The Nation's Grief.

The death of the president comes to the people of United States as a common grief. In the north to whose cause he was espoused when civil war raged; in the south, to whose people he brought a message of real fraternity; in the new nation, baptized in the blood of all sections, the name of McKinley had become a household word. He was close to each without indifference to either; with the love of a father, he looked forward to the maturity of the nation over which he had been called to preside.

The hour of death removes politics, but better still the love of a lifetime had extracted whatever asperity might have existed. The high office of president was fittingly filled by a man measuring up to its requirements. To him it made no difference whether patriot had worn blue or gray; he accepted the hearty loyalty of the present as the token of the future. There will be many evidences of the dead president's administration to perpetuate his name. He had an eye to the material supremacy of the union; he had expanded the limits of American authority beyond the seas, but, greater than all—the greatest possible—was the binding of domestic wounds and the healing of internal estrangement. The nation mourns for McKinley; the south kneels at his bier; the whole world sees a weeping but united nation.—Atlanta Constitution.

The late Fusion convention was a frost. THANK God, the Senator Wellingtons, like Assassin Czolgosz, are few.

ONE by one the so-called Silver Republicans are going home—to the Democratic fold. Frank T. Ransom is one of the latest prodigals.

THE gods have dealt kindly, even gloriously, with "Teddy" Roosevelt, in whose hands the peace, honor and prosperity of America will not suffer.

IT IS a credit to the American head and heart that the assassin of President McKinley was preserved to undergo punishment in the regular, lawful mode.

IN establishing responsibility for Czolgosz's unspeakable crime, it is not likely that Emma Goldman, the arch-conspirator, will be overlooked. Such weaklings as Czolgosz are but cowardly, pliant tools in the hands of such professionals as this tigress and agitator for pay.

THE postoffice department has sent out requests for bids for carrying mail in Nebraska. Bids are to be opened, December 3rd. It is the purpose of the department to let contracts direct to those actually engaged in carrying the mails, cutting out the sub-contractors.

YELLOW journalism is getting a deserved black eye apropos of the assassination of the beloved president, William McKinley, "the typical American." Yellow journalism has become a hissing in the ear of decency and demands scarcely less severe treatment than red-handed anarchy. Such papers debauch public sentiment and too oft inspire the assassin's deed.

Slates were never so cheap as this year at the Bee Hive.

At the meat market of D. C. Marsh you will find a very desirable combination for the careful, judicious buyer—the best quality at the most reasonable price.

No school at the Coleman school-house on last Monday, as the friends wanted to attend the funeral of Worth Coleman in McCook.

On Tuesday evening of week before last friends to the number of about forty gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Campbell to let their daughter, Miss Ethel, know that she was twenty years old on that day. She came here early last spring, but her birthday was found out. It does beat all how the girls up here find out such things, and then the next thing is a friendly visit such as this one. It was also Mrs. Campbell's birthday. They all had a good time discussing ice cream and cake until a late hour when the friends returned to their homes, wishing Miss Ethel and Mrs. Campbell many birthdays to come; and they will never forget the many kind friends who called to show their friendship, and make life pleasant, and although among strangers they find many kind friends to cheer them on life's rough journey.

On last Saturday afternoon the residence of B. W. Wilson, with all its contents, except one trunk and a rocking chair, was burned. The origin of the fire is not known. Mrs. Wilson had been doing some baking during the day, but was through and had let the fire go down. There was no one at home when the house took fire. Mr. Wilson was in McCook and Mrs. Wilson had gone to a neighbor's. The boys were out herding cattle and saw the smoke and immediately hurried to the house and found the roof about ready to fall in. They rushed into the house and seized a trunk and rocking chair and carried them to a place of safety. By this time the heat had become so intense that they could not enter the house again. The building was a neat frame structure, twenty-four feet square. It was well built, nicely furnished and a good home. The house and contents were insured for $700. For the present the family is domiciled in a house owned by J. N. Smith.

Very few people are attending the so-called county fair at Indianola. It is a mistake for county commissioners to vote county money for a farce such as this fair is and has been.

The funeral rites of E. O. Arnold of Lincoln took place here, Monday a. m. Mr. Arnold was a son-in-law of G. W. Ritchie. Mrs. Arnold and two children with relatives mourn the death.

