A Nasty Practice.

A nasty practice is what the Chicago Inter Ocean calls the pasting of repeated layers of wall paper, one upon another, thus covering up the filth and germs of disease that may be propagated in the very absorbent and decaying mass of flour paste, paper, animal glue, colors, etc.

They give opinions of eminent health officers and sanitarians, urging that such practice should be stopped by legal enactment, and also take occasion to say that these sanitarians recommend Albatrine as a durable, pure and sanitary coating for walls.

The Inter Ocean says: "This is a very important question, and as it costs nothing to avoid this danger, why take any chances?"

MAKES PRESIDENT COMMANDER

Veteran Military Leader Deplores the Strained Relations Existing Between Roosevelt, Miles and Secretary Root—Other Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The report of the testimony given before the senate committee on military affairs by General Schofield, formerly, formerly the commanding general of the army, on the bill to create a general staff, was made public today. He endorsed the bill, saying that he had long since come to the conclusion that there is no room under our constitution for two commanders and that the president, whom the constitution makes the supreme commander, must act through the secretary of war. He added:

"The very exalted individual office, so-called, of commanding general of the army must disappear. There is no room for it in this government, no matter who occupies it; it is not a question of personality at all, or the character of the individual, so far as this great question is concerned. He must be what others nations of the earth have, a chief of staff, not a commanding general."

Referring to the German system, General Schofield said:

"We would have to modify their system so as to make it applicable. If we had at the head of the army for years the same distinguished general, other things being satisfactory, that would be very well, but what is the use of a great general as the nominal head of the army if the president will not even talk to him except to criticize him, or if the secretary of war and he do not even speak to each other? What good is he?"

Senator Burrows: "Why cannot the same condition of affairs exist between the chief of staff and the president?"

General Schofield: "Because he would relieve him and get another. The personal relations between the president, the secretary of war and the commanding general are, of all more important than any law, and that is one of the reasons why this bill is absolutely indispensable, or something like it. You must give to the president discretion to select that man."

Senator Burrows: "Why cannot the lieutenant general of the army and the president confere as it is?"

General Schofield: "They are not on speaking terms."

Senator Burrows: "Not on speaking terms?"

General Schofield: "No, sir. You will have to get rid of that intolerable condition by which this man, close to the president, the only man who is available to do these things, is a man whom the president does not talk to except to criticize him. The result is bad; very bad. The president feels the need of such a man, as did the presidents whom I have known. They would say: 'I cannot do these things; I must have a military man to help me,' then in that situation he perhaps sends for Colonel or Major So-and-So, and he finds there is a bright young fellow and he knows about these things, and in a few days it gets to be known that 'Tom So-and-So' is commanding the army."

HAWAII WANTS MORE MONEY.
 Territory is Restricted in Business Advancement.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Governor Dole of Hawaii arrived here today to confer with the president, at the latter's request, regarding conditions in Hawaii, pending legislation affecting the territory and other matters.

Governor Dole said today:

"There is some complaint among business men of Hawaii on account of tightness of the money market. There are no failures or assignments of importance. The enterprises, however, are too large for the available capital. The Hawaiian government is limited by the revenues which are inadequate for carrying on necessary public improvements. The current revenues are sufficient only to carry out the administration expenses. The last legislature failed to enact legislation for needed loans. The country lost a large part of the revenues at the beginning of the territory by the transfer of the customs revenues, amounting to about $1,200,000, to the federal government."

"But we are getting along. The territorial government is doing something in the way of public improvements, but not nearly so much as ought to be done. The government has little in sight for payment of the fire claims for buildings burned during the plague epidemic in Honolulu in 1900."

BURGHERS HOLD CONFERENCE.

Boer Leaders in Possession of Terms of Peace Offered by the British.

PRETORIA, April 11.—President Steyn of the Orange Free State, Secretary of State Retz of the Transvaal, Acting President Schalkburger of the Transvaal and General Lucas Meyer, commander-in-chief of the Orange Free State forces, passed through Kroonstad, Orange Free State, Sunday, April 6, on their way to Klerksdorp, southwestern Transvaal, where General Botha, the Transvaal commander-in-chief, arrived Monday, April 7. It was expected that Generals Dewet and Delarey would attend the conference to take place there.

It is understood that the Boer leaders are fully possessed of the British peace terms and that the conference then assembling was to enable the leaders to thoroughly discuss peace terms. It is expected that the final decision of the burghers will shortly be made known.

