TWENTY-FIRST YEAR

McCOOK, RED WILLOW COUNTY, NEBRASKA, FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 6, 1902.

NUMBER 4

The Final Exercises.

Last Saturday evening, in the opera-house, occurred the commencement exercises of the McCook high school with most gratifying particulars. Following upon the heels of the successful and delightful class-day exercises of the preceding evening, the total impression was most satisfactory, for both of these exercises of first importance of commencement week met with the highest approval of the exacting patrons of the public schools, whose pride will be satisfied with nothing short of productions of merit.

The piano duet, "Il Trovatore," Jean Paul, by Mrs. W. B. Mills and Mrs. Mabel Stranahan, opened the program of the evening, with a splendid selection excellently rendered.

In the absence of Rev. L. M. Grigsby, the invocation was offered by Rev. Frank W. Dean.

The male quartette, Messrs. T. E. McCarl, S. B. McLean, J. R. McCarl and B. B. Gillespie, gathered more laurels in their artistic singing of Dudley Buck's "In Absence."

Charles Lester Little's salutatory was brief and to the point, introducing the speaker of the evening, Ed Amherst Ott, who captivated his hearers.

The feature of the evening was the address to the class of 1902 by Ed Amherst Ott, dean of the school of English and elocution Drake university, Des Moines, Iowa. It was a rare combination of golden advice, dashes of humor and eloquent, graphic descriptive touches. "Sottis Frates," heredity, was his text, and his plain, pertinent truths and arguments, though not always pleasant, were wholesome and unanswerable and worthy profoundest consideration. It was splendidly instructive and entertaining.

The piano, solo, "Valse de l'Opera Faust," Gounod-Liszt, by Miss Olive M. Howe, was a superb popular selection and it was given artistic, masterful treatment, delighting all.

The valedictory by John L. Rice was a characteristic product of much common sense and force, calculated to stimulate and encourage and lacking the not unusual soaring tendencies.

In presenting the diploma Judge G. W. Norris made a brief speech of splendid parts, mingling congratulations with wise advice with much feeling and eloquence.

Mrs. P. F. McKenna had full range for her magnificent vocal endowment in her solo, "Fear Not Ye, O Israel," Dudley Buck.

Rev. G. L. White pronounced the benediction and brought to a conclusion the many happy events of commencement.

The decorations of the stage were quite charming and tasteful.

The Alumni Banquet.

In point of interest and association the annual alumni banquet of the McCook high school association is a close second to the exercises of commencement week, and the sentiment is expanding and growing among the alumni. The banquet and its happy incidents, this year, made glad the hearts of about sixty members and guests, at the high school building, Monday evening.

With the facilities of comfort, art and taste at command, necessary rooms in the high school building were rendered cosy and attractive for the reception and banquet, which is one of the dressiest functions of the whole round year, being distinctively a symposium of youth and beauty and cleverness.

The banquet was spread by the ladies of Dorcas society of the Congregational church with the usual tasteful accessories. The following is the menu:

Strawberries, portier des feuilles
Meat, suc de viande Potatoes
Sandwiches
Tomatoes, ensemble a la mayonnaise
Olives Pickles
Coffee

Fancy cream Assorted cake
After the feast, Sup't George H. Thomas as toastmaster had full sway with the following toasts, which were appropriately introduced by him and elicited a number of felicitous responses:

"Our Colors" Mrs. W. B. Mills, '96
"The Newest Members" John L. Rice, '02
"Just One Year" Walter Thorgirson, '01
"Quantity" Nellie Gunn, '98
"Quality" Millie Staley, '90
"Alumni et Uni" Frank Colfer, '90
"Our Boys" Earl Ludwick, '97
"A Graduating Characteristic" Mabel E. Wilcox, '96
"The Alumni Pedagogues" Kittie Stangland, '97
"The Old Days" Miss Rache Berry
"Letters From Absent Members" Julia Ryan, '98
"Auld Lang Syne"

A number of letters were read from absent members of the association, and the gathering dispersed at a late hour with singing "Auld Lang Syne."

Notice to My Customers.

I wish to announce that my place of business will be open in the evening the usual hours. I do this believing that the requirements of the country trade demand such action, as the 8 o'clock closing hour now practically shuts out the trade of the farmers during the season when they are busiest and are compelled to trade after the day's work is done.

Decoration Day Doings.

Last Friday afternoon, as is the annual and beautiful custom of our people, an effort was made to pay an adequate tribute to the memory of the departed heroes of war now buried in the cities of the dead at this place.

