TWENTY-FIRST YEAR

McCook, Red Willow County, Nebraska, Friday Evening, May 16, 1902.

NUMBER 1

In Memory of Judge Bishop.
An adjourned session of the February term of district court in and for Red Willow county was held in the courtroom of the court-house in our city, Monday evening, May 10th, to enable the bar of Red Willow county, of which deceased was the first member, to do honor to the memory of the late county judge, George S. Bishop. Judge Norris presided and the regular officers of the court were in attendance. Reporter Eisenhart, Clerk Boatman, Sheriff Crabtree and County Attorney Starr. Besides the bar of the county was well represented in addition to two or three visiting attorneys from the bars of adjoining counties.
At the appointed hour Sheriff Crabtree called the court to order and the committee, Messrs. W. S. Morlan, H. W. Keyes and C. H. Boyle, appointed by the court at the February term to draft resolutions in memory of the late County Judge Bishop, a member of the Red Willow county bar, offered the following report:
REPORT OF COMMITTEE.
May it please the court: The committee, mindful of its duty in preparing suitable resolutions to the memory of the Honorable George S. Bishop, and recognizing his intimate connection with this court, especially at its organization, feel that the following should be made of record:
George S. Bishop was born in Cuba, New York, in the year 1850, his earlier years being spent in the states of New York, Illinois and Iowa, graduating from the University of the State of Iowa at Iowa City from which institution the degree of bachelor of laws was conferred upon him, June 27th, 1875. Soon after his graduation he became a resident of Harvard, this state, where he engaged in the practice of his profession, and later removed to this county and was an active participant in its organization. The first action of this court upon its organization, after the empaneling of a grand jury, was the admission of Mr. Bishop to practice in the court as an attorney and counselor as appears from Journal one, at page two of the records of the court, entered therein April 28th, 1876:
"In the district court of Red Willow county, in the state of Nebraska. In the matter of the admission of George S. Bishop as an attorney and counselor at law, present Hon. William Gaslin, Jr., judge, on motion of Hon. C. J. Dilworth, supported by certificate of admission to George S. Bishop to practice as an attorney and counselor at law in the supreme court of the state of Iowa, being a man of good moral character, it is ordered by this court that he be admitted to practice as an attorney and counselor of this court."
His name appears as counsel for one of the litigants in the first case docketed in this court, and upon the election of county officers for the newly organized county, he became deputy county clerk and clerk of the court. An examination of the records of the county court further discloses that his name appears as counsel in the first case recorded in the county court.
At the general November, 1897, election, he was elected county judge of this county to which office he was twice re-elected, and occupied the office from January 6, 1898, until his decease, December 9, 1901.
In addition to the foregoing and in further expression of the honor, respect and esteem in which Mr. Bishop was held by the members of the bar of this court, not only as a fellow-member of the bar, an officer of the court, and as a resident judge of the county court, before which we have practiced, but as a friend, associate and citizen, we respectfully submit the following resolutions:
Resolved, That the court and bar of this county have lost much in the death of the Honorable George S. Bishop.
Resolved, That Red Willow county has lost one of its first and best-known settlers, who was known, not only as a lawyer and a judge, but was best known to those who came in daily contact with him for his kindness and consideration of the rights and feelings of others.
Resolved, That not only as brothers in his profession, but as citizens of this county, we feel that in his death we have lost one, who by example made the profession more honorable and men more kind and considerate in the strifes and contests common to our profession.
W. S. MORLAN, } Committee.

THE TRIBUNE was incorrect in one detail of the marriage notice of William A. Gold and Ellen N. Miller, last week. The ceremony was performed in Benkelman by County Judge Israel, and not in Akron, as stated. In this connection we might add that the family is now occupying one of Mrs. Gold's residence over on East Douglass at corner of Monroe.
MESDAMES W. S. MORLAN, Vina Wood, H. P. Sutton and Walter Stokes entertained High-five club No. 1, last Friday evening, at the home of the former. Mrs. C. F. Babcock and Mr. W. R. Starr won the first prizes, and Mrs. H. P. Sutton and Mr. F. G. Westland the boobies. Refreshments were served. This meeting concluded the winter's series most auspiciously.

It is hoped in this connection that the purchasing public will make it possible for all to observe this agreement. Business men and clerks are enticed to consideration during the heated term of the summer, and a little forethought on the part of the people will make this early-closing movement successful and easy.

Doings in Municipal Matters.
The city council held a session, Monday evening, with full board present. A motion prevailed to purchase 350 feet of linen-jacket hose. Report of city treasurer to May 1st was filed and referred to finance committee. Petition for library was placed on file for further consideration. On motion C. B. Rowell was employed for one month (more or less) to assist in the work in the city park at a rate of $30 per month. Instruction was given to secure seed for seeding park. The mayor appointed C. H. Meeker, W. C. Mills and G. W. Norris as park committee with power to expend money only on authority of city council. Bills of R. M. Osborn and C. J. Ryan were allowed. Besides a large portfolio of excellent and popular music is given each member free. It alone is worth the membership fee. Think of it! Music at 11 cents a copy!

Got the "Water Cure."
The police had four tramp boys in the cooler, Tuesday night, which they regard as the toughest gang of youngsters that has ever come this way. They celebrated their captivity by smashing up things generally in the cooler. The heavy rain, Tuesday morning, let a few inches of water into the cooler, and the young rascals were incidentally given a touch of the "water cure," which dampened their youthful ardor somewhat. They are promising preps for the pen.

The Tribune is of Age.
With this issue THE TRIBUNE enters upon the twenty-first year of its modest career. For nineteen years the paper has been published and edited by its present owner with varying fortunes—the common heritage of this country—but always realizing the publisher's ambition not yet utterly cast aside. The growth of the flower of permanence is slow, but its bloom is ever alluring.

Drew a Crowded House.
The Passion Play at the Methodist church, Monday evening, filled the church to its capacity, netting the Epworth League a neat sum and furnishing an enjoyable entertainment for many.
