs. S. P. Whittaker, who had for a long time endured untold suffering from a chronic bronchial trouble. "It's all due to Dr. King's New Discovery," writes her husband. "It completely cured her and also cured our little grand-daughter of a severe attack of whooping cough." It positively cures coughs, colds, la grippe, bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. 'The Birds' Early Morning Appeal."

Children do you hear us singing. Singing to you, singing sweet? Do you harken with what gladness,

We the early dawn do meet? With what joyousness we hasten To bear up the fresh new day? "Oh! awaken all ye slumb'rers, Join us in our roundelay.'

Come ye out and note the dewdrops, Spark'ling bend each leaf and blade. See the shrouds the fairy builders Hung on bush, before they fade.

Come ye out and join our chorus. E'er the bright, red tints of morn Glow the East with warmer sunlight.

And the broader day be born. All earth's children who will listen.

Listen to our early notes. In the soft, sweet morning hours, Bursting gladly from wee throats. Will refuse to harm one feather,

For in love not hate He bids us, O'erflow with melody rife. List'! we tell you children, darlings, That we love you every son;

Or to take one little life.

And we ask you dears, to aid us To a life of peace, each one. You should teach us that men's children Will not harm, but mark our stay With all freedom in your cities.-

Then we'll come and sing each morning. At your window or your door, And we'll tell you of the wonders In each birdie life, e'en more, And by shielding us from evil

Teach us this, dears, day by day.

Which we're sure you'll ever do. You will know how much we love you. In our small, free way, won't you?

God in love gave each his nature. And He also gave him food. And He spreads His board with plenty, If 'twere rightly understood, And he says-"Join, eat, my creatures,

You are all my children, all, And the wise should aid the weaker, To secure his bounty, small."

Good Advice,

The most miserable beings in the world are those suffering from dyspensia and liver complaint. More than seventy-five per cent of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects, such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual costiveness, palpitation of the heart, heart-burn, water-brash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in your mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, etc. Go to your druggist and get a bottle of August Flower for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Try it. Get Green's Prize Almanac. A. Mc Willen.