At the appointed time soon after the dinner hour the members of the G. A. R. post and circle formed in line at their headquarters and marched in organizations to the Methodist church, where the regularly arranged program was had in the hearing of a fair-sized and attentive audience.

An organ voluntary by Miss Howe and a song by the high school choir of ten voices, five girls and five boys, opened the exercises.

The invocation was offered by Rev. Frank W. Dean of the Congregational church, and a quartette by Misses Doan and Howe and McLean and Heber followed.

Adjutant J. W. Underhill then read the usual department orders for the day, and Mrs. F. M. Rathburn read a sketch of the immortal Lincoln and his famous Gettysburg address.

W. S. MORLAN, Mrs. A. P. Welles and Dr. A. C. Harlan in the order named then followed with addresses, Mrs. Welles' being directed to the unknown dead. Each in his way was timely, characteristic and excellent.

The graves of R. B. Stewart, a Confederate soldier, Albert Hamilton, son of a veteran, and of members of families of veterans were also decorated.

Destroyed by Lightning.
The granary at Shadland Stock Farm was struck by lightning, Wednesday night about eleven o'clock, and entirely destroyed by resulting fire. The loss on building, machinery and grain is about $550. There is some insurance—exact amount not known. Dan Crowe, who was sleeping in a covered wagon within a few feet of the building, was severely shocked. No one saw the fire, which developed quite a while afterward and quietly burnt itself out during the night. After the lightning stroke different ones looked about but saw no evidence of fire whatever and retired for the night. Amos Rogers slept in the main barn about fifty feet from the granary, but saw or heard nothing of the fire. Under the circumstances it was a very fortunate affair for had the barn caught fire with all asleep as they were, a disastrous fire would have resulted.

Union Memorial Service.
The Knights of Pythias, Odd Fellows and Workman of this city will unite in a memorial service, next Sunday afternoon, in the Congregational church, at two o'clock, Rev. Frank W. Dean to preach the sermon. The different orders will march to the church as organizations, and after the services will march to the city cemeteries and decorate the graves of departed members and members of families in the use of their respective rituals.

Board of Equalization.
The board of county commissioners will sit as a board of equalization of assessments, June 10th, 11th and 12th, of which fact all persons at interest will take note and heed—or henceforth hold their peace for a whole year. ## Only It Was Too Easy.

The Lincoln Burlington baseball club met a condition here, last Friday afternoon, and an overwhelming defeat, at the hands of the McCook Burlington baseball team. The Lincoln boys evidently expected something easy, and the jar must have been anything but that. McCook put up an unexpectedly stiff game and practically shut out the visitors. Reed, Thomas, Colfer and Thorgirson composed McCook's battery and Anthers and Straugh Lincoln's.

The score was 24 to 2 in McCook's favor.

The score by innings was:
McCook 1 5 10 2 0 1 3 1 *—24
Lincoln 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 0 0—2

Hits—McCook 11, Lincoln 6. Home runs—McCook 1, Converse. Two-base hits—McCook Cone, Leach, Dennis; Lincoln Straugh. Errors—McCook 2, Lincoln 6.

This opening game demonstrated the fact that McCook has material at hand to make a winning baseball team, and that team work is only needed under heady management to make them invincible in the amateur field. With the addition of Heck and Cochran of last year's club they will be able to meet all comers. Here's to them!

Shadland Topped the Sale.

W. N. Rogers arrived home, close of last week, from South Omaha, where he had nineteen head of Herefords in a joint sale of "Whitefaces" held by the National Hereford Exchange, Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. He returns in fine feather over the result, as Shadland topped the market on both males and females sold, and besides has the highest average, $232.00. The highest price received for a male was $300.00 and the biggest figure paid for a female was $265.00. Mr. Rogers is pleased with the prices received, but is very confident he would have been paid more if the other offerings in the sale had been of a better quality, being of the opinion that his cattle suffered by the much lower figures paid for many of the other offerings.

Burlington No. 2 Wins.

The High School club and the Burlington second nine occupied the diamond at the Athletic park, last Friday morning, Burlington No. 2 winning almost two to one by superior batting. The score by innings was:

High School 1 0 0 0 2 2 2 1—8

Clifford Brown and Robert Traver composed the High School battery; John LeHew and John Archibald were at the points for the Burlington boys.

Lee's Lice and Mite Killer is a liquid coal tar product, heavily charged with gases which kill insects without having to touch them. It is used by sprinkling on roosts for poultry, on bedding for hogs. It is vastly superior to the weak, inert, diluted imitations often offered as a substitute at a few cents less in price. It is endorsed by all experienced poultry and hog raisers. The genuine is sold by all druggists.
