TWENTIETH YEAR

MCCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 22, 1901.

NUMBER 28

A Great Success.

The musical-literary entertainment in the Catholic church, Monday evening, November 18th, was a three-fold success—from an artistic standpoint, from its social aspect, and in the light of the box-office receipts. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity and the large audience was warmly appreciative throughout.

The program was quite lengthy and there was a tacit understanding that there would be no encores, but the insistence of the audience brought an "Ave Maria" from Mr. Snyder and some witty remarks from Rev. Daley in addition to his eloquent recitation of Father Ryan's grand poem on the death of his brother in the civil war.

The excellent program as acceptably rendered was as follows:

PROGRAM.
Piano solo—"Rigolotta".....Miss Howe
Song—"Swanee River".....Ella Sharkey
Piano and violin duo—"Serenade"
.....Messrs. Fischer and O'Connell
Song—"Jerusalem".....Miss Scott
Recitation—"Legend of the Organ"
.....Mrs. Trammell
Song—"The Day is Done".....Mr. Kimmell
Piano and violin duo—"Dancia III."
.....Prof. McGillen and Miss Howe
Song—"The Song For Me".....Josie Sharkey
Song—quartet—"Whispering Will"
.....Messrs. Solberg and Iwens
Song—"To All Eternity".....Mrs. McKenna
Piano duo—.....Mesdames Stranahan and Mills
Clarinet solo—"Traviata Cavatina".....Mr. Snyder
Recitation—.....Rev. Daley

On behalf of his parishioners and of himself Rev. Daley was warm and sincere in his expression of thanks to the fine audience present and to all who added their share in the common success achieved.

It was a most enjoyable informal occasion.
The modest decorations were in patriotic colors.

An Informal Reception.

The members of the Congregational church tendered Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Turner an enjoyable informal reception in the church, Wednesday evening, the friends and members of the church attending in goodly number and uniting in making the occasion a joyous one and worthy remembrance by the pastor and wife.

There was a short but meritorious program which was rendered informally during the evening. It consisted of a piano solo by Miss Olive M. Howe, piano duets by Mesdames W. B. Mills and Mabel Stranahan, recitation by Ruth Warren, vocal duet by Misses Nina Doan and Olive M. Howe, song by Velma Sutton, reading by Mrs. F. W. Bosworth, song by F. M. Kimmell.
Light refreshments were served in the church parlor.

The auditorium was rendered cheerful and attractive by decorations of flags, ferns and cut and potted flowers.

Dewey-Dolph.

The marriage of Charles W. Dewey of this place and Rena Dolph of Danbury was performed by Rev. W. J. Turner of the Congregational church in the Palmer house parlor, last Sunday evening, a small company of friends witnessing the ceremony and tendering congratulations. The bride is a daughter of Joseph Dolph, an old resident of the Beaver, near Danbury. The groom is in the train service at this place. Monday morning they went over to the Dolph farm near Danbury on a short visit to her people.

Masonic School of Instruction.

Grand Custodian Robert French will meet with the brethren of McCook and vicinity, Friday and Saturday, November 29th and 30th, in a school of instruction. Sessions will be held mornings, afternoons and evenings. It is a grand treat to hear Bob French and the brethren will doubtless take advantage of the opportunity to be under his instruction and inspiration during his sojourn here.

Ladies!

Why allow your hair to all come out, when by taking treatment for your scalp at the Toilet Parlors, you can save your "crowning glory" and have a new growth started?

The biscuit-and-honey social by the Epworth League in the Methodist church, Tuesday evening, attracted a goodly company and liberal patronage. There was a musical-literary program and a good social time in the bargain, not to mention the biscuit and honey.

If you want to paint you will be astonished and profited by getting prices at S. M. Cochran & Co.'s.

S. W. Nebraska Educational Association.

The next session of the Southwestern Nebraska Educational association will be held in Holdrege, Nebraska, November 28th-30th. A strong program has been arranged by dint of hard and persistent labor, and a large attendance is expected and a profitable meeting of the association is assured.

State Sup't Fowler will be present throughout the session, being on the program for three or four papers or addresses.

Sup't of City Schools G. H. Thomas of our city has an address on "The Intellectual Elements of Reading," Saturday at 1:30 p. m. Miss Elizabeth Thomson of our primary schools will conduct the Round Table at Saturday morning's session.

