TWENTIETH YEAR

McCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 23, 1901.

NUMBER 24

Stangland-Dixon.

Thursday morning at nine o'clock at the apartments of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dixon, in the Temple block, Mr. Knud M. Stangland and Miss Edna Dixon were united in marriage, Rev. L. M. Grigsby of the Methodist church performing the beautiful ring ceremony in the presence of the members of the families (save Roy Dixon) of the contracting parties and Mrs. L. M. Grigsby. It was a quiet, but happy event, joining until doth them part two of McCook's most estimable and popular young friends who have grown from childhood to promising and radiant young manhood and womanhood in our city, who now go forth with bright and happy prospects in the holiest of earth's ties.

The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Stangland, an expert machinist and most exemplary young man. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Traveling Engineer and Mrs. C. A. Dixon and one of McCook's most talented musicians. Both have wide and warm circles of friends, who join us in heartiest wishes for their happiness and prosperity in their western home.

The bride's wedding gown was an ivory-colored Lansdowne, with trimmings of ruffled and tucked chiffon; ruffled skirt with sweeping train. The bride carried a large bouquet of bride's roses tied with white satin ribbons. The bride's traveling dress was of black broadcloth, trimmed with silk and braid.

The groom was dressed in black. The gifts were rich and numerous in cut glass, silver, china, linen, etc., being handsomely remembered by the Congregational and Methodist friends, the A.W.O.'s club and others.

The apartments were attractively decorated with palms, carnations, roses and cosmos.

A delicate breakfast was served in courses immediately following congratulations, the guests being all seated at one large table, whose chief center-decorative feature was a handsome mirror buried in ferns, cut-glass bowls of carnations, smilax and ferns. Misses Ethel Pope, Myra Conner and Bessie Bosworth served the guests.

They departed on No. 13, shortly after the ceremony, for Richland, California, where they expect to make their home. They were escorted to the train by a numerous and joyous company, which sent them on their western way with heartiest congratulations and best wishes.

Bowling Notes.

As the time for the distribution of prizes draws near, much interest is displayed and some good scores are being made.

Louis Thorgrimson has tied the world's record by making 10 straight in a game of nine pins.

Merle is high in ten pins with 191. C. F. Lehn has 84 in seven back.

In the ladies' game, last night, Miss Menard won the prize.

A club is being organized to use the alleys on Thursday nights.

A Good-Bye Party.

The ladies of the Au Fait and Shakespeare clubs, together with a few invited friends, "surprised" Mrs. C. H. Meeker, last Saturday evening at her home, most happily. The party was in the nature of a good-bye, it being known that Mrs. Meeker would leave this week, for Chicago and other Illinois points, to be absent all winter. The party had organized a well-equipped commissary and transport line, so that the gastronomic, as well as the social, feature was strong.

Shandon Bells

An ideal toilet soap sold everywhere at 15c. We had an opportunity to buy a lot at a bargain; our customers get the benefit. We sell it at 10c per cake, three for 25c. McCONNELL & BERRY.

Don't Miss This Chance.

We have 50 patterns of wall paper for one and two rooms that we are selling at wholesale prices. D. W. LOAR.

The Cortland Howe Ventilator is the nearest perfection of any heating stove now in the American market, and S. M. Cochran & Co. are its local proprietors. Don't neglect seeing this wonderful heater, if you are contemplating buying a heater, this fall.

Dress Skirts of our make are very different from the factory-made skirts, being well-seamed, well-lined and finished, and superior in fit. All-wool ones from $2.50 up. The Thompson Dry Goods Co.

We have a good stock of stove boards; also the best blue steel pipe ever offered to the people of this city.

Mrs. U. J. WARREN entertained the ladies of the Entre Nous club and a few invited friends, Tuesday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. George Warren of Davenport, Nebraska, who is here on a visit to her son and family. It was an afternoon of much social pleasure. Dainty refreshments were tastefully served.