THE LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Latest Quotations from South Omaha and Kansas City.

SOUTH OMAHA.

Cattle—There was by no means a heavy supply of cattle, but still receipts for the week to date show but little change from last week. The quality of the offerings was not quite as good as the more desirable grades sold readily at very satisfactory prices. Cattle sold for about as much on the close as they would have brought at any time. There were fewer choice cattle on sale today than for some little time past. There was not much life to the cow trade and the tendency of prices was undoubtedly downward. Packers complained of the fact that the cow market is too high here, as compared with other points, and for that reason they are slow to pay the prices they have been for the last several weeks. The medium grades and canners were also neglected, and were hard to sell at any price, but that has been the case for so long that that is no longer a feature of the trade. Bulls, veal calves and stags sold at right close to steady prices where the quality was at all good. The stocker and feeder trade was very slow, owing to the rain, which speculative thought would keep buyers at home. The quality was about as usual, but rather inferior and prices lower all around.

Hogs—There was a light run of hogs, and in view of the liberal demand on the part of local packers the market opened active and 50¢ higher, and closed up a big dime higher. After the first round trading was very active and it only took a short time for everything to be in the yards to change hands. The quality was very fair and light hogs advanced fully as much as the heavyweights. Good, heavy hogs sold largely from $6.35 to $6.55, and as high as $7.00 was paid. The medium weights went mostly from $5.75 to $6.50, and the lighter loads sold from $6.75 down.

Sheep—There was not a heavy run of sheep and lambs, and as the demand on the part of local packers was in good shape the market ruled fairly active and just about steady on good stuff. As high as $8.75 was paid for lambs, and some clipped wethers sold at $5.60 and $5.65. Packers all seemed to be anxious for good stuff, but the common kinds they were slow about buying. As compared with yesterday, there was little change noticeable in the prices paid for either the choice or the common kinds.

KANSAS CITY.

Cattle—All standard grades were strong to the higher; stockers and feeders were steady to lower; choice export and dressed beef steers, $6.50; fair to good, $5.00; western feed steers, $5.20; Texas and Indian steers, $5.00; cows, $3.75; native cows, $3.25; hogs, $4.00; calves, $3.50.

Hogs—Market 50¢ higher; top, $7.19; bulk of sales, $6.65; heavy, $6.57; mixed packers, $5.70; light, $6.00; pigs, $4.50.

Sheep and Lambs—Market steady; native lambs, $6.00; western lambs, $6.00; native wethers, $5.50; western wethers, $5.50.

NEW PENSION COMMISSIONER.

Kansas Man to Succeed H. Clay Evans in that Position.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Eugene F. Ware of Kansas has been selected by the president to succeed H. Clay Evans as commissioner of pensions. Mr. Ware is from Topeka, Kan., and is a member of the law firm of Ware & Glead.

Eugene F. Ware has lived for many years in Kansas and has always been prominent in republican politics, although he has never been an office seeker and has seldom held office. He formerly resided at Fort Scott and represented Bourbon county in the state senate. Since his removal to Topeka he has devoted his entire time to the practice of law.

Judge Peters and ex-Congressman Blue were the men urged by Kansas politicians for the place and the name of Ware had not been mentioned. As he enjoys the personal friendship of the president, it may probably be considered a personal appointment. Mr. Ware is not identified with either of the Kansas republican factions.

The new commissioner has achieved considerable reputation in the literary world over the nom de plume of "Ironquill." One of his best known productions is a poem entitled "The Washerwoman's Song."

Music Teacher Says He Killed Carrie M. Jennett.

DETROIT, Mich., April 12.—Prof. Joseph M. Miller yesterday confessed to committing the murder of Carrie M. Jennett.

After being in the sweat box one hour and twenty minutes Miller broke down and confessed to the crime. Assistant Prosecutor Merriam, three officers and the official stenographers of the police department were present. Miller said that he had illicit relations with the girl and was responsible for her condition. He said he offered to send Miss Jennett to a lying-in hospital, but she refused, insisting that he leave his family and go to some other city with her.

Wednesday night, when he started from home for the lodge meeting, he had an engagement with the girl and intended to kill her. He took the hatchet found by the officers in his kitchen with him. He secreted this on Seventh street on his way to the meeting.

In the last few days his condition rapidly grew worse.
