A Printer Greatly Surprised.
"I never was more surprised in my life, as I was with the results of using Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says Henry T. Crook, pressman of the Asheville (N. C.) Gazette. "I contracted a severe case of rheumatism, early last winter, by getting my feet wet. I tried several things for it without benefit. One day while looking over the Gazette I noticed that Pain Balm was positively guaranteed to cure rheumatism, so bought a bottle and before using two-thirds of it my rheumatism had taken its flight and I have not had a rheumatic pain since." For sale by McConnell & Berry, Druggists.

You Can Lead a Horse to water but you can't make him drink.

You can't make him eat either. You can stuff food into a thin man's stomach but that doesn't make him use it.

Scott's Emulsion can make him use it. How? By making him hungry, of course. Scott's Emulsion makes a thin body hungry naturally hungry didn't you? Well it isn't. A thin body is asleep—not working—gone on a strike. It doesn't try to use it's food.

Scott's Emulsion wakes it up—puts it to work again making new flesh. That's the way to get fat.

SOUTH SIDE.

The fall wheat and rye are looking good. J. C. Acheson is irrigating winter wheat.
Leon Hileman purchased a bicycle from Frank Freelove.
The alfalfa is a foot high and will soon be ready to cut.
Most of the sugar beets are up and soon will have to be thinned.
J. A. Schmitz has irrigated his onions by the way of L. H. Wasson's flume.
A small amount of large hail-stones fell here, Tuesday, but did no damage.
W. G. Dutton has built an addition to his house. M. H. Holmes did the work.
There is to be a ball game at Oscar Schmitz's place, Sunday. Better spend your time in church.
Dr. A. P. Welles of McCook visited with Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Wasson on Driftwood, recently.
Messrs. Leon Hileman, Oscar Schmitz and Fred Wasson attended the ball game at McCook, Sunday.

Mrs. S. C. Hileman has not had very good luck with her incubator. She has about 70 chicks from 200 eggs.

Everybody is busy in South Side planting corn and cane. The ground is in splendid shape since Tuesday's rain.

The buffalo-gats have been very bad in South Side but they only cut the new farmers from the east. Coal-oil is the thing to keep them away.

The irrigation ditch washed out, last Friday night. The whole ditch rushed down onto Menard's alfalfa. Two or three acres were covered with mud.

Frank Lamback of Atwood, Kansas, visited at the homes of the Hammonds and Wassons, recently. A good deal of what has been taken by the cut-worms around Atwood.

What makes Baker smile so when you meet him? Is it because his heels are up and looking so well or is it because he is getting good news for his best-drill? Or is it because two young ladies came to make their home with him that he goes about singing "Two Little Girls in Blue." He is congratulated by the entire South Side. Two new pupils for district No. 8.

Mrs. C. E. VanDusen of Kilbourn, Wisconsin, was afflicted with stomach trouble and constipation for a long time. She says, "I have tried many preparations but none have done me the good that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have." These tablets are for sale at McConnell & Berry's drug store. Price 25 cents.

SERVER.

Henry Goodenberger recently sold a number of cattle.

Herman Berndt and sons have bought Ira Peck's windmill.

J. W. Miner and family and earthly possessions left for the west, Tuesday.

Miss Eva Phillips closed a successful term of school, last Friday evening, with an appropriate entertainment which all enjoyed. Miss Phillips was delighted by a present from the pupils of an album.