Friday evening, Newton W. Preston will deliver a lecture on "John Ruskin." Mrs. J. W. Babcock of Cambridge will on Saturday afternoon speak to the question, "What Can the Patrons Do to Advance the Interests of the School?"

A declamatory contest is among the attractions of the sessions. Doubtless there is much of entertainment and profit in store for all who will attend.

The authorities of the Burlington have granted a one and one-third fare for the round trip to the meeting of the Southwestern Nebraska Educational Association at Holdrege. Dates of sale Nov. 27, 28, 29, good to return December 1.

A Pythian Revival.

McCook Pythians enjoyed quite an inspiring revival, Wednesday evening. There was a goodly turnout of the membership present and a rare social time was had. After the regular business of the evening had been disposed of an oyster supper with trimmings was spread in the castle hall and duly considered by the brethren. A smoker followed the refreshments, at which there was a flow of soul—here fraternity, the real thing, was at its best. Talks reminiscent and present and forecasts of the future were felicitously indulged in. This feature of the evening developed the existence of a superb esprit de corps among the brethren.

Rev. Turner, who will in early December remove from our city, was present later in the evening and voiced some touching and appropriate remarks. The six knights will miss him greatly.

At the meeting on next Wednesday evening, the regular annual election of officers will be held and a full attendance of the membership is desired.

Kidnapped His Own Child.

George White, who formerly followed the painter's trade here, was before Judge Bishop, yesterday, charged with kidnapping his own child—a girl about 12 years old. His wife and two children live in Indianola; the boy is about 9 years old. White went from here to Longmont July a year ago. He recently returned to Indianola and attempted to take the girl with him to Longmont. He was arrested at this place on his way west with the child. He was placed under $100 bonds—with his own recognition—to appear at the February term of district court. The girl was restored to her mother.

White states that he wants to secure a divorce from his wife, who wishes to live with him.

Advertised Letters.

The following letters were advertised by the McCook postoffice, Nov. 18, 1901: Miss Julia Corlette T. Crabtree

Mrs. Lena Cutter Mr. Geo. Greehyer James A. Hess Mrs. Kate Hill Pearl Jennings Mr. James Lawless Miss Minnie Nicholson Mr. Weber Chas. Volbrecht, Esq. Mr. Daniel Wood

When calling for these letters, please say they were advertised.

F. M. KIMMELL, Postmaster.

A Thanksgiving Shoot.

Julius Kunert is arranging for a Thanksgiving shoot of live pigeons and blue-rock. See bills for particulars. He will pay highest market price for live birds.

The American Furrier says: "A garment or piece of fur is valuable in direct proportion to its lustre, its softness, the weight and pliability of the pelt, and, of course, the workmanship and style. Furs should be bought of experienced and reliable dealers and not because of cheap prices as such purchases are the most expensive in the long run." We endorse the above as directly in line with our observation. Our offerings include Collarettes, Scarfs and Muffs in Astrakhan, Stone Marten, Monkey, Krimmer, Persian Lamb, Bear, Chinachilla, Electric Seal, Sable and the combinations at from $7.50 to $1 each. We solicit inspection. The Thompson Dry Goods Co.

It will get colder and "You'll have to hurry" to get coal. It won't be any lower. Let us know what you want and we'll do the rest.

The meeting of the Rocky Mountain Railway club in Denver, last Saturday evening, was of exceptional interest, and attracted a large attendance from over the Burlington. The paper for discussion was: "Boiler Washing With Cold Water." The topical discussion: "Notes on the Convention," by A. L. Humphreys, S. M. P. of the C. & S. railway. Assistant Sup't G. W. Rhodes of the Burlington told of his recent observations in England.

Burlington men yesterday expressed satisfaction at the news from New York that George B. Harris had been again named president of the Burlington by the new board of directors, which is admitted to be a queer mixture of Union Pacific-Northern Pacific-Burlington men. While there has been no alarm felt at Lincoln that Mr. Harris would be displaced, yet the report of his election removed one of the unpleasant possibilities the new combination suggested.—Wednesday's Lincoln Journal.

E. J. Mitchell of McCook has recently been brought into prominence as an auctioneer. His specialties are the selling of stock and general farm sales. During the past few years Mr. Mitchell has made a careful study of the auction business, attending large sales at Omaha and other cities, bringing him in close touch with the best men in the auction ring.—Wilsonville(Neb.)Review, Nov. 15