Mike Weimkirch attempted to cross the suspension bridge on a wheel, Sunday, when about midway he and the wheel went overboard into the river. No damage resulting, except a thorough wetting.

R. D. Logan of Stockville was here, Monday, and took possession of the drug store and Wednesday put Lloyd Green in charge. Mr. Alley, former owner, has gone to Maywood to engage in the drug business.

An infant child of John O. Miller died at 11 a. m., Monday, of cholera infantum and was buried, Tuesday. The mother's death preceded the death of the child only a few months. Mr. Miller has the sympathy of the entire community.

Memorial exercises were held in M. E. church Sunday and a prayer service Thursday. All mourn the loss of a good president—a great calamity to a liberty loving people. If possible an even greater cause for mourning exists—to know that such lawless, government hating people exist and are in our midst, a constant menace to the faithful officers of a free government.

Census Enumerator Clawson, who is also editor of "The Herald" at Howe, Ind. T. writes:
To Whom it May Concern:—I was a sufferer from stomach trouble until I was induced to try a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and I want to say that in my opinion it has no equal as a stomach remedy. I had tried many different remedies, but none with the happy results of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.
G. A. CLAWSON, Howe, Ind. Ter.
Sold by A. McMillen.

Half-Day Sessions.
Supt Thomas has found it necessary to issue the following letter, of which parents will at once see the wisdom and necessity:
TO PARENTS:
Whereas there exists an overcrowded condition of the preparatory school, in the class for beginners, and whereas it is the judgment of the board of education that half-day sessions should be held in that department. In accordance with this conclusion, therefore, the children of the beginners' class will be formed in two sections, the older ones to attend the morning sessions of school, and the younger ones to attend the afternoon sessions.
The plan is desirable for many reasons. First, 100 children are enrolled in the preparatory department, which is far too great a number in any school room, for either health or comfort. Second, with fewer children in attendance at a single session the teacher can devote more time and greater personal attention to the pupils' individual needs. Third, it is rapidly coming to be recognized that from two to three hours per day is amply sufficient time for any five year old child to be under the restraint of school work. Necessity in this case compels us then to do what is distinctly best for the children's physical and mental well-being.
The teachers have made the divisions into sections in the manner that seemed to them wisest and most expedient, and by their decision, going into effect tomorrow, your... will attend the... sessions only. By order of the board of education.
G. H. THOMAS, Superintendent.
McCook, Nebraska, Sept. 17, 1901.

Malaria and Fever.
At this season of the year the atmosphere teems with malaria. The germs that cause typhoid and malarial fever are not only in the air but in the water you drink. The weak and debilitated become an easy prey to these germs, as they have not the vitality to resist them. Now is the time to fortify yourself against these diseases. Heed nature's danger signals: Tired and weak, no ambition, loss of appetite, coated tongue, headache, indigestion, constipation, restless sleep, and "all run down." If you have any of these symptoms, beware! Do not delay but attend to your case at once, before malaria or fever have fastened their grip upon you. Thousands have prevented a fever by timely assistance with Dr. Kay's Renovator, thoroughly cleansing their sluggish system from germs of disease and impure matter, and avoid a large doctor's bill. Quinine will not cure you nor prevent a fever. Dr. Kay's Renovator will, as it renovates the entire system, and eliminates all malarial poison. The blood is purified and every organ toned up to healthy and vigorous action. If taken now it may prevent months of illness. Just think how much this means to you! Dr. Kay's Renovator is sold by druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of price, 25c and 50c, by Dr. B. J. Kay Medical Co., Saratoga Springs, N. Y. Send symptoms for free advice and free illustrated book. Sold by A. McMillen and D. W. Loar.

The most delicate constitution can safely use Ballard's Horehound Syrup. It is a sure and pleasant remedy for coughs, loss of voice, and all throat and lung troubles. Price 25 and 50c. A. McMillen.

Bird-Shot For Tiger.
No use to hunt tigers with bird-shot. It doesn't hurt the tiger any and it's awfully risky for you.
Consumption is a tiger among diseases. It is stealthy—but once started it rapidly eats up the flesh and destroys the life. No use to go hunting it with ordinary food and medicine. That's only bird-shot. It still advances. Good heavy charges of Scott's Emulsion will stop the advance. The disease feels that.
Scott's Emulsion makes the body strong to resist. It soothes and toughens the lungs and sustains the strength until the disease wears itself out.
Send for free sample.