Mrs. A. S. CAMPBELL and Gertrude departed on 3, Saturday night, for Pueblo, Colorado, to be guests of her brother, Charles Ingalls, who is employed in the Denver & Rio Grande freight house there, for a week or ten days. She expects to be at home on the Kilpatrick ranch near Imperial, Chase county, first of coming month. Her short visit here was a pleasure to many friends.

The Wages of Sin.

The following sensational and tragic account of an affair in which a former well-known McCookite appears in a leading role is taken from the associated press dispatches of the 20th instant—Sunday last:

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 20.—While grieving over the dual life she was leading with Dr. Orville Burnett, a prominent Chicago dentist, Mrs. Charles Nichol, wife of W. L. Nichol, jr., commercial agent of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railroad, committed suicide, today, in the Marlborough hotel. Burnett also tried to end his own life, at the same time, but was unsuccessful.

The two were found in their rooms, both stretched across the bed, the woman dead and Burnett with his neck pierced with a hat pin, a bottle of morphine clutched in his hand and the gas turned on from every one of the six jets in the suite. Dr. Burnett is still alive and has been arrested.

In one of the rooms was found a note written by the woman, which told of her reason for the act. She said:

"To Whom It May Concern: I did it because I loved him better than anything on earth and he loved me and we could not be separated. Good-bye, CHARLOTTE."

The note, supplemented with a statement made by Dr. Burnett, tells of the tragedy enacted by the two lovers.

According to the dentist's story, he met Mrs. Nichol while yet a young girl in Nashville, Tenn., and fell in love with her. Burnett moved to Chicago and married several years afterward.

"Our love was still strong for each other," said Burnett, "and she moved to Chicago to be near me. We were together nearly every day. There seemed, however, to be a constant remorse on her part on account of the dual life she was leading. Saturday, we went down town together and, after having several drinks, she proposed suicide to me, and we went to the Marlborough hotel and she produced a bottle of morphine she had hidden in her dress.

"She again asked me to die with her, and I consented. Then she swallowed nearly all the contents of the bottle and handed it to me. I drank what was left, but believing that I had not taken enough to prove fatal, I tried to end my life by sticking the hat pin through my neck. I saw this was also going to be a failure, so I turned all the gas on and laid down to die."

Burnett stated that his wife knew nothing of his attachment for Mrs. Nichol. A policeman who was sent to the Nichol home at 6518 Minerva avenue, tonight, to notify Mr. Nichol of the tragedy found no one there but the two little children of the dead woman, one a boy of eight and the other a little girl of four years. They told the policeman that their father was out looking for their mother, who had been missing all last night and today.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 20.—Nothing is known here of Dr. Burnett, connected with the suicide of Mrs. W. L. Nichol, jr., at Chicago. Mrs. Nichol was a daughter of Dr. F. A. Shoup, connected with the university of the south at Sewanee, Tenn., and before her marriage was popular socially both there and in Nashville, where she spent part of her time.

W. L. Nichol, jr., is the son of the late Dr. W. L. Nichol of Nashville, one of the south's prominent physicians. He is at present commercial agent at Chicago for the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railway, but had recently been promoted and was to return to Nashville at an early date to assume the duties of commercial agent at the company's headquarters here.

BURNETT A NEBRASKAN. CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—Dr. Orville S. Burnett was born at Hastings, Neb., about twenty-eight years ago. He was married seven years ago to Grace Anderson, also of Hastings, who had been his playmate and schoolmate from childhood.

Immediately afterward the family moved to Denver, Orville, the son also going. His father was a wealthy stockman, and the young man lived in ease for years. Finally his wife urged him to take up some profession and he decided to become a dentist. About three years ago he came to Chicago to study.

The grand jury has held Burnett to answer for the murder. Burnett was a resident of McCook for a few years, going to Denver from here, and from there to Chicago, where he became "tackle" for the Chicago university football team and studied dentistry on the side in the university. His parents are now both dead, and his only sister, Mrs. Will L. Yetter, lives in Omaha.
