Two Cars of Cattle Derailed.

Tuesday morning about half-past eight o'clock as fast freight No. 76 was coming into the yard at this place from the west the sixth and seventh cars from the rear were derailed and overturned near the west section house. Both cars, as well as most of the cars composing the train, were loaded with fat cattle, and two of the cows were killed outright, a third being so badly injured that it had to be killed. The wreck was caused by the rear truck of one of the cars taking a side-track at a split-switch. The track day night on 3 on business. was torn up for a short distance and both cars were badly smashed up. No one was hurt. The train was moving slowly or the damage might have been

Gangs of men at once released the imprisoned animals, removed the wreckage and repaired the track, so that there was practically no delay of traffic, the north side-track being clear. Yard switching was somewhat delayed.

It was a fortunate accident as to time, place and results.

Gobble, Gobble, Gobble.

A farmer brought a wagon-load of turkeys to town, last Friday, and in the process of unloading the same it was discovered that eleven of the birds had been smothered to death in transit. The deceased gobblers were thrown out and aside, and in a due time "Shorty' Hosier happened along in his dray and took on the entire cargo, which he at tempted to dispose of by sale.

Chief of Police Gray gathered "Shorty" in and placed him on the tender mercy of Police Juuge Berry, who figured it Lincoln-Haskell Indian football game, cost him just $9.55, including fine and on 3. costs. The little affair threw a distinct gloom over "Shorty's" Thanksgiving

He intended to go to Eureka Springs, Arkansas, for treatment, baths and recuperation, at once, and hopes by the first of the year to resume his works with renewed vigor and enthusiasm, if such a thing can be possible. His sudden illness is deeply regretted by the boys up the valley who expected to enjoy one of his inimitable schools of instruction which he has postponed for the present.

P. E. Os. Organize.

A local organization of the P. E. O. sisterhood was effected at the residence of Mrs. J. G. Schobel, Wednesday, November 20th, Mrs. Jennie Burch, the state organizer from Omaha, doing the work in a very creditable manner. The following officers have been duly elected and installed: President, Mrs. J. G. Schobel; vice-president, Mrs. Ida White; recording secretary, Celia Gorbycorresponding secretary, Elizabeth Thomson; treasurer, Mrs. A. C. Ebert; chaplain, Mabel Wilcox; guard, Ella Leonard; journalist, Mrs. Geo. Willetts;

A Fine Lecture.

The lecture in the Methodist church, last Friday evening, was a fine effort and delighted a large hearing. The topic of Rev. Grose's lecture was the "Schoolmaster Up to Date."

Rev. Grose is agent of the Methodist Book Concern and after the free lecture he devoted his time to exhibiting and selling the books published by that concorn, in which he was equally successful. It is claimed for these publications that they are of a high moral order of fiction in addition to the distinctively religious publications.

W. C. T. U. Reception. On Thursday, November 21st, The Woman's Christian Temperance Union of McCook gave a reception for the teachers of the public schools at the home of Mrs. W. H. Campbell. All the teachers were present with one exception, Mrs. Hedlund, whose recent illness prevented her attendance. There was and informal program interspersed with music, both vocal and instrumental after which dainty refreshments were served. Among the different topics touched upon were following: "Scientific Instruction in Our Public Schools," presented by Mrs. Schobel. "Physical Culture," by Miss Hannah Stangland. | Thanksgiving. "Literature, Pure and Impure," by Miss Leonard. The state law regarding the effect of alcohol was discussed. Prof. Thomas outlined in a most interesting manner the work as taught in the schools in our city. Mrs. Finity presented the topic "The Savings Bank System in the Public Schools." Literature and a further knowledge of this matter will doubtless result in this question being placed before the school board for proper consideration. Reports from schools having tested the system are most gratifying. It is the intention of the Union to send to our teachers a monthly journal known as the "School Physiology Journal." This magazine has the lessons of each grade and gives even the most indifferent teacher abundant material for presenting these topics in such a manner as to interest the pupil.

The ladies present, besides the corps of teachers, were: Mesdames Northrup, Boyle, T B. Campbell, Dole, Griggs, Smith, Selby, Rouch, Traver, W. H. of the hostess.

We as a Union desire to express our appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Campbell for opening their beautiful home for our use, and to Misses Lily Campbell, West and Andrews for the J. R. Roxby and J. H. Mooney of music we so much enjoyed. We trust Arapahoe came up to the city, Monday a hearty cooperation between parents REPORTER.

· Twenty Happy Years.

Dispatcher and Mrs. T. B. Campbell celebrated the completion of twenty years of happy wedded life on last Friday evening, with the aid of a score or more invited friends, at a dinner party of joyous particulars.

Some entertaining social diversions was offered by the geographical conunup from Heartwell, Kearney county, drums propounded, which with the social since close of last week, guest of her chat made the evening pass on wings all too swift.

> Refreshments were served on small tables and were much enjoyed for their dainty toothsomeness.

A DOUBLE WEDDING.

Thursday evening the residence of R. B. Archibald was the scene of one of the happiest home weddings of the season, the occasion being a double wedding uniting in marriage their only daughter Dora Louise to George Robert Frey and Myrtle L. Pronger to Herbert MacKain. The beautiful and impressive ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. M. Hardman of the Episcopal church.

The brides were gowned in tan and pink and gray and pale blue, respectively, and carried bouquets of white roses.

The grooms wore the conventional black. The two grooms first entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Blanche McCarl. They were followed by the brides upon the arms of their fathers, who gave the brides away.

The ceremony was performed under a beautiful floral bell, a bank of potted Ass't Sup't Frank Harris was down plants forming a back ground. The house was beautifully decorated with carnations and roses, smilax and ferns be ing festooned from the archways and curtains.
